Shameful Swindling and Rascality.

We call the attention of the Confederate authorities, civil and military, to the encipined communication from Oxford, in this State exposing a system of fraud and rascality that should be promptly met, and the guilty per petrators be brought to condign pusiSument. We deem it unnecessary to do more than thus direct the attention of the officials to the outrage, assured as we are that prompt and determined action will be taken in the premi-es Scamps of like character are doubtless operating in other portions of the country, and it will Le well, wherever they appear, that information be despatched to authorities competent to act in the matter, without delay .--Let there be no rest for the rascals :

For the Confederate.

MESSES. EDITORS :- Allow me, through your well filed columns, to cite an incident of negligence and rasedity, that occurred at this place some few days ago, and which ought not to go unoticed and unpunished.

Some time last week a gentleman, by the name of H----, came to this place, (and by the way, such visits are not unfrequent, por far betweet;) autorized (so Le said.) by acertain DeLeon, C S. Navy, to purchase wheat for the same. Mr. Alex. Haut, the agent at this place for gathering and forwarding supplies, and, I may add here, a gentleman of great worth, energy and zeal, who has done a great deal for our cause, and is always alert and active, positively refused to allow a grain to be carried out of the county, as he had received peremptory orders from the authorities to that effect. This f-llow (H) then went down to Henderson, and Mr. Hunt fullowed him, and gave special orders to the transportation agent not to allow any wheat

BY THE GOVERNOR OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, IT IS REPORTED TO ME THAT many soldiers from the troops of this State have descried their colors and comrades, and are now lurking in the woods and mountains, some of them subsisting by forcing their friends to violate the laws by aiding them and others by violent depredations upon peaceable citizens, entailing shame and obloquy upon themselves and their posterity, outraging the laws and the peace of society, and damaging the cause of their hard pressed country; and, whereas, General Robert E. Lee, in General Order No. 54, August 10th, 1864, has promised to deal leniently with all who promity return to duty, though they may have iscurred the penalties of desertion by prolonged absence without authority :

Now, therefore, 1, Zebulon B. Vance, Governor of the State of North Carelina, do issue this my Proclamation, urging most extractly upon all such misguided men to wipe out from their once respected names the foul stain of desertion, by promptly returning to the post of duty in accordance with said General Order No. 54, promising to all such who veluntarily retarn or surrender themselves to the proper authorities a full and free pardon, or the infliction of only the mildest penalties of the military law, except those who have been guilty of capital felonies against the lives and property of the citizens; and this promise shall hold good for THIRTY DAYS from the date hereof. And I hereby warn all such who refuse to comply with these terms, that the utmost power of this State will be exerted to capture them or drive them from the borders of a country whose high honor and spotless renown they disgrace by refusing to defend, and that the extremest penalties of the law will be enforced without exception, when caught, as well as against their aiders and abetters, in the civil courts. Simultaneously with this proclamation, orders will be issued to the entire militia of the State, to turn out for their arrest; and I hope, by timely submission, they will spare me the pain of hunting down, like guilty felons, many brave and misguided men who have served their country well and could do so again. Deseriers from other States who hide in our woods and assist in giving our State a bad name, I can do nothing for, but to the erring soldiers of North Carolina, I confidently appeal. And I carnestly call on all good citizens to assist me in making this appeal effectual, both by their exertions as militia soldiers and their influence as men. to take pains to seek out all deserters of their acquaintance, put this proclamation in their, hands, or in the hands of their relatives and friends, and urge upon them to return to the path of duty, which is also the path of safety and honor. If every good and loyal citizen would set about to reclaim or capture one desorter by every means in his power er, he would succeed, and he will have rendered a most valuable and patrictic service to his State and country. Civil imagistrates are also exhor ed to be difigent in proceeding against all such as violate, the statute against harboring, aiding or abetting deserters, and warning is hereby given that in all cases where either civil magistrates or militia or home gnard officers refuse or neglect to GENERAL GROEES,) faithfully perform their duty in this respect, upon proper evidence submitted to me, the Executive protection extended to them under acts of Congress shall be withdrawn, as I cannot certify that | to return to their respective commands without officers, civil or military, who rejuse to perform | delay their daties are "necessary to the due administration of the laws," which they will not execute. Given under my hand, and the great seal of the State, at Raleigh, the 21th day of August, 1864. • Z. B. VANCE. By the Governor : A. M. McPudareus, Private Secretary, pro. tem. DEEPLY DISTRESSED MOTHER calls A upon the kind and sympathizing people of the community, to aid in the recovery of her little son, who left his home in Harnett county, last week, and t as been traced to Raleigh, and from, thence to Goldsboro', where he was seen last Sunday. His name is JOSEPH BLACK, but he passes under different names. He is nearly chiven years old, remarkably well grown for his age, very shrewd and smart, has a scar on one of his feet, has dark skin, dark brown eves, hair cut close, has a tolerably high forehead, and was dressed in common homespun clothing. He is ssupected of having gone to Wilmington.

All good people are appealed to, to aid in re-storing him to his deeply distressed mother. All charges fin his arrest and detention will be cheerfully paid, and compensation, if required. Address Editors Confederate, Raleigh, who will communicate with me.

to be taken from the depot. This is the last heard from this gentleman.

A few days after a gentleman, by the name of H ----- , came to this place for the same purpose, and authorized by the same DeLeon, O S Nacy. Now it turns out that this DeLoon of the U. S. N (?) is a fictitious genlleman, (at least as far as his authority goes for commissioning agents,) and that these "two DeLeon-authorized-gentlemen" are on a speculating tour, and have already realized from twenty to thirty housard dillars!

Verely, this is' a crying shame! There should be a speedy and effectual stop put to these thies is proceedings of the many " outskirting gentlemen" of the army. Buying up provisions in the nz. e of the Government, thereby purchasing at low rates, getting transportation on Government account, realizing immense profiles, and skulking the army, whose we have they are seriously injuring ; all at the exp. ose, and in the name of the tooyermaent. This seems to be getting an every day abair, for these out skirling-gentlemen to be scouring the country under the name of the Government, and purchasing immense supplies for their own benefit to extertion and hit their own pockets-offering $15 when the State only allows $10, in order to facilitate a ready purchase, and obtain a large sopply, knowing full well that even at $15, they can realize a splendid profit.

There are some men, and I am afraid they are not lew, who are cloaked with rascality as with a cloak and should be exposed to the public by having it stripped from their backs by the strong arm of the law In my humble opinion, there should be one responsible person in each caunty, commissioned as agent for procuring supplies, and let his headquarters be at the county seatand not leave Tom, Dick and Harry, and every scapegrace, running loose and wild over the country in the Government's name pur chastag supplies of provisions for ex orrion and their own benefit.

I hope the attention of the auth rivies will be called to this matter. ARGUS. Oxford, Aug. 19, 1864.

Confederate Sceurities.

Within the past werk or two, says the Charleston Mercury, there has been a marked advance in all classes of Confiderate bonds Eight per cents have reached as high as 1 19 for long dates, against 80 to 85 tweery days agi. It is reported that the rapid tise has been occasioned by orders on foreign account. It seems there is quite a demand for 8 per cents in Europe, where the bonds sell readily at 15 to 17 cents on the dollar. Let us see how profitable such sales tre. An 8 per cent. $1000 boad, at 20 per cent. premium, costs the holder $1200. Sent to London, Paris or Bremen and sold, at say 15 cents on the dollar, would give one hundred and fifty dollars in exchange; which am ont, drawn for at current rates (20 for 1) would yield three th usand dollars, less the commissions, &c., &c , which would, of course, be small. Quite a nice operation. Seven per cents three weeks ago were at 70 to 73, new they are 85 to 87. Six per cents of the new $500,000,000 loan have been sold in heavy amounts, the coupons commanding 15 to 16 for 1 among importers, who use them as specie at the custom house. Four per cents are" not fairly qu thee, as a Confederate security, being held only for payment of taxes, the collection of which baving been necessar/ly delayed, virtually puts them out of the market. Confidence is being gradually re-established, and with it comes the enhancement of the value of our public securities and the willing. ness on the part of capitalists to sustain the government liberally. THE DEMOCRACY AGAINST THE WAR --The Democracy of Chester, Pa., resolved last week, in charty meeting, "That the only hope of escape from the evils now pressing upon the country is through p-ace."

No. 54. All persons connected with this army who are absent without proper authority, are enjoined

This order is intended to embrace those who have remained absent beyond the time limited for their return, or after the cause of their absence has ceased. All such persons are admonished that every day they remain away from their posts. adds to the dangers and labors of their camades, while it increases their own responsibility to the laws they are violating. The Commanding General deems it only necessary to remind those who have erred through houghtfaines or negligence, of the shame and disgrace they will bring upon themselves and their families, if they shrink from the manful discharge of duty in the hour of their country's need; and 1-ave their homes to be defended and their independence to be secured by the analded courage of others.

To those whose absence I as been prolonged until they have incurred the guilt of desertion, he can only say, that a prompt and voluntary return. to duty alone can paliate their offence, and entitle them to expect any elemency. If arrested and brought back, justice to the
