THE NEW EMPEROR OF THE NEW EMPIRE. - Who is Maximilian? is a question frequently asked. We suppose him to be a scion of the Bonaparte family, in which there are two persons of that name, grand-children of Eugene Beauharnale and his wife, the, Princess of Bayaria. Eugene was a child of Joseshine by her first marriage, and a great favorite of a Emperor Napoleon, who, in 1806, adepted him as his sort. II. was subsequently appointed Viceroy of Italy and married the Princess of Bavaria. In 1817 he had a son called Maximilian, who entered the service of Russia, and in 1839 married the Grand Dutchess Marie Nicolaiwena, daughter of the Empenor Nieholas. By this lady he has had several enddr. n, two of whom are sons-one, Prince Nicholas Maximilian, born in 1841, and Eugene Maximilian, born in 1847. Is the Emperor of Mexico the elder of the at ver of the Russian Government to the notes of file two? MILITARY NOTICES.

TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE CONFEDE-

FTER MORE THAN TWO YEARS OF A WARfare scarcely equalled in the number, magnitude. and fearful carnage of its battles; a warfare in which your courage and fortitude have illustrated your country, and attracted not only gratitude at home, but admiration abroad; your enemies continue a struggle in which our final triumph must be inevitable. Unduly elated with their recent successes, they imagine that temporary reverses can quell your spirit or shake your determination, and they are now gathering heavy masses for a general invasion in the vain hope that, by a desperate effort.

success may at length be reached. You know too well, my countrymen, what they mean by success. Their malignant rage aims at nothing less than the extermination of yourselves, your wives, and children. They seek to destroy what they cannot plunder. They propose as the spoils of victory, that your homes shall be partitioned among the wretches whose atrocious cruelties bave stamped infamy on their Government. They design to incite servile insurrection and ight the fires of incendiarism wherever they can reach your homes, and they debauch the inferior race, hitherto docile and contented, by promising indulgence of the vilest passions, as the price of treachery. Conscious of their inability to prevail by legitimate warfare, not daring to make peace lest they should be hurled from their seats of power, the men who now rule in Washington refuse even to confer on the subject of putting an end to outrages which disgrace our age, or to listen to a suggestion for conducting the war according to the usages of civiliza-

Fellow-citizens, no alternative is left you but victory, or subjectation, slavery and the utter ruin of yourselves, your lamilles and country. The victory is within your reach. You need but stretch forth your hands to grasp it. For this end, all that is necessary is, that those who are called to the field by every motive that can move the human heart, should promptly repair to the post of duty, should stand by their comrades now in front of the foe, and thus so strengthen the armies of the Confederacy as to ensure success. The men now absent from their posts would, if present in the field, suffice to create numerical equality between our force and that of the invaders -and when with any approach of such equality, have we failed to be victorious? I believe that but few of those absent are actuated by unwillingness to serve their country; but that many have found it difficult to resist the temptation of a visit to their homes and the loved ones from whom they have been so long separated; that others have left for temporary attention to their affairs, with the intention of returning, and then have shrunk from the consequences of their violation of duty; that others, again, have left their posts from mer restlessness and desire of change, each quieting the upbraidings of his conscience, by persuading have that his individual services could have no influer and regeneral result.

These and other causes (270 of far less disgraceful than the desire to avoid dan , we escape from the sacrifices required by patriot. . . . hevertheless, grievous fault- and place the cause . eloved country, and of everything we hold dear, in its ment peril. I repeat that the men who now owe duty to their country, who have been called out and ! we not yet reported for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number, to secure us victory in the struggle now impending. I call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and duty, and summon those who have absented themselves with out leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period allowed by their furloughs, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general pardon and amness, to all officers and on within the Confederacy, now absent without leave. who hall, with the least possible delay, return to the proper posts of duty; but no excuse will be received for any delay borond twenty days after the first publication of this proclamation in the State in which the absentee be at the date of the publication. This amnesty and is ardon shall extend to all who have be n accused, or who have been convicted and are undergoing sentence for alsence without leave or desertion, excepting only those who have been twice convicted of desertion. Finally, I conjure my country women-the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy-to use their all powerful influence in aid of this call, to add one crowning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so freev and constantly offered on their country's altar, and to take care that none who owe service in the field shall be sheltered at home from the disgrace of having deserted their duty to their families, to their country, and to their

GENERAL ORDERS,)

IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ABOVE PROCLAmation of amnesty and pardon by the President, an earnest invitation is extended to all persons absent without leave from the army, to report themselves at the Camp of Instructions immediately, to be forwarded to their regiments. All good citizens are instructed to use every means in their power to prevail upon persons of the class named to return to their duty. They will be well treated and past offences forgotten. Transportation will be furnished to their commands.

But it must be distinctly understood that after the expiration of the time set by the President, the most vigorous measures in the power of the government will be instituted for the arrest and punishment of all absent from their commands without leave. None need expect to erade longer the service which they justly owe to their country. Let them report at once to their militia officers to be sent to camp, or come in person without delay.

11. A Camp of Instruction will be opened at "Camp Vance," near Morganton, on the 10th of August. All persons subject to conscription in the 9th and 10th District will report to Capt. James C. McKae, Commanding Camp Vance.
