Latest and Important from the North ---Rebellion in Illinois. RICHMOND, April 3.

Northern dates of the 31st ult., state that a collision occurred on the 28th, at Charleston, Coles county, Illinois, between rebel sympathisers and unionists, in which five of the latter were killed and ten or twelve wounded, and two rebels killed. The latest dispatches say that the rebels. three hundred strong, had entrenched themselves at Galliday's mills. Under command of the Sheriff. four handred men of the 54th Illinoi regiment were marching to attack them. An attack on Mattoon, Ill., is threatened by the rebels from Shelby and Moultrie counties.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] Springfield dates of the 30th say that Col. Oakes, Provost Marshal General, wentto Charleston last night, and to-day telegraphed for the 41st regiment. Gen. Henitzelman has also been requested to send 5,000 troops from Indianapolis, which indicate that the troubles in that section are of a serious character.

Latest from Europe-Return of Judge Ould.

RICHMOND, April 3. In the English House of Commons, on the, 7th, a motion was made that the alleged complecity of Mr. Stansfeld, a member of the House, in the plot to assassinate the Emperor of the French, deserved serious consideration. The metion was rejected by ten majority, and the result was received with as a decided conservative attack on the government, and it is believed that efforts to overthrow the ministry will be renewed after Easter. The House of Lords will give judgment in the Alexandra case soon after Easter. The Pope is seriously ill. Collisions between the French and Papal troops continue.

The Liverpool cotton market is firm. Judge Ould returned from Fortress Monroe last night, and reports that the negotiations on the exchange question are favorable for the return of all Confederate prisoners during the next thirty days. He gives no particulars of his inter-

ATLANTA, April 2. The Nashville Union of the 27th contains interesting particulars from Forrest's advance into Kentacky. Cairo despatches of the 28th state that Forrest arrived on the 20th in Kentucky, divided his pickets, and destroyed railroad bridges, eight miles from Columbus.

Gen. Bryman, with several regiments of infantry and artitlery, went from Cairo to within 12 miles of Union City, and learned that Col. Hawkins, with the 47th Tennessee cavalry, had surrendered, and the Confederates, after destroying the fortification, returned southward, taking their prisoners with them.

The Federal garrison at Hickman was withdrawn. Gen. Bryman is supposed to have abandoned Hickman and Union City, as of no present use to the vankees.

Advices from New Orleans, March 19th, state that Alexandria surrendere i to Porter's fleet without opposition. The yankee cavalry advance, occupy New Iberia. Guerrillas appeared in the vicinity of Baton Rouge and had several skirmish es with the 4th Wisconsin, mounted infantry. Advices to the 26th of March, states that the fleet is still Alexandria.

Nothing definite from Banks and Steel, but it is stated that Banks reported considerable opposition from the forces of Dick Taylor. II. Under the terms of the 8th section of the Act of Congress published in General Orders, No. 28 A. & I. G. O., and the terms of Circular No. 15, of the Bareau, last series, Commandants will proceed to organize the service in their respective States. In addition to the organization therein provided for and in further pursuance of paragraph II, of the said General Orders, No. 26. Commanants well forthwith organize in each county a Board, to consist of not more than three of the most reliable and intelligent citizens, between the ages of 45 and 50 years, and who have been enrolled and detailed for the service. These Boards will be charged with aiding the local enrolling officer in obtaining information concerning all applications for exemption and detail, for agricultural or other industrial pursuits, and also in furnishing

The local and congressiona' enrolling officer will be required to supervise the action of these Boards, and proutly report to the Commandant great cheering. The vote is generally regarded | unfitness or delinquencies on the part of the persons detailed for them. So long as the duties are properly performed, the persons so employed will be exempted from other service. Care will be used in the beginning to select proper men; and in view of the grave duties herein devolved upon the enrolling officer, he will, at his discretion, require the written opinion of the Board on claims for exemption or applications for detail, and may cal on them for special information concerning matters pertinent to the office. In every case referred by the local or Congressional district enrolling officer to the Commandants, an opinion as to the merit must be endorsed or accompany the case, and the like rule will be rigidly observed by Commandants in referring to this Bureau.

all information which may be needed in the duties imposed upon the enrolling officers.

III. Commandants will order the immediate enrollment and examination of all persons within the prescribed ages, who are in the employment of an department of the government, and who are not specially exempted by the Act of Congress; and such as are found fit for service in the field may be detailed until the 10th day of April next, provided an application is made according to the terms of the 6th paragraph of General Orders,

No. 26, herein cited. IV. Commandants of Conscripts will forthwith transmit to this Bureau, recommendations for physicians to employed in accordance with paragraph IX. General Ocders, No. 26, herein cited. Much complaint reaches this Bureau, concerning irregularities in the Medical examinations. Loose or irregular examinations must not be permitted, and Commandants w'll prompily report any well ascertained delinquency in the matter. V. Forms for Consolidated Reports by the Commandant of Conscripts will be forwarded; also forms for the Records of the Congressional Distriet, and Local Enrolling Officers. These records must be accurately kept, and the reports based on them must be in clear and intelligible form, or they will be returned for revision and correction. VI. Persons and classes commercied in the 1st. 2d, 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th articles of section 10th, except those referred to in the latter clause of the 4th article of said 10th section of the Act of Congrass recited, shall be exempted. All other persons referred to in said act shall be detailed.

VII. EXEMPTIONS BY EXAMINING BOARDS. 1. Persons who shall be determined by the Boards of Examination to be incapable of performing active service in the field, and any of the duties montioned in the 8th section of the said Act of Congress from causes of a permanent nature, shall be exempted from military service by the said board, who shall grant certificates thereof: which shall specify the causes of the incapacity, reciting in fall the nature and degree of the disease or other incapacity, and the probable duration of the disability caused by it; and the parties shall not be subject to future examination, unless specially ordered by the Board of the Congressional district in which such parties reside, or by the Commandant of Conscripts for the State, or by this Bureau. 2. When in the opinion of Enrolling Officers the causes for which exemption was granted to a person, after examination by the Medical board, have ceased to exist, they will make a report to the Board, stating the name of the person, when enrolled, when examined, and the disease or other cause of disability, with the reasons for believing it to have disappeared, and that the person is ca pable of performing active service in the field, or some of the duties mentioned in the said 8th section of the a taforesaid.

The Examining Board will then order the party to be brought before it for a re-examination. When a person is re-examined by the Board, his Washington that the entire organized militia of the former certificate shall be surrendered and can-North is to be called into service for six months, celled. 26, A. and I. G. O , current series. 2. Every application for exemption should be carefully minutely and thoroughly investigated by the local Eurolling office, with the aid of the temporary Board to be organized under the 2d clause of paragraph H of this Circular, and be thereafter transmitted to the Commandants of Conscripts for the State, with a report of facts. and their respective opinions on the merits of the

.The report of facts shou d be somewhat in detail, setting forth in regular order the facts developed in the investigation, giving briefly the reasons for the opinion expressed, and instead of being put in the form of an endorsement, will be made on a separate sheet of paper.

The investigation should not be confined to an examination of the application and the papers the statements therein made, but should be directed with a view of ascertaining all the facts and circumstances of the case, as I the exact condition of the parties with relation thereto. XII. DETAILS.

Agicultural Details. 1. The officers of Conscription will give the most careful attention to the provisions of paragraph IV, G. O. No. 26, A. and I. G. O., current series, in connection with the last clause of the 4th article of the 10th section of the Act of Congress cited.

This paragraph embraces the whole system of details provided by law to maintain the industrial production of the country, in view of the public 2. The investigation of every case presented must be the most precise and accurate which can be attainted by the Enrolling officer (with the co operation of the temporary Boards), and all action must be in d rect view of the necessities indicated. Commandants will institute such modes of enquiry and report as will turnish the fullest

The colicy of the law is to enforce the largest amount of production in every case in which the detail is made. The schedule of terms hereto appended will, it is believed, meet a majority of the cases that are likely to be presented. Where it is doubtful whether the case is covered by the classification. Commandants will in general decide by reference to the plain intent of the law, or refer the matter to this Bureau, with full testimony and opinion. In all details there must be satisfactory evidence of the necessity, as expressed in General Orders, No. 26, current series.

Schedule of Terms. 3. Where there are two or more farms contiguous, or within five mites of each other, measuring from the homesteads, having on each five or more hands, amounting in the aggregate to fifteen hands, or whore one person has two or more plantations within five mil sof each other, having an aggregate of fifteen or more hands, there may be detailed one person as overseer or manager of the two or more farms : provided there is on neither of the farms a white male adult declared by the Enrolling other and the temporary Board capable of managing the farms with a reasonable residing on one of the farms: and provided the owners of said farms shall execute a joint and several bond, on the terms prescribed for the owners of filteen hands, except that such person shall not be allowed the privilege of commutation provided in the 4th article of the 10th section of the act recited.

4. Where details are allowed to persons having less than fifteen, and five, or more than five hands. they shall enter into like obligation as prescribed for the owners of fifteen or more hands, except that for each hand less than lifteen down to five. there shall be supplied five pounds less meat, thus : each of fourteen hands, ninety-five; thirteen hands, ninety; twelve hands, eighty-five; * * six hands, fifty-five; five hands, fifty pounds. 5. Where details are allowed to persons having less than five hands, they shall enter into like obligations to sell all their surplus productions to the Government. 6. All details herein prescribed to be allowed are subject to revocation by the Commandant of Conscripts, on the report of the Enrolling officer that the person detailed is not habitually, industriously and in good faith engaged in the occupation for which the detail is granted. Enrolling officers are required to be unusually vigilant in supervising such details. Omission in this duty will constitute grave dereliction. 7. Enrolling officers are required to exercise the utmest caution in recommending details in the classes enumerated. It is by no means intended to grant them indiscrimnately, but to limit them as is consistent with the public good All pertinent circumstances will be carefully enquired int ..-Among these are fitness for the field; ability or aptitude for the purposes of the detail; condition of the family; whether any, or how many are in the military service; public good, justice, equity or necessity, &c., &. XIII. DETAILS FOR PUBLIC NECESSITY. Applications for details, so h as are not required for the service of any of the military Bureaux, or for service in any of the Departments of the Government, including service with contractors, will be made, accompanied by a descirptive list, to the Enrolling officer of the appropriate county or District, and be supported by the allidavit of the applicant, and other testimony under oath. . The Enrolling officer will institute a minute and searching investigation into all the circumstances of the case, the result of which will be set forth on a separate sheet of paper. The district Enrolling officer may, if he approves the application, grant a detail for sixty days, and forward the papers through the Commandant, to the Bureau, for its action. If the application is refused, the reasons in full will be endorsed; and in case of appeal, the papers forwarded to this Bureau, through the same chan-

If the persons for whose detail application is made are engaged in performing the duties on account of which details are asked, they will be allowed to remain until final action. If otherwise, they should be sent to Camps of Instruction.

XIV. DETAILS FOR PERSONS BETWEEN 45 AND 50, FOR GOVERNMENT WORK. Applications for the detail of persons between forty-live and fifty years of age, for service in any of the military Bureaux, or in any of the Departments of the Government, will be made, accounpassied by a descriptive list, to the local or district Enrolling officer ; and it must set forth the nature of the duties to be performed, the necessity for the detail, and the period for which it is required.

The District Enrolling officer, after investiga. tion made and reported as directed in the preceding paragraph, may, if he approve the application, grant's detail for a period not exceeding sixty lays, and forward the papers to the Commandant, for hisaction. An appeal from the action of the Enrolling officers and the Commandant may be taken to this

The skill of the party, the duties to be performed. and why his services are indispensable, and the period for which the detail is required, must be distinctly set forth. Applications for the employees of contractors must, in addition contain a certificate from the officer contracted with, or the head of the Department, that the services of the particular parties are required for the performance of indispensable Government work. The District Encolling officer the papers, through the Commandant (each ex-

If the application is refused, reasons in full will be endorsed, and to case of appeal, papers forwarded to this Bureau; If the parties applied for are at work they will be allowed to remain until action is taken. If otherwise, they should be sent to the Camps of Instruction. Applications for the detail of contractors themselves must also contain the certificate of the head of the Bureau, required by the 11th section of the

XVI. All other applications for exemption or detail, not otherwise provided; will be made to the Enrolling officer, and forwarded through the proper channels.

XVII. Great care should be exercised in exempting or detailing able bodied men between eighteen and forty five. No case should be acted on until after minute and thorough investigation as to the alleged private or public necessity, advantage, convenience, justice or equity, and acto whether persons not liable to service in the field may not be obtained. XVIII. REPORTS. 1. Examining Boards in addition to the lists directed in paragraph VIII, General Orders, No. 26, A. and I. G. O., current series, will furnish District Eurolling officers with lists of men in that accompany it, or merely into the truth of | their districts found fit for military service, but unfit for service in the field, specifying in each case what duties they are capable of performing. Congressional District officers to furnish similar lists to county Enrolling officers, the object being to earble persons needing detailed men to see who are the subjects of detail, and to choose from them.

> 2. Enrolling officers will forward to the Commandant of Conscripts, monthly, a report of all persons enrolled by them, and the action taken in each case. These reports will be consolidated by the Commandant, with reference to the distinctions made in the Act of Congress, and the regulations for its enforcement, in duplicate; one copy of which > will be forwarded to this Bureau, and one kept on file in the office of the Commandant. XIX. ENROLLMENT OF RESERVE CLASSES. 1. S. COUPER. Adjutant and Inspector General." 2. Commandants will keep a separate and distinct roll of persons between the ages of 17 and 18 and 45 and 50. 3. Commandants of Conscripts will assign to duty, as a supporting force for Conscription service, such persons as may be recommended by the Examining Boards as unfit for the field, but as competent for this service; and when as many ss sixty-four such persons are so assigned they will be organized into a company, elect their officers. and return the Muster Rolls to the Commandants ; and if there be not a sufficient number to form a company in each Congressional district, then the Commandant may assign a sufficient number of persons between 45 and 50 years of age, so as to complete a company for each Congressional district. A competent officer, of the rank of colonel, will be assigned by this Bureau to organize such companies into a regiment, if there be the requisite number of companies; or into a battallion, if there be less than ten companies; or into two battalions, if deemed preferable.

XX. GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS. I. Commandants will always bear in mind that General Orders, No. 26, is not only the basis, but forms a large portion of these instructions. They will habitually recur to its provisions, to aid in the application of the other provisions of this Circular. 2. Commandants will of course refer cases of difficulty to this Bureau; but seferences which bear on their face that they are rather to avoid due responsibility or labor, will be retained without re-

3. The duty of the Commandants of Conscripts is, in accordance with these instrictions, to maintain and invigorate the industrial production of the Confederacy, and supply its armies with men.
