Cape-Fear

NAVIGATION COMPANY.

THE Directors of the Cape Fear Navigation Company, having in discharge of the duties of their appointment, provided Boats, Flats and all necessary fixtures to enable them to carry into effect the provisions of their Charter, and having nearly expended in the purchase of young prime negroes, the balance of the first Instalment on the Stock, are compelled to call on the Stockholders for an additional payment on their respective Shares. They trust, that with the aid of the present requisition, they will be enabled to make not only a profitable advance, towards the clearing of the North West Branch of Cape Fear, from Fayetteville to Wilmington, but such an one as will insure the patronage and interest of the Public at large.

The little, that the shortness of the time since they prepared for work, has permitted to be done, justifies an assurance to the Stockholders that the result of their exertions will be beneficial.

They therefore give NOTICE, That an instalment of Ten Dollars on each and every share held in the Cape Fear Navigation Company, will be payable to the Treasurer in Fayetteville, on the first Monday in November next, who will on the receipt thereof issue the necessary Scrip.

The STOCKHOLDERS will observe that a forfeiture of Shares is provided for by Charter in case of non-payment agreeably to Notice. By Order of the Board of Directors,

J. W. Wright, Treasurer. Fayetteville, Sept. 28. 34 5

Murder! Murder!

$1000 Reward

WILL be paid to any person for apprehending

Armstead Churchill,

Sen'r. and securing him in any jail in this state or the United States, so that he can be brought to justice for the murder of JOSEPH FREDERICK. Said Churchill is about 5 feet 10 inches high, between 45 and 50 years of age, slender made, walks very straight, blue eyes, thin brown hair, a thin vis age, thick lips, marked with the small pox, the rim of his ears very thin, and apparently notched, a long prominent nose, smiling countenance when speaking, very polite and affable in his conduct and conversation, and remarkable for his gentlemanlike appearance—his clothes cannot be well described, as it is believed he can change them as he pleases, but generally wears a fine blue broad cloth coat. After said Churchill committed the murder, he took his flight on a gray mare, which he probably will exchange, as he is fond of trading. The above reward will be paid to any person when said Churchill is so secured and delivered up to proper authority, that justice can be obtained for the above murder, by
