From Petersburg.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 2. It is reported that the enemy was busy last night shifting troops from the north to the south side of James river, and that there is considerable activity in the enemy's camps. Nothing definite as to their future purpose yet developed. Cold and raining.

From Richmond. RICHMOND, Nov. 2. Col. W. H. Payne, of the 40th Ala. Cavalry, and Lt. Col. G. M. Sorrell, Longstreet's Adj't General. have been made Brigadiers. The former has been assigned to Maffeld's, and the latter to Wright's Brigade.

From the North.

RICHMOND, Nov. 2. New York papers and the Baltimore American of the evening of the 31st have received a telegram from Cattanooga of the 30th. Hood attacked Deca the last night, and this morning was handsomely repulsed each time. Granger captured four pieces of artillery and spiked two. He took 120 prisoners. The rebels are retreating from Decatur, but are reported to have crossed the Tennessee at the mouth of Cypress Creek. Prisoners say Beauregard and Hood are both with the rebel army. Hood in a general order assures his men that Sherman's army does not exceed 35,000. A Louisville telegram says the Journal learns that parties from Chattanooga report that Sherman has evacuated Atlanta. The report is discredited.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

The steamship Canada, from Queenstown on the 16th of October, arrived at Halifax Thursday, the 27tb.

The news by the Canada is two days later. The American advices taken out by the Persis, from New York, October 5, were regarded as less favorable of the cause of the Union, and a decided improvement took place in the prices of the rebel cotton loan. Mr. Gladstone, Chancellor of the English Exchequer, in a speech in Lancashire, expressed his regret at the continuance of the American war, and said that he was in favor of the Americans being left to as a privateer. The Florida was spoken in latitude 44 north, longitude 24 west, on the 2d of September.

The London Times favors the Canadian confederation on account of the "powerful military State" which the American Union has begome.

Financial affairs were still greatly disturbed in England. There was an active demand for discount. Over half a dozen new failures and suspensions are reported A. Droster, a London corn merchant, com mitted suicide in consequence of his embarrass-

The Germans and Denmark were about to conclude a treaty of peace.

The Liverpool cotton market was quiet, with quotations unchanged on the 15th of October. A better tone prevailed in the market. Breadstuffs were quiet and provisions dull. Consols closed in London on the 15th at 88 5 8 884 for money.

FROM THE RIO GRANDE. - Confirmation of the report that the Mexican General Cortina had forsaken A first day of every month, for Gen Lee's army. All boxes the republican cause and gone over to the imperialists is furnished by the arrival here yesterday of the steamship Havana, from Havana on the 22d instant. That blustering ex patriot is said to have surrendered himself, his troops and the town of Matamoras to Mejia on the 28th ult., and sworn fealty to Maximilian. General Canales, another of the republican officers, refused to give in his adhesion to THIS WORK, OF ABOUT 100 PAGES, IS NOW IN the empire, but crossed over from Matamoras to Brownsville, Texas, with about three hundred men, and surrendered to Col. Ford, the rebel commander at the latter place. Since the occupation of Matamoras by the imperialists, business on the Rio Grande is represented to have very much improved. The blockade running steamer, Zephyr, formerly the Frances, arrived at Havana from Galveston, Texas, on the 15th instant, with over a thousand bales of otton. Her officers reported that no United States vessel was seen on the passage.

A YANKEE TRICK -We were informed this morns ing that the Otey Battery, of this city, was temporarily captured near Petersburg, on Thursday last, by a gang of Yankers, about one hundred in number, who came into our lines ostensibly as deserters without visible arms. As soon, however, as they were in close pistol range of the battery they unbuttoned jackets, and with cocked five shooters demanded a surrender. A Confederate infantry force, near by, coming up, the Yankees prudently skedaddled, with what loss we did not learn. Trojan-like, we must not permit the Yankees, under any pretext, to accomplish by stealth and consing what they find impossible by open assault. Grant need not hope by a trick to wipe out his woful repulse on Thursday last near Petersburg. -Richwood Whig.

THE COMMISSARIAT .- We have information that a million of pounds of bacon have been brought lately within our lines from a quarter which, we may take FIRE REPORTS OF CASES AT LAW. ARGUED it for granted, the enemy is either unapprized of, or unable to prevent communication with. We have Term 1864, No. 2, Vol. I. Equity Cases, No. 1, Vol. I, reason to believe, too that this handsome addition to the Confederate commissariat is but a foretaste of Vol. II, $7.50. THE TRIPLE-BARRED BANNER

Note. - This song was composed in the Louisville prison last January. It appeared in the first number of the Camp Chase paper, and led to something | Shelled Corn, like a warning of suppression, from one of the pri- Corn in the ear, son authorities, who objected seriously to its tone. The air to which it is arranged is very fine, though not a familiar one, and the writer is not quite sure but that it is original.

O, Triple-barred Binner! the badge of the Free, What coward would falter in duty to thee! -On, Southerners, onward, 'till glory be won. And our exples in pride greet the gleam of the sun,

The daughters of Southland are kneeling in prayer. That thy folds ever triumph in battle's fierce glare; Then a welcome to suffering, to prisons and scare, And Freedom's dear smile to the Stars and the Burs.

O, Triple barred Banner! the dread of the Foe, When thou art advancing his might is struck low, No stripes now degrade thee, no symbols of shame. All pure are thy lustres, all peerless thy fame. We weep not, nor faint, as the sad hours roll-They may shackle the body, they cannot the soul. Then we come to troubles and battles and scars. And Freedom's bright crown to the Stars and the Bars.

O, Triple barred Banner I our joy and our pride. Though scorned by invaders, by tyrants decried, Fling forth all thy proud folds to shore and to sea, For the heart of the Southland is beating for thee; And our brothers are arming with nerve and with
