York, 6th N C., addressed the meeting in an elequent and patriot c manner. He spoke of the energy and ability disp ayed by Gov. Vance in the disenarge of the duties of his office, and of his maquestion d devotion to the country, and the best interest of North Carolina. In conclusion, he said the Governor had not only proven himself a friend to the soldier, but to the soldier's wife and children : that he had elected to himself a monument in the hearts of his countrymen, and his name would be handed down through time, and remembered with pride and pleasure by every true son of North Carolina, Capt. Shepard, Lieut. Polk. and Dr. Reid, also entertained the meeting with elequent and appropriate speeches, and and the country, the prize for Which we are fighting is within our grasp. The committee submitt d the following preamble and recolutions through their chairman, Capt, Whitaker, which were unanimpusly adopted :

WHEREAS, The time has come when it behooves every true and leyal man to declare his opinions, and avow his sentiments in all things that conearn the dignity, honor, and welfare of the State; we therefore, in public meeting assembled, do hereby declare and set forth our opinions and sentiments upon the great question now before the good people of North Carolina.

Resolved, As North Carolinians we have an abiding confidence in the wisdom, integrity, and unsulfied patriotism of Jefferson Davis. President of the Contederate States.

Resolved, That the able, prudent, and dignified administration of His Excellency, Gov. Z. B., Vance, entitle him to our hearty support, as in him we recognize the patriot, the seldier, the seldier's friend, and the friend of the widow and the Resolved, As we regard him the well tried man for the times, it will be our highest pleasure to contribute our support toward continuing him in office, as Governor of North Carolina for the ensuing term. - Resolved. That as the times demand our ranks should be filled as far as possible, we hope our patrictic Governor will bring into the field the surplus of Militia officers, Magistrates, and Con-Resolved, That we, in public meeting assembled, de hereby invite his Excellency, Gov. Z. B. Value, to visit and address our brigade upon the great questions that relate to the welfare of our State, it his earliest convenience, and that a committee of three be appointed to correspond with him on the subject.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the Raleigh Confederate, Favette-ville Observer, Wilminton Journal, and that the other papers in the State be requested to copy.

The committee retired and subsequently submitted the following preamble, and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted : WERRAS, We the efficiers and men of the 32th N. C. regiment, being separated from our fellow citizens at home, and our N. C. fellow soldiers in the army elsewhere; and wishing to make known to them our feelings in regard to the great political issues now agitating the minds of the citizens and soldiers of our State, which are likely to be developed the coming summer in the con-test for Gerernor;

Resolved, That we have the utmost confidence in the President and Confederate authorities; and that any teaching to the contrary is dangerous, and calculated to weaken and injure our cause and government.

Resolved, That we highly approve of the course which has been pursued by Gov. Vance, in the administration of the State government; and entertaining the utmost confidence in his patriotism and ability, will most cordially support him for Governor in the coming election.

Resolved, That we consider the doctrine taught by W. W. Holden, as dangerous to the liberties of our once happy but now unfortunate country, which has been striving for three years, on every memorable field of blood, to relieve it-self of the memorable field of blood, to relieve it-self of the worm which has so long been gnawing at the roots of the tree of our liberty.

Resolved, That we denounce all reconstructionits and submissionists, and are not willing to submit to any thing short of an honorable peace.

Resolved, That we consider the proposition to hold a State convention at present, as impelitic and unnecessary; and think that those noisy politicises so anxious for a convention, could better serve their country in the army, with an Enfield rifle; especially so when our homes are being invaded and destroyed by the enemy.

Resolved, That we meet carnestly solicit the hearty co-operation of our friends at home, and citizens of the State generally, in defeating all projects of reconstruction and submission, by supplying the indigent families of our noble hearted, patriotic, and brave soldiers with every thing necessary for their comfort, to the utmost of their ability; and by casting their votes in the coming election for men who will be satisfied with nothing short of our final success in the present struggle, and the establishment of our entire independence.
