is one which intensifies as the strife proceeds, and will always be found equal to any physical force that we can bring into the field. It is the soul of enlightened manhood which, although it may be cowed in individuals, can never be conquered in a people.

THE FIGHT AT LEWISBURG.—The Lynchburg Republican, of the 9th, says: A bloody battle was fought Friday, near Lewisburg, in Greenbrier county, between the Yankee General Averill, with 7,000 men, and General Echols, commanding United Confederate States troops, with about 2,000.

From the New York News. Political opinion is fast settling to the view that the facilities and aids to the natural perceptions of men...

RESIGNATIONS.—The following officers of North Carolina Troops have recently resigned: Colonel James A. Washington, 50th Regt. I. Colonel Nelson Slough, 40th do.

JOHN MORGAN.—The Indianapolis Sentinel says: The individual who is now confined in the Ohio Penitentiary, because of his purposeless raid through Indiana and Ohio, has, although he has got his head shaved, a stock of chivalry about him.

Two GALLANT GUILDFORD BOYS.—Col. J. A. Gilmer, of the 27th Regiment, who was wounded at Bristol in the hip, has arrived at Greensboro, and is recovering. We hope that the gallant Colonel will soon be restored to his command in the field, and promoted to a Brigadier'ship for meritorious services.

ADJUTANT JAMES TURNER MOREHEAD, son of Gov. Morehead, who received a dangerous wound through the mouth and head at Brandy Station, is also at home in Greensboro, and hopes are entertained of his final recovery.

FUNERAL OF DR. WRIGHT AT NORFOLK.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer gives an account of the funeral of Dr. D. M. Wright, who was legally murdered at Norfolk, Va., on the 24th. He says: The funeral took place from Christ Church, where the body had been deposited. At 4 o'clock, the Church was opened for service. In a short time it was filled by the friends of the deceased and many others, who undoubtedly came merely out of the promptings of curiosity.

GOING INTO THE RANKS.—The Richmond Dispatch says: Lieut. Col. Rosser, formerly of Wise's Legion, but more recently serving with the Army of the Potomac, has resigned his commission and entered the ranks as a private. The reason he assigns is that his eye-sight is bad, especially at night; a defect which interferes much with his duty as an officer, but not to the same extent with the discharge of a private's duty.
