

FASHION GOSSIP—INTERESTING TO THE LADIES.—Each season—we might almost say each month—witnesses marked and important changes in the world of fashion.

A pale, mauve silk skirt, opened at each breadth from the bottom to about a quarter of a yard up the skirt; straps of white or other contrasting silk are used to hold them together over the underskirt, and a tassel corresponding in color is sewn at each end of the strap.

We learn that the newest thing in that ever-varying covering for the head is known as the lozenge bonnet. It is made either of rice or Belgian straw, and describes a lozenge on the head, confining five smaller ones, which are made either of pink or lilac ribbons.

THE LATE GOVERNMENT SALE.—At the sale of property last Wednesday and Thursday, by Capt. Garoutte, A. Q. M., at the Baptist Grove in this City, the bidding was active and the sale footed up a handsome sum.

RASCALS IN THE COUNTRY.—The subterfuges of crime are almost endless. We hear that one of the dodges hereabout is that of a party of men who are visiting the surrounding country, representing themselves as agents of the United States, and upon the plea that the government needs them are taking back the horses and mules heretofore lent them.

RESTORE THE BENCHES.—A gentleman who is not deficient in judgment in matters of taste and comfort wishes us to suggest that the military, city or state authorities restore the benches in the capitol square, immediately in front of the state house, on each side of the statue.

STILL BURNING.—It will be esteemed rather fishy we presume, when we say that the fire kindled by Wheeler's Cavalry on the evacuation of Raleigh, and by which the Central Railroad depot was burned, was discovered last Saturday to be still burning beneath the surface of the earth.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, JULY 31, 1865

NO. 219.

QUARTERMASTERY IN RALEIGH.—There are such things in every community as constitutional croakers and we have them here in superabundance.

But the system he has inspired among his subordinates and which is enforced by personal supervision, is as admirable as possible. The government property is stored according to article in the most perfect order—kept in a style which prevents waste—and in all aspects assures the interest of the government.

We say this much in the hope that the government at Washington may have knowledge of his fidelity to its interests, and the departmental and post commanders of the full appreciation he enjoys in the estimation of our citizens.

THE DINNER TO OUR RETURNED BOYS.—We learn the following gentlemen have been suggested as the committee to make arrangements for the contemplated dinner and welcome home of the brave boys from this county.

Many of our worthy citizens in the country have signified a cheerful willingness to give liberally, and we doubt not that the dinner will be one that will reflect honor on the country at large.

THE TRIAL.—The trial of a Mr. Markham, upon the charge of killing a negro, has been progressing in the city for some days past. The military commission have succeeded, we understand, in receiving all the testimony and the arguments will probably be heard to-day.

CLOSED UP.—It is stated to us that the store in the house formerly occupied as the "State Journal" office, was closed by the provost marshal, Saturday, upon the charge of vending the ardent.
