TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.
FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Later from the North.
Baltimore papers of the 25th have announced that on Tuesday night Mosby with eight hundred men attacked a train of forty-four sutler's wagons, between Ferrisville and Bull Run, without meeting much resistance. Although the train was guarded by Federal soldiers, they captured the whole of the wagons and contained all the cavalry escort, a large number of sutlers and other property belonging to the Government and private individuals to a very heavy amount.

Orders were issued from headquarters, Kansas City, which carried out will depopulate nearly the whole three counties in Missouri lying closest to the Kansas line.
Almost all persons living within the line specified, with certain exceptions, to remove from their present places of residence within fifteen days unless in the mean time they can prove their loyalty to the satisfaction of the commanding officer, proof being given that they will remove to any military station within that military district or to any part of Kansas except the counties in the Eastern border of the State.

Those who do not so prove their loyalty are to depart forthwith to the interior of Missouri or elsewhere. All grain and hay of loyal persons must, after the lapse of three days from date, be taken to the nearest military station and turned over to the commanding officer. All other grain and hay will be destroyed. Official dispatch No. 11,000, 24th, announces a partial demolition of Fort Wagner, after a bombardment of seven days. Histories he had succeeded in establishing batteries within effective range of the heart of the city, and had given unrepeated due notice of his intention. From other sources we learn that shells were thrown into Charleston, the only gun of sufficient range to throw shells into Charleston was a three hundred pounder Parrott rifle, but this enormous piece of ordnance, after a few discharges, accidentally burst, breaking off about a foot from the muzzle. This mishap not only destroyed the accuracy of the fire, but reduced its range by a mile and a half, so that until another gun of equal calibre can be mounted, no more shells can be thrown into Charleston.

The steamship Hibernian brings European advices to the 19th. News unimportant. Garibaldi has published a letter addressed to Abraham Lincoln, liberator of slaves in Republican America. He compares him to the Son of God and John Brown.

Explosion, Aug. 15.—Cotton sales today ten thousand bales. Market closed buoyant and upward. Breadstuffs closed with a downward tendency.

From Virginia—Various Speculations.
Richmond, Aug. 31.—Perfect quiet has prevailed here for the last two days. The Fredericksburg correspondent of the Evansville says the night of Meade's arrival in three divisions, the first being stationed at Warrenton, Manassas Junction and Centerville. Fifteen thousand infantry of his army to be lately sent to Gilmore at Charleston. The correspondent reiterates, upon positive confirmation, that the Yankee army of the Penninsula is in a worse condition at this time than since the first advance upon this line after the Bull Run battle.
It is reported that the wharves at Aquia Creek are being rebuilt. Mosby made a successful dash on a wagon train, near Annandale, on Monday night, capturing a portion of the guard and forty-one wagons and cattle.

Rolling. Conscription.—Capt. Landis commences the work of enrolling men between the ages of 40 and 46 here yesterday, but with what success would not learn. All who are subject to the draft should report themselves promptly. The great want of the government now is men to fill up the ranks to contend against the legions that are invading us. Let every non-producer enter the army and soon we shall be invincible and unconquerable! Capt. Landis is not only a good officer but a gentleman, and is discharging his duty faithfully and satisfactorily.

Metal and Metal.—A young lady, writing to the Floridian, thus relates her sex of a silly charge.
We women, says she, are sometimes blamed for partiality to "the button," but they who try to make us ridiculous only expose their own stupidity.
Was it "the button" or the "planned hair" that excited the gentle Desdemona? No. She loved the Moorish captain "for the dangers he had passed," for his heroic services to her country. It was not the metal, but the metal that attracted her. And so it is with all women of elevated sentiment and good sense.
They all admire courage, and can generally discriminate between the true metal and the counterfeit.
They know that there are.

Many comrades who wear upon their chests the beads of Hercules and writing Mars, Yet inwardly searched have lives like milk.
and for such pretenders we feel sovereign contempt, whether they cultivate their beards in camp or at home in the chimney corner.

For one, I had rather take to my heart the private soldier who had returned from the war maimed and penniless than the cold blooded speculator who had grown rich, or the perturbed top of hereditary wealth, who had nursed his monstrosity at home, while their letters were bleeding, in my defence, and in defence of all that is worth living for—my country and her independence.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM A LARGE PLANTER IN MISSISSIPPI.—The loss of Vicksburg for want of provisions was most shameful and execrable, and whoever is in fault ought to be severely punished.
Last November and December sufficient corn could have been thrown into that place in the course of a fortnight to have lasted its consumption for about two years, if necessary. Planters in Mississippi had put in very little cotton, but a very large crop of corn. On the 1st of December, when I abandoned my place, I left about 10,000 bushels in my fields, and about the same quantity in the field, whilst my consumption was about 4,000 bushels. All my neighbors had planted corn to an equally large extent, and the Government officers could have had it at their own price, if they had sent for it.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that a serious accident occurred on Wednesday last, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, some miles north of Warsaw, by which some passengers were wounded and some of them severely.
The accident occurred to the day since cars smashed up here at 5 p. m., and was occasioned by the breaking down of a car loaded with munitions of war. We have not learned any further particulars.—W. Journal, 28th.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. IV. RALEIGH, TUESDAY, SEPT. 1, 1863. NO. 232.

We are authorized by the friends of Lieut. WALTER DUNN, of Lenoir County, to announce the name of that gentleman as a candidate to represent the people of the 2nd District, in the next Confederate Congress. Aug. 27-16.

We are authorized to announce Captain JOSIAH TURNER, of Orange county, as a candidate for Congress in this, the 5th Congressional District, at the election to be held in November next. Aug. 8-16.

Duplin County May, 25, 1863.—Editor of the Progress, Raleigh, N. C.—No wish to add or stir up feelings as soon as I had suggested something like the name of Wm. J. Houston, Esq., as a suitable person to be voted for in Congress in the district now represented by the Hon. Owen R. Keenan, and as one who should have the same privilege as another, I suggest the name of THOMAS I. FAISON as a suitable person to represent the 2nd Congressional District at the ensuing election. No better or more loyal man than Thomas I. Faison, no private man has done more for the Confederacy and the soldier. Three of his sons have devoted their time and talents in the cause of freedom, and one of them has sealed it with his blood.

MANY VOTERS OF 3d CON. DIST. OF N. C. May 25-16

To the Voters of the Fifth Congressional District.—The emergency calls for the purest and ablest man to serve the country in her Legislative Councils. The well known character of Captain JOSEPH J. DAVIS, of Franklin, for patriotism, integrity and wisdom, plainly indicates him as the fittest man in the district to represent us in the next Congress. Captain Davis is now leading us his gallant company against the invaders of his country, and does not even dream of his friends entertaining the idea of voting for him for Congress or any other civic position, at this time; but we are confident that he will shrink from no responsibility to which his fellow citizens may be called. Well known and universally respected as he is, Franklin County offers her noblest son to the voters of the district in full confidence of his election, on account of his own untiring merit, and for the good of the country. Patriots, your suffrages are asked for a wise and prudent statesman, and gallant soldier.

TO THE AFFLICTED—A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM.

THE UNDERSIGNED HAVING FOR YEARS ADMINISTERED AN OINTMENT TO MANY THOUSANDS IN CASES OF RHEUMATISM (which she considers almost a specific in the disease) gratuitously, now offers it for sale to the public for a small consideration, believing that its general use will greatly diminish the empire of this terrible tyrant.

HUNDREDS HAVE BEEN RELIEVED BY IT. READ THE CERTIFICATES—TRY IT!
Price: $5 per box, sent by mail anywhere in the Confederate States. Address: MRS. S. A. REID, box 307, Raleigh, N. C.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., July 16, 1863.
Dear Mrs. Reid: After having tried your Ointment for Rheumatism thoroughly, and having experienced great relief therefrom, I feel safe in saying that it is one of the greatest remedies of the age. Nothing can eradicate the disease, but it can be relieved to a certain extent, and your Ointment accomplishes all that any medicine can do. I have recommended it in numerous instances, and always with good results. God bless you for your kindness in administering relief to THOS. J. JOHNSTON.

RALEIGH, N. C., August 1, 1863.
Having used your Ointment myself and others of my family, I may safely pronounce it the best remedy for Rheumatism I have ever tried. I would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give it a trial.

Yours respectfully, H. PORTER, Aug. 29-16

MILITARY NOTICES.

TO THE SOLDIERS OF THE CONFEDERATE STATES.

AFTER MORE THAN TWO YEARS OF A WAR, scarcely equalled in the number, magnitude, and fearful carnage of its battles; a warfare in which your courage and fortitude have illustrated your country, and attracted not only gratitude at home, but admiration abroad; your names continue a struggle in which with their count successes, they imagine that temporary reverses can quell your spirit or shake your determination, and they are now gathering heavy masses for a general invasion in the vain hope that, by a desperate effort, success may at length be reached.

You know too well, my countrymen, what they mean by this. Their malignant rage aims at nothing less than the extermination of yourselves, your wives, and children. They seek to destroy what they cannot plunder. They propose as the spoils of victory, that your homes shall be partitioned among the wretches whose atrocious crimes have stamped infamy on their Government. They design to incite servile insurrection and light the fires of incendiarism wherever they can reach your homes, and they debauch the inferior race, hitherto docile and contented, by promising indulgence of the vilest passions, as the price of franchise. Conscious of their inability to prevail by legitimate means, they are now trying to make peace lest they should be hurled from their seats of power, the men who now rule in Washington refuse even to enter on the subject of putting an end to outrages which disgrace our age, or to listen to a suggestion for conducting the war according to the usages of civilization.

Follow-citizens, no alternative is left you but victory, or subjugation, slavery and the utter ruin of yourselves, your families and your country. The victory is within your grasp. You need but stretch forth your hands to grasp it. For this end, all that is necessary, is that those who are called to the field by every motive that can excite the human heart, should promptly repair to the post of duty, should stand by their comrades now in front of the foe, and this strengthen the armies of the Confederacy as to ensure success. The men now absent from their posts would, if present in the field, suffice to create numerical equality between our forces and that of the invaders, and would be victorious. I believe that but few of those absent are actuated by unwillingness to serve their country; but that many have found it difficult to resist the temptation of a visit to their homes and the loved ones from whom they have been so long separated; that others have fallen sick, and are unable to repair to the post of duty, and that some have been called out and have not yet repaired for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number, to secure us victory in the struggle now impending.

I call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and duty, and absolve those who have absented themselves without leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period allowed by their regulations, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general pardon and amnesty to all officers and men within the Confederacy, now absent without leave, and who constantly exerted their patriotism, and who have been called out and have not yet repaired for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number, to secure us victory in the struggle now impending.

I call on you, then, my countrymen, to hasten to your camps, in obedience to the dictates of honor and duty, and absolve those who have absented themselves without leave, or who have remained absent beyond the period allowed by their regulations, to repair without delay to their respective commands, and I do hereby declare that I grant a general pardon and amnesty to all officers and men within the Confederacy, now absent without leave, and who constantly exerted their patriotism, and who have been called out and have not yet repaired for duty, or who have absented themselves from their posts, are sufficient in number, to secure us victory in the struggle now impending.

Finally, I conjure my countrywomen—the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of the Confederacy—to use their all-powerful influence in aid of this call, to add one crowning sacrifice to those which their patriotism has so long and constantly offered to their country's altar, and to take care that none who owe service in the field shall be sheltered at home from the disgrace of having deserted their duty to their families, to their country, and to their God.

Given under my hand, and the Seal of the Confederate States, at Richmond, this 1st day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and sixty-three. JEFFERSON DAVIS.

By the President: J. P. BENJAMIN, Secretary of State, Aug. 5-16

The papers throughout the Confederate States are requested to copy the above proclamation, at the earliest moment, and for twenty days thereafter, and send their bills to the Private Secretary of the President.

CONSCRIPT OFFICE, CAMP HOLMES, Aug. 6, 1863.

GENERAL ORDER, No. 17.
IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE ABOVE PROCLAMATION of amnesty and pardon by the President, an earnest invitation is extended to all persons absent without leave from the army, to report themselves at the Camp of Instruction immediately, to be forwarded to their respective commands. All good citizens are entreated to use every means in their power to prevail upon persons of the class named to return to their duty. They will be well treated and past offences forgotten. Transportation will be furnished to their commands.

But it must be distinctly understood that after the expiration of the time set by the President, the most vigorous measures in the power of the government will be instituted for the arrest and punishment of all absent from their commands without leave. None need expect to evade longer the service which they justly owe to their country. Let them report at once to their militia officers to be sent to camp, or come to camp without delay.

A Camp of Instruction will be opened at "Camp Vance," near Morganton, on the 10th of August. All persons subject to conscription in the 9th and 10th Divisions will report to Capt. James C. McKee, Commanding Camp Vance.

3,700 BOXES OF THE SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS.
HAVE BEEN ORDERED IN ONE DAY. WHEREVER known they use continuance. Without puffing, they have gained ground by their value. No other pills than these Pills. This excellent family medicine is recommended by the proprietor as good only for diseases of the Liver. His correspondents say that they also cure Bilious Rheumatism, Pneuonia, Chills and Fevers, Billious Fevers, Piles and Worms. They are a perfectly safe medicine. Peter Vadon Esq., of Dinwiddie county, Va., after describing remarkable cures in his family of Bilious Rheumatism and Pleurisy, says: "My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $150 to $200 per year. I have now taken these pills for my family, which consists of eight children, and have not called in a Doctor. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered." Rev. John W. Potter, of Greene county, North Carolina, had suffered twelve years from a diseased liver, which the physicians had not been able to cure. He says: "I commenced taking the Hepatic Pills with no confidence in them. They acted like a charm on me. From that hour I have improved. I have perspired in their use until now, by God's blessing, I feel well and hearty. I had a dose of these Pills. My Doctor's bill was annually from $100 to $200, but I have had no more for a physician since."

The great rise in the price of ingredients and the heavy tax on these Pills, compel the proprietor to put them at their present reduced price for a limited time. They are not more profitable to him than when he sold them at lower rates. Price: $1.50 a box. For $15 a dozen boxes will be sent prepaid to any part of the Confederacy. Those who desire less than a dozen boxes must apply to the Druggists. Great reduction made to Druggists and merchants who pay by the gross. Cash must always accompany orders. Address: GEO. W.
