From Richmond.

RICHMORD, July 2,-Official information was received this morning of the capture of Gen. Stoneman and 500 raiders near Macon. Ga His command was routed and at last accoupts was ming in the direction of Eatonton. An official dispatch from Petersburg states that there was a ceration of hostilities yesterd in at the request of the enemy for the purpose of caring for his dead and wounded 700 of the enemy's dead were turned over to him for burish. 20 stands of colors instead of 12 at 10ported were captured on the 30th.

Later from the North.

ATGANTA, Aug. 2.-Nashville papers of the 20th ult. mentioned the death of McPherson. The Yankies estimate their losses in the battle of the 22d at 2500, Geary's, Ward's, Williams', McCook's, Newton's, Johnson's and Thomas' Federal divisions were engaged. The New York 'Herald" of July 27th has a special dispatch from Nashville which says that the consution disputches, dated At " arts 22nd, published in the Northern papers, were quite false. The "Herald" was of the impression that Atlanta had not been taken, bus probably it had been surrounded Reliable information had been received that everything was going on right. The Baltimore correspondent of the Tim s'eass Morgan has joined Early and Breckenridge The Washington correspondent of the "Herald," July 27th, mentions the defeat of Averrill. HOUSEHOLD INSTRUCTIONS - The following account is given by Milner in his "Church History" of the family order observed by Elecze, count of Arin, in the fourteenth century :

t cannot, said the count. allow blasphemy in my house, nor anything, in word or deed, which offends the laws of decorum. Dice and all games of hazard are to be prohibited. Let all persons in my house divert themselves at proper times, but not in a sinful manuer. In the morning reading and prayer must be attended to. Let there be constant peace in my family; otherwise two armies are found under my roof and the master is devoured by them both If any difference arise let not the sun go down on your wrath.— We must bear with something, if we have to live among mankind Every evening all the family shall be assembled at a godly converence, in which they shall hear something of God and salvation. Let none be absent under pretence of attending to my offairs. I have no affairs so inte esting to me as the salvation of my household. I seriously forbid all injustice which may cloak itself under color of serving me.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. V. - RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, AUG. 3, 1864 NO. 126.

GOV. BROWN AND THE DETAILED : MIN -- The patriots and property holders"in Georgia are very severe on Gov. Brown because be insists that all able-bodied men shall turn out to repel the invaders of the soil, not excepting tax colcetors, assessors, detailed men, &c. Some of them have tried to get out by writs of habens corpus, but ie this case the Judge has decided with the State and against the Confederate government. We copy the following item from the Macon Confederate :

Hubeas Corpus .- We notice in yesterday's Telegraph the decision of Judge Lochrane in the ease of Thos Rams and others, detailed under the conscript law, but held by the Governor liable to mili is duty. The Judge decided, "Let the writs of hibbus corpus he dismissed at movant's cost, and the parties be remanded to the custody of Capt. Scott."

No Hopes of Recognition .- A friend, who is in confidential official communication with both sides in the American civil war, speaks of the difficulties of the South as far greater than are illowed to appear on the surface. In his opinion, notwithstanding all the gallantry of Confederate resistance, the Federal government, so lorg as it can command a general like Grant to carry out the policy of "man for man," and has at its back the as yet unexpansed recruiting fields of Ireland and Germany, to say nothing of a practically unlimited command of greenbacks, ships, stores, and munitions of war, must progress towards a conquest, which can only be retarded by all that Confeder te determination and skid can accomplish. I mention this, as it is the opinion of one who enjoys. I believe, almost unqualled opportunities of coming to a sound conclusion, and whose sympathies are in many re--peets with the South, all the more as he considers that slavery- the real obstacle to English good wishes for the Confederacy-is practically it as end, whatever be the issue of the present conflict .- London Correspondent Manchester

Two YANKEES EXECUTED - Two soldiers of Brant's army were hauged-recently for commitring violence on a respectable married lady in Prince George county A Yorker correspond-ent gives the names of these ruffians as R. S. Go don and D. Geary. They entered the house of Mrs. Mary E Stiles, and after helping themdves to everything desirable in the way of foo... ciething, etc., and assuring the lady that they would not barm her, they forced her into a small epartment and accomplish d their hellish designs. The lady, with tears in her eyes, made complaint to the Yaukee Provost Marshal, the men were arrested, tried and condemned to death. The correspondent ados that the chain of evidence was mostly circumstantial, and that an officer who was on the court martial afterwards said that the breaking of one link of that evidence would have free! the guilty wretches. This is one justanes only in which the brutal Yankee soldiery have expiated their beinous offences with their lives - Lynchburg Virginian.

thought necessary, and they should desire it. I am in favor of calling a State Convention. Those who oppose a Convention are not willing to trust the prope; they think that the proper have too much power. They charge that those who "avo a state Conven ion, wish to second from the Confederate States. I was opposed to second ion in 1861, and I am opposed to it now. Second ion can not ours our present troubles; it would be utter folly and madness, and could only be justified in a life and death struggle for liberty.

It would be well for this State as well as for all the Confederate States, to have a Convention in being, if not in session during the war—not to second, but to aid and strengthen the general government by greating it need fall powers in every emergency, which, if assumed witten the Consent of the States, would be usurpation and unwar; antable authority. Neither the Legislature not the Governor possesses sovereign power, but a Convention would possess such power. And while it could great all needful powers to the common government and where usurpations, it would see "a it that our present to me constant!" end average to cluetae the mind where usurpations, it would see "a it that our present form of government is not changed.
