—With their nice little fire-crackers some festive lads burnt up the Congregational church at Woodstock, Connecticut.

—August Belmont is sojourning in Europe. He was presented to the Queen of England a short time since.

—The appointment of Judge Marvin as Provisional Governor of Florida, and the publication of the Presidential proclamation in relation to the matter, has been delayed by the impossibility of fixing the date of the session of Florida in December, 1865. Strange enough, leading authorities differ nearly or quite a week.

—The Postmaster General has notified the Provisional Governors that the postal service will be resumed on all the lines of railroad in the South as soon as they respectively certify that the routes are in a proper condition for that purpose.

—Point Lookout, having been vacated by rebel prisoners, is no longer kept as a garrisoned post. The government property there is to be temporarily left in charge of a guard, and the troops composing the garrison are ordered to report to Gen. Terry at Richmond.

—In a speech which he made in Washington last week, Secretary of the Interior, Marlan, hoped that it might be the will of God, in the order of His providence, that the great American republic should be called upon to maintain against foreign invaders the inviolability of the soil of her sister republic of Mexico.

—A writer in Georgia describes a Government tannery, grinding bark by no power visible at first, or suspected. The machinery is run by an underground creek—a great curiosity. There are several similar streams in that region, soft limestone being favorable to sinks and submerging channels.

—Col. Joseph S. Fullerton, Assistant Adjutant General of Gen. Howard, is coming South on business connected with the Freedmen's Bureau. He intends visiting different points along the Atlantic coast for the purpose of instilling more specifically to the Assistant Commissioners the policy of Gen. Howard, and of obtaining such information as will lead to guide and facilitate the operations of the Bureau. Gen. Howard had himself intended to go on this mission, but was prevented by duties of the most arduous and imperative character.

—In the year 1860 the United States mails between Washington and Richmond were carried by rail for $300 per mile yearly. For the same service the Post Office Department will hereafter pay but $200 per mile.

—The receipts of customs, from the sales of public lands internal revenue for the fiscal year ending Saturday, will amount in round numbers about as follows:—Tobacco, $76,000,000; from sales of land, $84,000; internal revenues, $206,000,000.

—The Convocation of the General Grand Chapter of the Masons of the United States is to be held at Columbus, Ohio, on Thursday, the 7th of September next.

—N. O. Risley, Esq., late Special Supervising Agent of the Treasury Department, has been appointed Assistant Auditor of the Treasury.

—It is true as reported, that Hon. D. P. Holloway has tendered his resignation as commissioner of Patents, and that the papers in the hands of the Secretary of the Interior will lay it before the President. Mr. Holloway will not retire before the appointment of a successor.

—There have been filed at the State Department this morning 1,700 cards, under the Amnesty Proclamation of President Johnson. These cards are required to be returned and registered at the State Department, but are held back through the ignorance of the officers administering them. The accumulation somewhere is very large.

—Evidence is daily being received of the repentance of the rebels who resided abroad during the war. They apply to our Ministers and Consuls for permission to return, which is freely given. Among the first to be readmitted, and recently received here for recreation, are those of Mrs. and Miss Hartstetter, former wealthy residents of Beaufort District, South Carolina. They do not come within the $20,000 clause now.

—Gens. E. Kirby Smith, Mag'rider and Price, accompanied by Gov. Allen and Ex-Gov. Moore of Louisiana, reported to have left San Antonio, Texas, for Mexico, escorted by three hundred well armed men, provisioned for six months. Gens. Hiram, Bee and Gov. Smith had left several days before. Gen. Smith was quite able and had to borrow money to get out of the State.

—The Cincinnati newspapers publish reports of the murder, by three robbers, of a woman and child in a house near Loudon, Madison county, Ohio. This occurred last week. The owner of the premises and another went to the house while the robbers were ransacking and killed, by shooting them, the three robbers. The accounts give neither names nor dates.

—News from the Santa Fe road is to the effect that Intendant asked several points simultaneously between Larned and Dodge, and that several persons were killed and badly mutilated. The Th' lows started on the road and retaliated by killing fifteen of the redskins.

—Wallace Butler, a member of the Second Presbyterian Church at St. Louis, was expelled on Sunday last because he refused to acknowledge that he had sinned in joining the Rebel army. He is a recently returned Confederate soldier.

Richard Brodhead, visited Washington about ten days ago, for the purpose of having an interview with her uncle, Jefferson Davis, but owing to the illness of President Johnson, she was unable to have her wish gratified. She had an interview with Secretary Stanton, who showed her all the papers and gave all the information in his power, but did nothing to further the object of her visit.

—We have dates from Northern Mexico to July 8.—Remnants of Gen. Negrete's troops had generally dispersed and gone to Texas to hide. Cortinas is likewise reported to have established his headquarters on the Texan side of the Rio Grande, and to have been ordered to keep within his house. Gen. Steele and the Imperialist commander had an interview on the capture of two steamers on Cortinas, but the result was not yet known. A great number of Confederates are arriving in Mexico.

—Chicago must be largely given up to sensation reports now days ago the story got about that President Johnson was dead. Such canards, the Journal tells us, are of no occurrence. It must be a pleasant place for nervous people to live in.

—Two photographic views of the recent fire in New York were taken. One at the time of the falling of the first wall in Ann street and the other while the wall next to Smith's clothing store was standing. One negative was taken from the Astor House and the second from the front Messers. Bangs Brothers' establishment, No. 231 Broadway. Both pictures give a fine conception of the most serious conflagration we have had in New York for years, and as faithful chroniclers of a memorable historical event, are both valuable and interesting.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JULY 20, 1865 NO. 210.

THE CITY.

Provo's Sanctum—The regular rush was made for the sanctum yesterday morning and as usual a large majority of the cases were dismissed for one of two reasons: no case or no jurisdiction.

Fractional Currency—It may be interesting to our readers to know that all fractional currency, not inflated, when presented for redemption to an assistant treasurer or designated depository of the United States, or a national bank designated as a depository of the government, must have been assorted by the holder, according to denominations, with the faces and upper sides in corresponding order in the packages. There are three different kinds of fractional currency in circulation, and they should be assorted by holders, each kind by itself, when presented for redemption.

Ex-Rebel Congressmen—Garnet of Virginia, and Avery and Henry of Tennessee, are in Washington applying for pardons. All of these gentlemen were formerly in the United States Congress.

STATE ITEMS—Original and Selected.
The Fayetteville News, referring to a recent article in the Progress on the regeneration of North Carolina by the re-establishment of our agricultural societies and the like, endorses the recommendations there made. We hope the people of the State will at once give their attention to such practical matters and less to interrupting Gov. Holden and the President in their efforts to restore North Carolina to a full participation in whatever benefit may follow from the Union.

On Saturday night last, at Newbern, the trunks of Mr. John C. Rivers, clown of Nixon's circus, were rifled of $700 at the house of Mr. McCollum, on Metcalf street.

At Wilmington, with a prudence which cannot be too highly commended, the most rigid quarantine regulations have been established.

A letter from the southeastern part of the State gives us assurance that there is a promise of good crops in the future as the past, and that it will require much less time than we dream of to restore the old order of things.

The Newbern Times of the 17th says: Civil government is again established and the bad and disorderly characters are fast swept away. They need but the appearance before the worthy Commissioner, John M. Davies, to make them know that they must obey the laws.

On Sunday morning, at Newbern, Mr. Julius Rice, a Pollock street merchant, was drowned while bathing in the Neuse River. His body was recovered.

The following named officers have been chosen for Green county:

Special Court, R. H. Best, Chairman; Dr. John Harvey, H. F. Granger, Wm. Coward, and H. Hardy, County Court Clerk; J. M. Patrick, Sheriff; D. A. Spivey, County Attorney, John R. Williams, Register, S. D. Pope, County Trustee, G. M. F. Dail; Constable, Wm. L. Oast.

The wreck of the Underwriter, which was destroyed on Fort Dutton, in the Neuse river, on the 2d of February, 1865, by J. Taylor Wood, has been raised, and is now lying off the residence of Judge Manly, in the Neuse river.

These are the views of this community—the government understands them—and we will defer to the policy which the President may deem best, whether it be the withdrawal or retention of the soldiers.

Night Prowlers—There is a criminal habit, even if the purpose is not of that character, which some persons indulge of visiting the yards and gardens of citizens without invitation and at hours which reputable people deem unseasonable. Such were the visitants to the premises of Mr. Wm. Askew last Monday night, between 11 and 12 o'clock. The pair may have been noctambulists, but for strangers their inspection of the grounds, houses and especially their fleetness of foot when they were made aware of discovery, infallibly point to the conclusion that the encroachers were "wide-awakes."

Runaway—A horse, attached to a buggy, took flight from some unknown cause yesterday evening, on the cross street near the gubernatorial mansion, and plunged off at fearful speed. Fortunately the owner, Mr. John McAlpine, quitted his seat a few moments prior to the occurrence. The shafts of the vehicle were broken, but other respects no damage was done.

In the present miasmic season it is a bad habit to leave horses attached to conveyances without some one to attend to them. Besides, there is a disease prevalent here which makes it very hazardous to quit the equine species even for a face from right to left. A fractional part of our population have a remarkable antipathy to walking and display equal readiness "to jump into the wagon and take a little ride," but in the absence of vehicular accommodations are not fastidious enough to take a horse if well illy saddled. In fact, they will take him any how.

White Labor vs. Black—A gentleman at Norfolk writes us that various portions of North Carolina will soon be supplied with white labor. Parties who have been familiar with field labor and other branches of industry in the North, are forming to some South. They are induced to this course upon the hypothesis that the blacks will not work systematically. We regret to say that in a degree this is true; they are unreliable because constantly and unnecessarily changing homes; and unless they establish steadier habits, will soon establish a condition of things to bring them want and misery. We advise them to practise politeness, industry, constancy, honesty and economy—they will make by such a line of conduct.

Last Day—By announcement from headquarters, yesterday was the last day allotted to Confederates for voluntarily removing all offensive lace and buttons from their apparel. Confederate officers, as a class, had long since dispensed with stars, bars and other insignia of former rank, and even in the small matter of buttons, only a few persons have been effected by the late order. We have not seen a man with either on since the wishes of the military authorities were announced.

This as it should be; but we are entirely confident that in a large majority of cases the forbidden trimming would have long since disappeared, but for the fact that southern soldiers are generally bankrupt in all save honor and courage.

Horses, Mules, &c.—There is to be a large sale of government horses, mules, wagons, &c., at the Baptist Grove in Raleigh, next week. It will offer to those who need such things an opportunity to supply themselves at cheap rates.

Gone Home—The 76th Pennsylvania infantry, Col. Little, left here yesterday morning for their homes in the Keystone state.

Decided at Last—The post office matter has been decided at last and unless our citizens move in the matter they will have no means of receiving letters in future. It has been removed to the headquarters of this post, from which point the army will be furnished letters and papers. If the people here arrange for some one to attend to their mails, Gen. Ruler will still have them forwarded and received. If proper spirit had been shown in obtaining a decent room for the military, we should have been accommodated as heretofore. We know those in charge of postal matters labored zealously to perpetuate the old arrangement.

The remedy now is to get a room, appoint a proper person to go to post headquarters for the mails, open and distribute them, and then to pack and deliver at the same point these which are to be forwarded.

A Difficulty—we understand—or misunderstanding, occurred yesterday afternoon, between the provost guard and a citizen, Mr. Jacob Mordcaid, when Hon. Sion H. Rogers, formerly Attorney General of the State, is said to have interposed in a friendly spirit. We hear that he was served roughly, but as there are conflicting reports we await the official investigation for particulars.

Steamers Annie and Carolina.—These steamers sail for New York—the first from Newbern and the last from Morehead city—next Saturday. See advertisements. Both have good freight and passenger accommodations.

New Advertisements.—We direct attention to the new advertisements scattered all through this morning's Progress. They tell their own stories.

Mutual Life Insurance Company.—A meeting of the members of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance company was held in this city some days since and the following gentlemen appointed directors for the ensuing year:

Charles E. Johnson, W. H. McKee, C. B. Root, P. F. Pescud, W. H. Jones, H. W. Husted, John G. Williams, K. P. Battle, Edward Hall, W. S. Massen, Albert Johnson, Quinten Busbee, R. H. Battle.

The directory then selected Dr. Charles E. Johnson for the presidency and R. H. Battle for the secretaryship.

Colonel Coan.—We hear that Col. Coan, of the 48th New York regiment, now commanding the 2nd brigade, 10th army corps, is in command of all the troops in and around Raleigh. He is represented to be a rigid disciplinarian and such a man is greatly needed for the suppression of the lowly element.

For New York.—The fine steamer El-Cid, of the Goodspeed line, is now freighting at Newbern and will leave for New York on Saturday next. Her accommodations for passengers are excellent.

Off To Day.—The 169th New York, Lieut. Colonel Calvin, left here this morning for the Empire state. The members of the regiment made numerous friends in this city and many will be glad to hear of their safe arrival at home.

The "Giraffe."—We understand that Mr. Whitaker, the original "Giraffe" man, contemplating reviving his animal in this city soon, loyal in sentiment and strictly neutral. As such, we shall welcome it to the field of journalism in the "plunny" world.

Theatre.—The "Tobdies" and "Box and Cox" were presented by the dramatic troupe at City Hall, last evening. In spite of their defective appliances (and a small room, they appear to attract full houses).

The Domestic Market—yesterday, was better supplied than we have it during the present season and prices are coming down. Watermelons are much reduced in price and increased in size. Vegetables ditto and so on to the end of the chapter.

At Blumenthal's Soda Fountain, on Fayetteville street, Wednesday, the thermometer ranged as below:

9 a. m.,	80	1 p. m.	84 1/2
10 "	80	" "	85
11 "	82	" "	86
12 "	84	" "	86

Her capacity for freight and accommodations for passengers, are unequalled in this port.
