OF THE SOUTHERN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1861, by J. S. THEASHER, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States of the Northern District of Congressional.

RICPHOND, Feb. 1. The Senate passed the Senate bill to abolish the office of all Quertermasters and Commissaries on du'v at posts and departments andto provide for the appointment of bonded agents in their places .-The act also report all authority to detail persons between 18 and 45 in sail departments, and the Senate then went into secret session. ?

in the House Mr. Gholston submitted the follow.

Resolved, That the people of the Confederate, States have ever been and are now ready to yet it is the judgement of the House that while we should manifest a willingness to treat for peace we should not omit to vigorously prepare for war .-That in the judgment of the House the preparation ean best be made by using every effort to place at once in the army every man liable, under our laws. to reader in litary service, and by causing the Quar termaster, Commissary, and other Departmen's to he administered with renewed energy, and since our separate armies and by ceasing to agitate the his already divised public sentiment and has pro-tribute to the efficiency of the press which be cou'd have done if armed and placed in the field.

Mr. Gholson occupied the morning hour, at the expiration of which the currency bill was referred to a committee of conference and the House resolved into secret session,

From the South.

Macon, February 1. A special dispatch to the Columbus Enquirer, dated Marianna, $0th Jan'y, states that the enemy, one hundred strong, came to Rica's B'uff on Apilachicela river and captured a lieutenast and forty neg oes on the 25th, and left on the 29th. The enemy again were reported advancing on Rica's Biuff, number unknown.

PEACE TO THE SOUTH.

The New York World is out in a ponderous leader urging the Government at Washington to to make a generous offer of peace and amnesty to to the South," and that the present is a propitious moment for the step,

The World says : "The fitting thing for our Government to do close upon the heels of our success, is to make a generous offer of peace and amnesty-

The tendency of the thick succession of disasters the South has suffered is to cause disatisfaction and bring the Confederate Government into odium as deteivers of the people and be rayers of their interests. We ought to tike advantage of the feeling while it is fresh. We ou ht to make the most of their gloom and disc uragement before the impression begins to wear off, and the people accommodate themselves to their new situation.

their feelings into a new channel. In a little while they will brace" themselves against their losses, as they did against the loss of New Orleans as they did against the loss of Mississippi; both of which were blows of which the consequences did not correspond to our expectations.

If this go den opportunity is lost, long years of war will still hover over the country. There is no form of danger or suffering so hideous that familiar ty will not strip it of its terrors . "Hope springs eternal in the breast." After a little, if advant go be not taken of this conjuncture, the South will see that they can prolong the horrible struggle indefinitely, provided they only forego the comforts and conveniences of civilized life. They have machinery for the manufacture of arms, and in such a climate as theirs, subsistence is possible if one man in five labors and his creps escape destruction by an enemy. A people reduced to barbarism, that is, a people reconciled to a bare, coarse subsistence, cann it be subdued when fired with revengeful passions, if they are at all numerous. We allud d yesterday to the twenty years war waged by France for the conquest of Algeria.

It cost a hundred millions of dollars and hundreds of thousands of lives to complete the conquest of that petty people; and since their subjugation it has required an army of a hundred thousand men to hold them in subjection. The history of our Flor-Band Iron, Heavy She t Iron, Shevel Iron, Nail Rode, Band Iron, Heavy She t Iron for making Hoops, Spades, &c. ida war affords ar other pertinent illustration. The army of the United States was employed seven years, at a cost of twenty millions of dollars, to conquer the relics or the petty tribe of Seminola In dians, under Billy Bowlegs. It don't weaken a company of Barbarians to cut them of from intercourse with foreign nations; nor will such isolation weaken the South, wif the South does not get dishear ened by yearning after old comforts and lux uries. It hatred and passion are kept up to so high a pitch as to reconcile the people to a life of barbuism, the in er uption of outside intercourse adds to their military streng h by reserving fir war all that would otherwise have been expended on imported goods.

General Har lee telegraphs that the enemy crossed at Springfield on the night of the 26th instant, and moved Northward in two columns, on the morning of the 27th. . He also repor s that all attempts to cross the Cambanee have so far failed. General Taylor reports that the enemy in some force came towards Clinton from Baton Rouge and Bayou Sara, and returned.

Activity is reported on the Mississippi river, troops going up and down. Most of Thomas's army are reported to have marched west from Columbia to Clinton, on the Tennessee river. A portion of these forces, including A. J. Smith's, are uary, 1865. said to be in the vicinity of Huntsville and East-

No change in the fleet off Mobile. The enemy are still leaving Pascagoula .- Rich. Sentinel.
