TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[REPORTED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

A LARGE YANKEE FLEET IN MOTION—DESTINATION UNKNOWN—PROBABLY CHARLESTON.

CHARLESTON, Nov. 29.

We have ascertained that a large Yankee fleet left Port Royal yesterday. Its destination is unknown. Some suppose it carries reinforcements to Burnside, and others that a demonstration on Charleston is intended.

ABOLITION PRISONERS ARRIVED.

RICHMOND, Nov. 30.

Five commissioned officers and eighty-five privates captured by Gen. Hampton's Cavalry arrived here to-night on the Central train.

Northern dates of the 27th have been received.

CAPTURE OF THE BOAT IN BAY RIVER—THE PRISONERS—LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM NEWBERN—ARRIVAL OF REFUGEES—THEIR STORY—GOV. STANLY REFUSES PROTECTION TO ALL WHO WON'T TAKE THE OATH—A FEMALE SPY, ETC.

GOLDSBORO, Nov. 30.

Twenty-five abolition prisoners captured on Bay River, in Craven County, arrived in town yesterday evening, and started to-day for Richmond. Rumor says forty more are on their way hither.

A number of refugees came up from Newbern by flag of truce on Thursday. Among them was Jas. F. Morris, who was turned out of his house about 9 o'clock at night and an abolition doctor put in possession. On remonstrating against such infamous conduct, he was told by the Provost Marshall he might as well keep on the streets as soldiers who were fighting for their country. He then visited Gov. Stanly to get redress, who said he could do nothing for him as he would not take the oath of allegiance; whereupon Morris told his Bogus Excellency he had taken his negroes and house and might now have his head.

These refugees say there are ten thousand negroes in and around Newbern, and that they are dying at the rate of fifteen per day.

The number of abolition soldiers in the same locality is estimated at twelve to fifteen thousand.

A female spy seems to have found her way through the lines to Newbern. It is said when she was refused a pass-port by the officers at Kinston, she went to Richmond and obtained one. The refugees just up say she is regarded as a spy by all true Southerners in Newbern; also, that she traded largely with the notorious Calvin Dibble on her last and late visit.

We have nothing new from the coast.

The enrolling of Conscripts between the ages of 18 and 40 has commenced in this State.

LATE AND IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE—FRANCE WANTS TO OFFER MEDIATION—ENGLAND THINKS THE TIME HAS NOT ARRIVED—RUSSIA MORE FAVORABLY DISPOSED, ETC.

RICHMOND, Nov. 30.

Northern news to 27th received, by which we get the following important news from Europe:

Decouin Del Huis, French Minister of Foreign Affairs, has addressed a dispatch to the Embassadors of France at London and St. Petersburg, dated Paris, October 30th. He refers to the painful interest with which Europe has watched the struggle, raging in America. Europe has suffered from consequence of a crisis which has dried up one of the most fruitful sources of public wealth. The neutrality maintained by France and other powers ought to make them of service to the two parties by helping them out of a position which seems to have no issue. At last accounts the two armies were in a condition that would not allow either any decided advantage to accelerate conclusions of peace. All these circumstances point to the opportunity of an armistice. The Emperor has therefore thought that the occasion has presented itself of offering to the belligerents the good offices of maritime powers. He therefore proposes that England, Russia and France should propose an armistice which might, if necessary, be renewed at future period. This proposal would not imply any pressure on negotiations for peace, which it is hoped would take place during the armistice.

Earl Russell, in his reply, says Her Majesty's Government recognizes with pleasure the design of arresting the progress of the war by friendly measures, but asks, is the end proposed attainable at the present moment by the course suggested by the Government of France. After weighing all the information which has been received from America, Her Majesty's Government are led to the conclusion that there is no ground at the present moment to hope that the Federal Government would accept the proposal suggested, and a refusal from Washington at the present time would prevent any speedy renewal of the offer. Her Majesty's Government thinks therefore that it would be better to await the time when the three Courts may offer their friendly council with greater prospect than now exists of its being accepted by the two contending powers.

Prince Gortschalkoff replies that the proposed offers of mediation if presented in an official or officous character would be the cause of arriving at result opposed to precipitation. If however France should persist in her intention of mediation and England should acquiesce in her course, instructions would be sent to Baron Stoeckl at Washington, to lend the French and English Ministers, if not official aid, at least moral support.

The London Herald bitterly denounces the non-intervention policy of the British Government.

[From our Evening Edition of Saturday.]

ALL QUIET.

RICHMOND, Nov. 29.

There is unusual scarcity in news. Advices from above say every thing is quiet and nothing of interest has occurred.

TROUBLE IN THE YANKEE CAMP—OPEN REBELLION—SEVERE FIGHT.

MOBILE, Nov. 29.

A special dispatch to the Advertiser and Register dated Saltillo, 27th says: On Sunday 23d a Regiment new abolition recruits at Corinth refused to obey marching orders for Grand Junction. Force compelling two regiments attempted to coerce them and a severe fight ensued, lasting three hours. A great number were killed and wounded on both sides. It is said troops from Bienza were ordered up to aid in quelling the insurgents but the fight ceased before their arrival.

LATER AND IMPORTANT FROM THE NORTH.

PETERSBURG, No. 28.

The N. Y. Herald of the 25th received here says: The rebels are still in possession of Fredericksburg at last accounts, but its surrender had been formally demanded. Large force of Stuart's cavalry came to Warrenton Junction on Friday, probably with view to make raid upon Union lines in their accustomed audacious fashion.

Rumors were rife on Friday that Stonewall Jackson was at Winchester with an eye to another raid into Maryland.

The Washington Star says, the great difficiency of Railroad materials in Virginia, may delay Burnside a week, perhaps a fortnight.

A temporary dock 200 feet in length has been constructed at Aquia Creek, and Commissary and Quarter Master's Stores for the entire Army are landed there.

The Herald thinks that the condition of the river after the late rains renders all chance of crossing impossible. Estimates of expenses for Yankee army coming year put down at four hundred and twenty-eight millions. Requisitions upon pay masters department still upward forty-eight millions.

The Memphis Bulletin of 18th says that Rebel Gen. Bragg with fifteen thousand men arrived at Holly Springs last Saturday, and that he was preparing to give Gen. Grant battle. The Herald editorially says that the people of the loyal States as manifested in late elections demand an active prosecution of the war East and West.

Gen. W. Morgan is again en route for Cumberland Gap. It is reported he will march by the most practicable route to Knoxville.

CREATURE COMFORTS.—We call attention to the Card of our neighbor of the OAK CITY HOUSE, who is prepared to attend to the wants of those who hunger or thirst.

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR OF FLORIDA.—The Tallahassee Floridian of the 22d brings us the recent message of Gov. John Milton, of Florida. The Governor endorses conscription, as a measure of necessity, and declares that Florida will sacrifice her last dollar to prosecute this war to a successful issue. He expresses his belief that much of the blockade running from Florida ports has been of a fraudulent character, and carried on with the connivance of the enemy. He, therefore, advocates the passage of an act of Congress, prohibiting, for the present, all exportation and importation, deeming it "the policy of the South, to remedy the importations of the blockade, and to cut off entirely all commerce with the United States and other foreign nations, until commercial necessities shall demand the recognition of the independence of the Confederate States and the removal of the blockade by suitable commercial treaties." The message embraces, besides, a clear and concise review of the financial and military condition of the State of Florida.

HOTELS.

EXCHANGE HOTEL,
HILLSBORO' STREET, RALEIGH, N. C.

HAVING PURCHASED THE PROPERTY IN THE City of Raleigh, recently occupied by Major Phillips, and known as "Phillips' Hotel," I have opened it for the accommodation of the public under the name and style of EXCHANGE HOTEL.

The extensive improvement now going on, and which will be completed as soon as possible—the erection of new buildings and the thorough overhauling and renovating of old ones—will render the Exchange convenient and comfortable; and the proprietor is determined that its management and internal arrangements shall be such as to compare favorably with the first class hotels of the country.

The table will be abundantly supplied with the best the market and the country affords, and no efforts or expense will be spared to render the house in every respect a comfortable home to its guests.

The Exchange is located on Hillsboro' street, some two hundred yards west of the Capitol.

Thirty to forty large and commodious rooms will be ready for occupation by the assembling of the Legislature.

A liberal share of public patronage is respectfully solicited. Give us a call and we will endeavor to treat you well.

Omnibuses will be in attendence at the cars to convey passengers to and from the Exchange.

W. H. CUNNIGGIM, Proprietor.
L. BRANSON, Superintendent.
