THE NEWS.

—For latest news see Fourth Page.
—B. H. Epperson is announced as a candidate for Governor in Texas.
—Santa Anna has unexpectedly declared in favor of the Republic and in opposition to Napoleon's little boy, "Max."

—The latest subterfuge connected with the Mexican Emigration scheme, is the announcement that a large number of Missourians are en route for the dominions of Maximilian.
—The extra three months pay of officers must be taxed.
—Gen. Banks will reside permanently in New Orleans to practise law.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, AUG. 5, 1865. NO. 224.

twenty-five others, in the murder of several Union men, was torbly taken from the Sheriff's hands July 16, carried across the Oage River, and shot dead without ceremony.

—A Western paper has a dispatch from Memphis reporting the seizure of the Commercial Bank in that city and the discovery of a defalcation in the Custom House. It is supposed that the money which should have been in the Custom House had been used by the bank.

—A curious excitement is at present prevailing in Philadelphia. The excitement arose from the discovery of five fires within twenty-four hours in one block of houses on Reckless street, which runs from Front to Otsego, North of Washington avenue, Southward. An investigation by fire Marshal Blackburn discovered the fact that the fires had been kindled by a small child, but for what purpose is not known. The child is probably affected by a mental disease called by some medical men pyromania.

—The shoddy aristocracy at Saratoga have great difficulty in wearing their unusual advancements. Some of them make most ridiculous work of it—reminding beholders of premium cattle bedecked for agricultural fairs. One unfortunate dunce of oleaginous development actually went through the martyrdom of dressing fifteen times before supper.

—A young damsel at the table in one of the big hotels "astonished the crowd" by exclaiming, "Lar! mar; I've dropped my diamond into the gravy!" A vigorous search for the lost jewel—a stonacher pin—was made in the kitchen refuse, but unsuccessfully. It is only worth $1,200, and "papa" comes within Toodles definition of being a gentleman. He "don't care a darn." There is a greater crowd at Saratoga now than ever before at this time in the season; but less of real refined gentility.

—A correspondent of the Dunkirk Journal says that the celebrated Indian warrior, Bloody Hand, of the Seneca nation of Indians, died on the Cattaraugus Reservation on the 10th inst., nearly one hundred years old. He is represented to have been terrible with the tomahawk and scalping-knife.

—The Philadelphia Press says that Gen. Grant's log-house, which formed his headquarters during the long siege of Petersburg, is now being put into position at Fairmount Park. It is quite a commodious and stylish affair, and cost nearly $3,000. It is to be surrounded by an inclosure, and probably a fee of admittance will be charged, the proceeds to be applied to a patriotic or humanitarian purpose.

—It is said that Elder Brigham Young intimated to Speaker Colfax, in a recent interview at Salt Lake City, that he expected a revelation from the Lord that "polygamy should be stopped," and said he was prepared to enforce the divine injunction.

—Captain Jackson, about forty-five years of age, said to be a brother of Stonewall Jackson, fell overboard from the steamer Lundia, on her last trip from Mobile to New Orleans, and was drowned. He has been wounded three times while in the service, and at the time of his death was en route for Galveston.—Captain Jackson was formerly a merchant of Augusta, Ga.

—In a letter written from Lexington, Va., by JOHN LETCHER, who signs himself "Ex-Governor of Virginia," he begs Secretary SEWARD to furnish him a copy of the laws passed by United States Congress since 1860, as not a copy can be found in the country in which he resides. The request was referred by Secretary SEWARD to Secretary HARRIS, of the Interior Department, who has directed that copies of the laws be forwarded to LETCHER, as requested. He is not entitled to them as a right, being simply a private citizen, but under the peculiar circumstances of the case, and being desirous to enlighten the citizens of the rebellious States as to what laws have been passed by our Congress during the period these States were under the control of the Jeff. Davis usurpation, Secretary HARRIS has exercised the discretionary power vested in him in such cases, and sent the books.

—The Florida Union says that the afflicted father of PAYNE, the would-be murderer of Secretary SEWARD, has been making a visit to Jacksonville in that State. The Union says: "The father of PAYNE called on us one day this week. He resides on a plantation three miles from Live Oak Station, on the Pensacola and Georgia Railroad. He lost one son at the battle of Murfreesboro; another returned home maimed for life. "Lewis" was his only hope in his old age. The afflicted father was a Baptist minister, as has been stated. We must necessarily pronounce just the terrible punishment to the son, but we cannot withhold our deepest sympathy for the heart-stricken parent, or esteem him less as a worthy man and citizen."

—So many partial and incorrect statements have been made respecting the distributing of the rewards offered for the capture of Boeth and his associates, that it becomes proper to say that no money has yet been paid to any one, either by the general or city authorities. The Secretary of War being unable to give the matter his personal attention, designated Judge Holt, Adjt-Gen. Townsend and Assistant Secretary Eckert as a board to hear and decide the claims of the multitude of persons who demand a share of the government reward. These officers have had the matter in progress for two months, but have not yet found time to hear all the applicants, and of course have not made any divisions among them.—It is probable that the city authorities will accept the same basis as agreed upon by the board, though there are proposals to do otherwise. The board will hardly be able to make their award before September, there being over one hundred and fifty claims to examine.

THE CITY.

THE FREEDMEN'S BUREAU.—Col. E. Whittlesey, the Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen for this State, and whose office is in Raleigh, announces that the following named officers, duly assigned by orders, are on duty in his bureau:

- Assistant Adjutant General—Bravet Maj. Chas. J. Wickersham.
Acting Assistant Adjutant General—Lieut. Fred. H. Beecher.
Assistant Quartermaster—Capt. Thos. P. Johnston.
Commissary of Subsistence—Capt. Geo. C. Almy.
Medical Officer—Surgeon Lewis D. Harlan.
As a matter of public interest, we append a list of the district superintendents:

- Central district, headquarters at Raleigh—Lt. Col. Dexter E. Clapp, 38th U. S. C. T.
Eastern district, headquarters at Newbern—Capt. Horace James, A. Q. M., and Financial Agent.
Southern District, headquarters at Wilmington—Capt. R. B. Beatt, 6th U. S. C. T.

Col. Whittlesey has, perhaps, confided to him the most delicate administrative duties entrusted to any officer in North Carolina, and we expect, in a few days to possess a copy of the instructions to the different subordinates in his department as to the scope and sphere of their duties. He is represented to be a christian gentleman, and judging the future by his past conduct, we may predict for him such a prudential course as will advance the substantial interests of the freedmen without any manifestation of radical extravagance. He is much esteemed by our people.

CALL ACCEPTED.—The Rev. Thomas H. Pritchard, who had been for some time past temporarily in charge of the Baptist (Rev. Mr. Skinner's) church in this place, has accepted a call to the First Baptist church in Petersburg and left yesterday morning, with his family for the new field of labor.

It will be remembered that the church edifice of that congregation was struck by lightning and consumed during the storm of last Tuesday, but it appears that the membership are determined to have him and a place for his efforts until rebuilding can be accomplished. He bears with him the best wishes not only of the denomination to which he belongs, but of this community.

HOW IMPORTANT.—It is of the first importance to business men to understand that their true interests and success depends in a particular sense upon keeping themselves before the public. Those men, north and south, and the world over, who have displayed the most liberality in judicious advertising and the like, are distinguished by wealth and reputation—and we remind tradesmen that either through the Progress paper, or by handbills, or circulars and other job work, they may win enviable fame and independence in business.

AN EXCELLENT ORDER.—The following order, from headquarters department of North Carolina, Army of the Ohio, dated Raleigh, North Carolina, August 1st, 1865, is of interest to property owners:
"District Commanders will ascertain by inspection, consultation with their Chief Quartermasters, or otherwise, what buildings now occupied for military purposes are absolutely necessary for the public service, and will thereupon cause all buildings now occupied or held for military purposes, and not necessary therefor, to be turned over to the Freedmen's Bureau, in cases where existing orders so require, and in other cases to the owners of such buildings.
"A report will be made of action hereon, containing a list of buildings turned over, and to whom."

THE RIGHT SPIRIT.—During a visit to the depo of the North Carolina railroad, last evening, we noticed at that point a large amount of cotton, tobacco, etc., which had been brought forward for shipment to the North. The same thing, we are informed, is to be seen on the arrival of almost every train and even heavier supplies will be forthcoming as the transportation ability of the different improvements is enlarged. We are pleased to see the people hurrying their products to market—it is the best way to relieve the stringency of the money market.

NEGRO MIMSTRELY.—We saw a negro of this city yesterday, whose mimicry of various birds, especially the mocking bird, was so natural that the most perfectly attuned ear would not have supposed the concord of sounds to have emanated from a human throat had he been out of sight. He readers with great accuracy and almost miraculous sweetness the most difficult operas, marches, waltzes, and anthems, as well as the simple but touching ballad pieces which are always popular. He is quite a musical wonder and eclipses any performance we have ever heard from the most eminent flutist.

WELL DONE.—The foot bridge at the intersection of Martin street with the gas-house, heretofore a man-trap of the most dangerous kind, has been substantially repaired—we presume by military authority and labor. It is well done and will prove of much convenience to pedestrians in that vicinity.

RECEIVED.—We are glad to state that Maj. Butts, of the 47th N. Y. Volunteers, has received the horse stolen a few nights since and advertised in the Progress last Thursday. The equipments are yet missing, but as the thief has been detected they may be forthcoming.

ANOTHER FINE SHOWER.—yesterday—kept the mercury down to an endurable point.

PROVOST MARSHAL'S SANCTUM.—Raleigh, Aug. 4th, 1865.—This has been an exceedingly quiet day in the office of the provost marshal. Through the strict discipline of Lt. Col. McDonald and all the officers attached to our city government, improvement can be plainly seen throughout every part of the city.

Numerous were the complaints made to the assistant provost by parties from the country.—Those that come under his jurisdiction were promptly attended to—the remainder he respectfully referred to Capt. Adams, assistant provost marshal 10th army corps.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The reader's eyes should not fail of glancing over the advertising columns—especially the new candidates for patronage—among them

John Kermode—Ladies Read This.

General Shipping and Commission Merchants.
Stephen Seaman—Information Wanted.

ADVANCED.—By reference to the money market reported by Grady, of this city, it will be seen that there has been an advance in the value of some bank notes, while others previously not quoted have become saleable.

ORDERED.—Brevet Brig. Gen. Thos. T. Heath, late Colonel of the 6th Ohio Cavalry, left here Thursday evening for Morganton, the theatre of his future command. Until the return of Maj. Gen. Kilpatrick he had his headquarters in Raleigh, and was in chief authority as cavalry division commander.

GONE HOME.—Thirty-three men were discharged from the Construction Corps Thursday, and this morning proceeded home.

RELIEVED.—We understand that certain citizens of Johnston county, lately placed under arrest upon representations, it is said, of a Mr. Reed, have been relieved from that condition at the solicitation of Col. Whittlesey, commissioner for freedmen.

BOYS are wanted at this office to take charge of three or four routes on the different railroad trains. The work will pay them handsomely.
