NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE CONFEDE-RATE STATES.

FTER MORE THAN TWO YEARS OF A WAR-A fare scarcely equalled in the number, magnitude, and tearful carnage of its battles; a warfare in which your courage and fortitude have illustrated your country, and attracted not only gratitude at home, but admiration abroad; your enemies continue a struggle in which our final triumph must be inevitable. Unduly clated many in the 31st, has been received, but contains with their recent successes, they imagine that temporary reverses can quell your spirit or shake your determination, and they are now gathering heavy masses for a genoral invasion in the vain hope that, by a desperate effort, success may at length be reached.

You know too well, my countrymen, what they mean 4 o'clock, P. M. by success. Their malignant rage aims at nothing less than the extermination of yourselves, your wives, and children. They seek to destroy what they cannot plunder. They propose as the spoils of victory, that your homes shall be partitioned among the wretches whose atrocious cruelties have stamped infamy on their Govern-ev d'lign to facile souvers in light the tires of incendiarism wherever they can reach your homes, and they debauch the inferior race, hitherto docile and contented, by promising indulgence of the vilest passions, as the price of treachery. Conscious of their inability to prevail by legitimate warfare, not daring to make peace lest they should be hurled from their seats of power, the men who now rule in Wasnington refuse even to confer on the subject of putting an end to outrages which disgrace our age, or to listen to a suggestion for conducting the war according to the usages of civilization. Fellow-citizens, no alternative is left you but victory. or subjugation, slavery and the utter ruin of yourselves. your families and your country. She victory is within your reach. You need but stretch forth your hands to rasp it. For this end, all that is necessary is, that those who are called to the field by every motive that can move the human heart, should promptly repair to the post of duty, should stand by their comrades now in front of the foe, and thus so strengthen the armies of the Confederacy as to ensure' success. The men now absent from their posts would, if present in the field, suffice to create numerical equality between our force and that of the invaders -and when with any approach of such equality, have we failed to be victorious ? I believe that but few of those Receivers a second to news to night. The Central absent are actuated by unwillingness to serve their country; but that many have found it difficult to resist the temptation of a visit to their homes and the loved on s in whom they have been so long separated; that oth the in the western sky indicates a storm | ers have left for temporary attention to their affairs, with the intention of returning, and then have shrunk from the consequences of their violation of duty ; that others, again, have left their posts from mere restlessness and desire of change; each quieting the upbraidings of his conscience, by persuading himselt that his individual services could have no influence on the general result. These and other causes (although far less disgraceful tuan the desire to avoid danger, or to escape from the sacrifices required by patriotism) are, nevertheless, grievous faults, and place the cause of our beloved country, and of everything we hold dear, in imminent peril. I repeat that the men who now owe duty to their country, who have been called out and have not yet reported for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number, to secure us victory in the struggle now impending. I call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and duty, and summon those who have absented themselves without leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period allowed by their furloughs, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general pardon and amnesty to all officers and men within the Confederacy, now absent without leave. who shall, with the least possible delay, return to their proper posts of duty : but no excesse will be received for a your twenty days after the first publication of this proclamation in the State in which the absentee may be at the date of the publication. This amnesty and pardon shall extend to all who have been accused, or who have been convicted and are undergoing sentence for absence without leave or desertion, excepting only those , who have been twice convicted of desertion. Finally, I conjure my countrywomen-the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy-to use theirall-powerful influence in aid of this call, to add one crow-ning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so freely and constantly offered on their country's altar, and to take care that none who owe service in the field shall be sheltered at home from the disgrace of having deserted their duty to their families, to their country, and to their Gur2.

This excellent family medicine is recommended by the proprietor as good only for diseases of the Liver. His correspondents say that they also cure Billious Rheumatism, Pneumonia, Chills and Fevers, Billions Fovors, Pines and Worms. They are a perfectly safe medicine. Peter Vaden, Esc., of Dinwiddle county, Va., after describing remarkable cures in his family of Billious Rheumatism and Pleurisy, says : "My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to $200 per year. I have used them [these pills] for my family, which consists of eight teen white and colored, and have not called in a Doctor. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered."

Rev. John W. Potter, of Greene county, North Carolina, had suffered twelve years from a diseased liver, which the physicians had not been able to cure. He

"I commenced taking the Hepatic Pills with no confidence in them. They acted like a charm on me. From that hour I have improved. I have persevered in their use until now, by God's blessing, I am well and hearty I had a negro man who, as I believe, was saved ' death by a dose of these Pills. My Doctor's bill was a nually from $100 to '$200, but I have had no use to physician since."

The great rise in the price of ingredients and the heavy tax on these Pills, compel the proprietor to put them at their present prices or quit the manufacture. They are not more profitable to him than when he sold them at lower rates.

GANELAL ORDERS, ) No. 14.

I S ACCORDANCE WITH THE PROCLAMATION OF the President, issued the 15th inst., Colonels of Milia will, on the 20th day of August, enroll all persons in the bounds of their Regiments, between the ages of 18 and 45, who have not already received certificates of exemption or detail.

Entoiling Officers of North Carolina are directed to make their appointments immediately to visit the Regi ments within their Districts, commencing on the 20th day of August.

Notice is hereby given to all interested, that personliable to conscription have the right to volunteer in any company in regular service of the Confederate States beside enrollment. After enrollment they must come to camp, where they will be assigned to commands of their choice as far as practicable. All persons, therefore, desiring to volunteer, must do so before the 20th of August, (the day of enrollingent. Transportation will be furnish ed at this office.

After enrollment substitutes cannot be accepted under any circumstances except at this office. The principal is required to appear in person with the substitute. Substi-tutes under 18 or over 50 will not be accepted. Certin cate of good moral character is required before the sub-stitute will be taken.

This call is made by the President from absolute neces sity to meet the increased force of the enemy; to strengthen and support our gallant and veteran army; to protect and defend our homes and firesides, and drive the invader from our soil. Our veteran troops require the assistance of a very man who can shoulder a musket or draw a sword. The Commandant, therefore, earnestly hopes that this call will be responded to promptly cheerfully and with
