

J. L. PENNINGTON.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

These are the only terms of subscription to The Daily Progress. The paper will not be sent to any one without payment of a advance; and in all cases it will be stopped when no payment is made.

JOB PRINTING.

Printers connected with the Progress establish a office equal to any in the City or State, and are ready to execute all orders for BOOK and JOB PRINTING. Orders solicited and promptly attended to.

DAILY PROGRESS.

TUESDAY, NOV. 5, 1863.

CLIMAX FOR FIRST WEEK IN NOV.

Sun Rises Sets
Morning—All Saints 8 44 16
Midday—All Souls 8 45 15
Night—All Hallowe'en 8 47 14
Wednesday—Day's light 8 47 13
Thursday—Hallowe'en 8 47 13
Friday—Hallowe'en 8 48 13
Saturday—Hallowe'en 8 49 11
Sunday, Tuesday, 3d November. New Moon.
November 11th. Indian Summer still continues.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS FOR THE PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Entered according to act of Congress, in the year 1861, J. S. Thompson, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Confederate States of the Northern District of Columbia.

ing from the North—Beast Butler Sent to Northern States—The Fight at Chickamauga.

Nov. 4.—Northern dates 2d received.—

General Butler in command of the department of Virginia and West Carolina in place of Posts.

Nov. 4.—Gen. Bragg, etc.: In the fight against the enemy attacked Garey's division posted in front, on three sides and broke his camp at one stroke, drove back in gallant style by part of his army, the remainder being held in reserve.

Beast Butler marching to Garey's relief, was at the head of the army occupying in force two communications on the 2d of the road. He immediately sent word to his regiments and took both at the head of his men, driving the enemy from his breast-works at Lookout Creek. In the brilliant success of the adversary, the conduct of the 11th and 12th Regts. was the highest praise.

Gen. H. Thomas, Maj. Gen.

Nov. 4.—An extraordinary case of treason occurred to light, having for its object the destruction of the government and the release of the rebel John Morgan and his followers. The spy was brought to light by a U. S. delivery, who was composed by the parties implicated to be treacherous. Many arrests have been made.

From Charleston.

Charleston, Nov. 4.—The bombardment of Fort Sumter continues all night and is still going on. No word from the Fort this morning.

The Richmond Enquirer on the President and Gen. Bragg.

He asked me to say what they please of the President's conduct, so that they can accuse him of negligence, but he said, "I am sorry for his stubborn indifference, but I am sorry for his conduct, but he has done his best."

Lincoln has to make up his mind.

The United States forces consisting of 12,000 men were ordered away from the Port of Prince Edward's Island.

European dat to the 2d rec'd in. The Atlantic

Advertiser and Tribune are a crossing around the Cape of Good Hope. The Wanderer has arrived after a long voyage, and is now in London, and is expected to arrive in New York on the 1st of December.

The London Times contains Beecher's arguments.

The London Times contains Beecher's arguments.

The paper in Caesarea was growing anxious. The black sea fleet of Russia was being fully completed.

Two divisions of infantry and several batteries of artillery had been ordered to Poland to reinforce the Czar.

A band of Poles had been cut off near Lublin.

The Paris papers says that England and France have been negotiating for the identical note on the Polish question. It is rumored that France is urging the expulsion of the ex King of Naples from Rome.

From Charleston.

Charleston, Nov. 3.—The President to-day visited the garrison and was received on board the flag ship Charleston by Captains Tucker and others. From these the President and party went to Sullivan's Island and was received by Gen. Ripley, commanding post. He was received at the battery by Col. Wm. Butler, commanding the Fort and batteries. All the officers and men were at their various posts. The President passed Clingman's Brigade in review, and was enthusiastically cheered by the troops.

He then visited Mt. Pleasant and inspected the works there and reviewed the brigade commanded by Colonel

Kent.

The President was accompanied by his aids, Cols. John H. Stevenson, and Gen. Beauregard, Gilmer, Ripley,

Wise, Stone, and Captains Elliott and Chisolm. While on Sullivan's Island the party rode up and down the batteries. Monitors and the enemy's land batteries at the time in full play on Sumter. The party was plainly visible to the Yankees, they being not a mile distant. The President will visit the lines on James Island to-morrow.

The bombardment of Sumter to-day continued heavy.

The garrison are, however, in good spirits. Private

Gibbs, 12th Ga., was killed on Monday night by mortar shell. Six hundred and fifty six shots were fired from sun down on Monday till sun down on Tuesday. One mortar shell exploded wounding three men slightly.

From Richmond.

Richmond, Nov. 3.—Reliable intelligence received this evening confirms the reported landing of a large body of Yankees at Newport News. The War Department has received nothing from Bragg's army. Nothing new from the Rappahannock to-night.

From North Carolina.

COURT OF PEACE AND QUARTER SESSIONS,

August Term, 1863:

Thomas Pleasant and wife and others Petition to sell land for partition.

John Parker and Thomas Edwards Petition to sell land for partition.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that John Falkner and Thomas Edwards, the defendants in this case, this difficulty by requesting the President to call

General Joseph E. Johnston to the command of the army.

The general Johnston to the command of that should be the practical bane of hostile and unfriendly feelings that have already done irreparable injury to our country's cause. It would be the inauguration of good feelings from which would date our final success. The whole Southwest would then see a recall

of the General Johnston in command and Gen. Bragg

as the commanding general unless his army had been greatly augmented and more competent with it.

We hope that such a request will be granted.

It is the opinion of the court that the difficulties

of the present moment are such that the public interest will be best served by the practical bane of hostile and un-

friendly feelings that have already done irreparable injury to our country's cause. It would be the inauguration of good feelings from which would date our final

success. The whole Southwest would then see a recall

of the General Johnston in command and Gen. Bragg

as the commanding general unless his army had

been greatly augmented and more competent with it.

We hope that such a request will be granted.

It is the opinion of the court that the difficulties

of the present moment are such that the public interest

will be best served by the practical bane of hostile and un-

friendly feelings that have already done irreparable injury to our country's cause. It would be the inauguration of good feelings from which would date our final

success. The whole Southwest would then see a recall

of the General Johnston in command and Gen. Bragg

as the commanding general unless his army had

been greatly augmented and more competent with it.

We hope that such a request will be granted.

It is the opinion of the court that the difficulties

of the present moment are such that the public interest

will be best served by the practical bane of hostile and un-

friendly feelings that have already done irreparable injury to our country's cause. It would be the inauguration of good feelings from which would date our final

success. The whole Southwest would then see a recall

of the General Johnston in command and Gen. Bragg

as the commanding general unless his army had

been greatly augmented and more competent with it.

We hope that such a request will be granted.

It is the opinion of the court that the difficulties

of the present moment are such that the public interest

will be best served by the practical bane of hostile and un-

friendly feelings that have already done irreparable injury to our country's cause. It would be the inauguration of good feelings from which would date our final

success. The whole Southwest would then see a recall

of the General Johnston in command and Gen. Bragg

as the commanding general unless his army had

been greatly augmented and more competent with it.

We hope that such a request will be granted.

It is the opinion of the court that the difficulties

of the present moment are such that the public interest

will be best served by the practical bane of hostile and un-

friendly feelings that have already done irreparable injury to our country's cause. It would be the inauguration of good feelings from which would date our final

success. The whole Southwest would then see a recall

of the General Johnston in command and Gen. Bragg

as the commanding general unless his army had

been greatly augmented and more competent with it.

We hope that such a request will be granted.

It is the opinion of the court that the difficulties