—A proposition is seriously talked of in Norfolk to establish a direct line of steamers between that place and Liverpool.

—The Postmaster-General has just ordered the resumption of the daily mail service from Macon to Columbus, Atlanta, Chattanooga, and to other important points in Georgia, by railroad.

—Col. J. J. Seibels, of Montgomery, Ala., died in that city on the 8th. He was formerly United States Minister to Belgium, was a Douglas man in 1860, but afterward gave in his adherence to secession, and joined the rebel army. He was a candidate for the Provisional Governorship of Alabama, and has recently been laboring earnestly to promote reconstruction.

—The Richmond Republic says that after the surrender of Gen. Lee, his son, William H. F. Lee, without loss of time repaired to the White House, determined, notwithstanding the lateness of the season, to attempt to make a crop of corn. Three young men, formerly of his command, attended him, a German and an Irishman, and two freedmen were subsequently added to their force. They began ploughing on the 29th of April, and have made a splendid crop of corn, estimated at 1,500 bushels. This example is worthy of imitation by other of the F. P. V's.

—J. L. Pugh, of Alabama, and Eli S. Horter, ex-members of the United States Congress, and late members of the rebel Congress, have arrived in Washington.

—The finances of the Treasury are moving along quietly and easily, the cash receipts from internal revenue and the customs being so liberal as to enable Mr. McCullough to meet all the urgent demands for cash which is now, from the certificate of indebtedness, falling due. About thirty millions of these mature this month, and about twenty millions during September. This will relieve the Treasury from its principal burden between this and the approaching session of Congress. The Secretary has the discretion, if required, of making a further issue of compound interest notes.

—Maj.-Gen. Meade, accompanied by Brevet Maj.-Gen. Webb, Inspector-General; Col. Balchelder, Quartermaster, and Lieut.-Col. Meade, A. D. C., are on a tour of inspection through the Department of Virginia, North and South Carolina, of the Military Division of the Atlantic. They will be absent several weeks, and visit all the important points in these departments. They will first visit Richmond, via Gordonsville and some of the old battle-fields. Though the President has not seriously contemplated any visit to Richmond, as has been so frequently stated by the Richmond papers, it is, after all, not unlikely that he may make the proposed trip.

—Thursday the President pardoned C. H. Slocombe, of Louisiana, and Henry Taylor, of Va. A noted woman of the Southern persuasion, now in Europe, writes a most violent and insulting letter to the President, pouring out her wrath for the "murder" as she calls it, of Mrs. Barratt. John Muir, an old citizen, and a few years since Mayor of Alexandria, Va., died in that city on Tuesday last. He was universally esteemed.

—Major John P. Heiss, a native of Nicaragua, and for many years a resident of Washington, died in New York on the 22d instant. He will be remembered as the editor of the Washington Union during President Polk's administration. He was also engaged for sometime on the Washington States newspaper.

—Genevial Lyons, and her paramour, Charles Brown, charged with complicity in the Phoenix Bank defalcation in New York, have been discharged.

—There was another railroad accident in Connecticut on Monday evening. A train on the New Haven and New London Railroad ran over a cow near Bradford, and three of the cars were thrown from the track. Ten or twelve of the employees on the train and one passenger received severe injuries; but no one was killed.

—The Mississippi State Convention has passed an ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of the secession convention excepting that relating to revenue. The members of the convention, at an informal meeting, acquiesced in a petition to President Johnson requesting him to pardon Jeff. Davis and Clark, the rebel ex-Governor of their State.

—A despatch to the Toronto (Canada) Globe states that Robert E. Lee, late rebel general, is expected shortly to arrive in Montreal.

—Another robbery was discovered in New York on the 28th in the silverware manufactory of Francis W. Cooper, corner of Amity and Macdougal-sts., from which $10,000 worth of diamonds and silverware valued at $8,000 had been extracted. Persons on whom suspicion had been fixed were arrested and committed to the toms, but none of the stolen property has as yet been recovered.

FAST STEAMER.—The Newbern Times of Saturday says: The Murray Line steamer Lucy, Captain Wheeler, arrived here yesterday, from New York, with a heavy freight of merchandise, consigned to Hughes & Dill. She left her dock in New York on Wednesday evening, and made the run in the remarkable short time of forty-six hours. The Lucy is one of the swiftest vessels which has ever entered this port.

ARE THEY GOING?—We refer, reader, to your teeth? Be careful. Next to your eyes, your teeth are the most precious of your facial organs. Use the fragrant ZODONOR. It will at once arrest decay and prevent what are now, but mere specks from being orifices. In brief it will save and beautify your teeth. And it is the only thing that can save them. Reflect on this.

An Irishwoman pretending to be a wealthy Cuban has swindled large sums of money out of parties in New York. She travelled in style—loud dress, many jewels, twelve large trunks, &c., &c.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI RALEIGH, MONDAY, AUG. 28, 1865. NO. 243.

STATE ITEMS.

GUILFORD COUNTY.—The County Court of Guilford has appointed eighteen Justices of the Peace, to administer the amnesty oath to the people of that county. Wm. A. Caldwell and Jos. A. Houston, Esqrs., will administer the oath to the citizens of the 8th and 11th districts, at Greensboro, on the 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th and 9th of September. We will publish the entire list of appointments in our next.

WILMINGTON.—The Herald says: In consequence of the great demand for stores for the next year this species of property is bringing tremendous prices, to the injury of the place. The rent of houses for residences will, no doubt, be more moderate, partially on account of the low rent charged by the government for abandoned houses, but principally because there is less demand for residences than stores.

There is very little money, comparatively speaking, in circulation, and those who are compelled to rent places to live in are poor persons, dependent upon small salaries for support, and who cannot afford to pay these high prices. Two officers of the government have certainly shown much sympathy for this class of persons.

TEARING DOWN THE FLAG.—The following from the Salem Press is another evidence that all our people are intensely loyal, and that everything is as quiet as a May morning. Hope we are committing no mortal sin by publishing the fact:

Some evil disposed person or persons, on Tuesday night last, at the Court House in Winston, cut down the United States flag and carried it off to parts unknown. It was a mean, low, cowardly, disloyal act, and we hope those engaged in the black deed will be ferreted out and brought to justice. At the close of the business for which the Magistrates met at the Court House in Winston, on Thursday, an order was issued offering one hundred dollars reward for the apprehension and conviction of the perpetrators of the deed. Another flag was procured and raised at the same place.

Checking Perspiration—Facts Which Everybody Ought to Know.

Edward Everett became overheated in testifying in a court room, went to Fanen Hall, which was cold, sat in a draft of air until his turn came to speak: "but my hands and feet were ice, my lungs on fire. In this condition I had to go and spend three hours in the court room." He died in less than a week from thus checking the perspiration. It was enough to kill any man.

Professor Mitchell, while in a state of perspiration in yellow fever, the certain sign of recovery, left his bed, went into another room, became chilled in a moment, and died the same night.

If while perspiring, or while warmer than usual from exercise or heated room, there is a sudden exposure to still, cold air, or raw, damp atmosphere, or to a draught, whether at an open window or door, or street corner, the inevitable result is a violent and insupportable cold, which were making their way out of the system, are compelled to seek an exit through some weaker part. The idea is presented by saying that the cold had settled in that part. To illustrate:

A lady was about getting into a small boat to cross the Delaware, but wishing first to get an orange at a fruit-stand, she ran up the backs of the door and on her return to the boat found herself much heated, for it was summer; but there was a little wind on the water and her clothes soon felt cold, which settled on her lungs, and within the year she died of consumption.

A strong man was working in a garden in May, feeling rather tired about noon, he sat down in the shade of the house and fell asleep, he woke up chilly, inflammation of the lungs followed, ending, after two years of great suffering, in consumption. On opening his chest there was such an extensive decay, that the yellow matter was scooped out by the cupful.

A Boston ship owner, while on the deck of one of his vessels, thought he would lend a hand in some emergency, and pulling off his coat worked with a will, until he perspired freely, when he sat to rest awhile, enjoying the delicious breeze from the sea.—On attempting to rise he found himself unable, and was so stiff in his joints that he had to be carried home and put to bed, which he did not leave until the end of two months, when he was barely able to hobble down to the wharf on crutches.

A lady, after being unusually busy all day, found herself heated and tired towards sundown of a summer's day. She concluded to take a drive to town in an open vehicle. The ride made her uncomfortably cool, but she warmed herself up by an hour's shopping, when she turned homeward; it being late in the evening she found herself more decidedly chilly than before. At midnight she had pneumonia (inflammation of the lungs), and in three months she had the ordinary symptoms of confirmed consumption.

A lady of great energy of character lost her cook, and had to take her place for four days; the kitchen was warm and there was a draught of air through it. When the work was done, she, warm and weary, went to her chamber and laid down on the bed to rest. This act was repeated several times. On the fifth day she had an attack of lung fever; at the end of six months she was barely able to leave her chamber, only to find herself suffering with all the prominent symptoms of confirmed consumption, such as quick pulse, night and morning cough, night sweats, debility, short breath and falling away.

A young lady rose from her bed on a November night, and leaned her arm on the cold window sill, to listen to a serenade. Next morning she had pneumonia, and suffered the horrors of asthma for the remainder of a long life.

Multitudes of women loose health and life every year, in one or more ways, by busying themselves in a warm kitchen until weary, and then throwing themselves on a bed or sofa, without covering, and perhaps in a room without fire; or by removing the out clothing, and perhaps change the dress for a common one, as soon as they entered the house after a walk or a shopping. The rule should be invariably to go at once into a warm room and keep on all the clothing for at least five or ten minutes, until the forehead is perfectly dry. In all weathers, if you have to walk and ride on any occasion, do the riding first.—Halt's Journal.

THE CITY.

LATE COLLISIONS.—While at the depot of the North Carolina railroad, Saturday, we saw a soldier approach and strike a negro several blows, which made the claret flow freely. Upon inquiring of bystanders, we ascertained that the darkey was not even accused of any offence, but had been assaulted because of an attack made by one of his class on a Federal soldier the night previous, in which the latter suffered severely. It was even reported yesterday morning that the sufferer had died from the injuries received.

But whether dead or living, he was injured, and thus the spirit of caste has been aroused. It is nothing more than we have predicted. If the negroes of the South continue to attempt an assertion of their social equality with the whites, whether soldiers or citizens they will deny it to them.—We insist that they shall be kindly treated, but at the same time they must deserve it by manifesting proper respect for the army as well as the citizens. Unless they do so, they will have no friends either in the North or South.

COUNTERFEIT $50 NOTES.—Nearly every week there comes from Washington, as if by authority, the statement that there are no counterfeiters of the national currency in circulation. But the fact is really different, as the frequent arrest and conviction of forgers demonstrates. The latest bogus process, however, appears to be an elaboration of "fives" into "fifties." This is accomplished by pasting the figures "50" over the "five" in the upper corners of the note, and also upon the back.—The words "Five Dollars" in the centre of the face of the note are extracted by means of acid, and "Fifty Dollars" printed in its place. The small figures around the margin of the note are covered respectively with green and black ink. The entire work is issued with great care, and is well calculated to deceive. They may be easily distinguished, however, by the engravings, the genuine five having on the face representation of Columbus in 1492 and of Pocahontas, and on the reverse the landing of Columbus, while on the fifties there are representations of Washington crossing the Delaware at Valley Forge, and on the reverse the embarkation of the Pilgrims.

THE BRITANN HOUSE.—Attention is directed to the card of Messrs. Keogh & Crane, in this morning's issue. Referring to them, the Greensboro' Patriot says:

"The Britain House.—This Hotel building, which since the death of its former proprietor has been closed, has been leased for a term of years by Messrs. Keogh & Crane, who are renovating and refitting the House from cellar to garret, with new furniture and fixtures, and will open it on Monday, the 1st of September. Under their management we feel assured that it will rank among the first hotels in the State.—Messrs. Keogh & Crane are among our most active and enterprising citizens.

We are from personal knowledge able to confirm all our cotemporary urges respecting the firm.—They are gentlemen of taste, liberality and enterprise, and parties visiting Greensboro' will no doubt find their accommodations of superior quality.

NOISY.—Last night about 11 o'clock, people resident in the southwestern part of the city were treated to a most unusual serenade by a party of men who were either drunk or crazy. After indulging themselves for half an hour or more in buzzes, shrieks and imprecations, they were either marched off by the guard, or abandoned the diabolic from sheer exhaustion.

The question is, where were the custodians of the night. People may get mellow if they please, so long as they affect only themselves; but it becomes a matter of public concern when they disturb the quiet of whole neighborhoods. Let them be coerced.

FARRISS, Charley the inimitable, has returned from the North with an elegant stock of cloths, cassimeres and other goods, which are now being opened at his store, next to the Progress office.—His stock of gentlemen's furnishing goods is large and well selected, and he can furnish or make up to order whatever the most fastidious may require. We advise all in search of new clothes, especially if they want fine fabrics and elegant fits, to call on our neighbor.

THE CITY POST OFFICE.—Postmaster Miller, we hear, has secured two rooms in the bank building on the southwest corner of Fayetteville and Hargett streets, and will transfer the office to that point either to-day or to-morrow.

We congratulate the people on the location of the post office. As in most small places, so in Raleigh in by-gone times, it was the practice to occupy the least attractive and convenient building for such use. Postmaster Miller in effecting a change in that particular, has entitled himself to the thanks of the community and we receive it as an augury that in other things he will evince laudable enterprise.

APPOINTED.—Mr. B. P. Presson, of Charlotte, has been appointed a messenger of the Southern Express Company, between that point and Raleigh. He is an energetic man with high reputation for spotless integrity. Long may he wave!

THEATRICAL.—A letter from Petersburg, received last evening, mentions as probable the visit to Raleigh of a celebrated theatrical corps. We know it would pay the manager handsomely, if a building suitable for such performances could be had. Unfortunately, the City Hall is not adapted for such exhibitions.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The increasing advertising the public at home and abroad are conferring on the Progress, is handsomely illustrated this morning. We invite attention to the favors of Hugh Rice, Greensboro—Horse, lot and furniture for sale or rent.

S. Maxon—House wanted.
C. W. Rose & Co., Newbern—Glue for sale.

CHANGE OF QUARTERS.—Capt. Melver, Provost Marshal and Commandant of this post, has removed to the office of Dr. Haywood, opposite the Presbyterian Church. The military have entirely withdrawn from the Capitol and given it up to the Governor and other civil officers.

FOR NEW YORK.—The fine steamship, Carolina, Capt. Phillips, will sail from Morehead city next Saturday, direct for New York. The arrangements for freight and passengers are said to be all that can be desired.

TROOPS GOING.—The 3rd New York did not leave here on Saturday as it was thought they would, but we learn they will certainly go this morning, and that the 47th will go to-morrow.
