Mr. Holden's Opinion of Men. KALEIDESCOPIC VIEWS. COL. MCRAE.

MANY Officens and Soldiers will vote for Capt. JOHN F. DANCY, as a most suitable man for the times, to represent Edgeombe and Wilson Counties in the House of Commons, of the next General Assembly. Without anthonly CON. The Colonel boots in one of his recent issues, that he has been in the severest battles of the war, and that he forght like a very Saladin while he seas fighting. We admit it. He fought away a whele regiment in a very short time, and though he no doubt acquitted himself well personally in battle, set is singular that he never received a tion to represent the county of Craven in the House wound .- Roleigh Standard, June 14th, 1864.

PRO. RESIGNATION OF COL. D. K. McRAR. The following letter of resignation from Col. McRae to Gev. Vance will surprise many. The reasons he gives for the step are such as to satisfy his friends and the public. If devotion to the cause, unflinching courage, hard service and hard fighting entitle z man to promotion, surely Col McRae has merited it. - Raleigh Standard, Nov. 26th, 1850.
