A FIGHT ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK.

The United States revenue steamer Tiger. parenant David Evans commanding, arrived sterley from Hampton Roads, towing the half Trap, light ship, which had parted her makings in the late heavy gales. While on the passage up, on the 27th, in the afternoon of that day the Tiger was towed the Rippahanuock by the gunboat Ban-" Cantain ----, in order to clear a rope had fouled the propeller, and anchored e ler Windmili Point, near the Commodore al, Lieutenaut Commander Hooker, say him live hundred yards of the shore. Lieut wher informed Lieutenant Evans that he in mieligence that was reliable that about one thousand of Mosby's men were in the imto lists neighborhood, that they had been and r arms all the previous night, and expecttu - me trouble from them that right.

About dark the rumbling of wheels was lead distinctly by the officers and men on out the Tiger, which was supposed to be wheeling of artillery. About 8 P. M. a be of masketry was heard issuing from towards, near the beach, and a few mina literwards the guard ship opened fire ad shelled the woods. Not knowing exactly and the trouble was, but apprehending a foe has direction, the Tiger's crew beat to Lates, and commenced shelling the woods . In the meantime, the engineer and othwho had been hard at work ever since the s real of the vessel there, reported the pro-Mer clear, and that it was in working order The ancher was immediately hove m and the light ship taken in tow, the Tiis head was turned seaward, and succeeded gaining an offing. About milnight, when had just cleared the spit on Windmill last, heavy firing was going on from the godin, and dishes were seen right on the at (Windaill,) and the conclusion we ome to, was that there was a battery, or see to endeavor to prevent the Tiger, the the same. got vessel, and several schooners that lay
