It is reported that Colonel A. D. Streight, whose escape from Libby Prison gave him a national reputation, is about to become the editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, the State organ of the opposition in Indiana—a journal heretofore remarkable for its secession proclivities and identification with the D. A. K.'s.

This is an indication that the Democratic bodies in Indiana, like those of Maine, New York, and Minnesota, have determined upon a change of front.

There are now nearly three hundred Chinamen living in New York, but probably not half a dozen women from that country. There are two or three Chinese families. About fifty of the Chinamen are married—most of them to Irish women. They are generally industrious, but somewhat addicted to drinking, and they are not cleanly in their habits.

A number of persons in the county of Stafford, Va., have been swindled by a knave, who informed them that he was an agent of confiscation for the United States, and that unless they paid him fifty cents per acre for each acre of land now in corn, their land would be sold, and they would never be allowed to purchase it.

Gov. Brownlow says he has had an interview with John Bell. He is ten years older than before the Rebellion. His hair and whiskers have grown extra gray, and his teeth are falling out. THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, TUESDAY, AUG. 29, 1865. NO. 244.

THE CITY.

ENCOURAGE AND SUSTAIN YOUR MECHANICS.—The prosperity of all communities, be they large or small, depend, in a great degree, upon the encouragement and support given to that class of citizens engaged in mechanical and industrial pursuits.

GOING HOME.—The 8d New York Regiment, mustered out of the U. S. service last Saturday, left here yesterday morning for Petersburg, thence to proceed to Albany, at which point they will be released from their State obligation and again put on the character of citizens.

It will not be uninteresting to our readers to know that the 8d. regiment was the oldest organization in the service of the government. During the war four general officers had been made from it, and every line, field and staff officer which had position in it at the moment of its departure from Raleigh attained their promotion from the ranks.

We understand that Col. Ludlow, who has officiated as exchange agent for his government for three or four years past, and who was detached from the 8d in order to discharge the duties of the position, will join his old comrades on the route and be mustered out of the State service with them.

With such a record personally, added to high repute for soldierly qualities in field and camp, there will be no doubt of their receiving handsome entertainment at home. Albany is a place of some pretensions and the citizens know how to make fetes and feasts. Let them illustrate their qualities by a grand ovation to the boys now on their way to that city.

RENTALS.—The demand here for houses of every description, since the conclusion of hostilities, has been so unprecedented as to give landlords such a harvest of money from rentals as their fertile imaginations never had anticipated. But the tide is past flood—the ebb is as certain to follow as the day and the night, and the extravagant ideas of this moment will give way in a brief space of time.

Laws as regular in their operation as the motions of the blood, control this matter of supply and demand, and as soon as the unnatural causes which have given impetus to the business shall become extinct, the effect will in like manner die away.

THE OFFICE of the new Provost Marshal has been removed to the corner opposite the Presbyterian Church, where offenders against the majesty of law are properly disposed of.

Capt. McIvor, the new Provost and post commandant, has as his assistant Lieut. R. F. Laswell, and in the same office we found Lieut. Geo. H. Pennington—gentlemen whose politeness and courtesy is at once an assurance of their firmness in the performance of duty. The quality of cleverness is almost inseparably associated with sterling integrity, and while these officials evince kindness and practice conciliation, we have no fear of their flinching from impartial discharge of official responsibility.

THE EXCHANGE HOTEL.—We hear that Mr. Bowen has retired from his connection with the "Exchange" and that in future the establishment will be under the management of Randall & Co. We presume it is no violation of confidence to say that the associate of Mr. R. is Ex-Col. J. P. Foster, who has a reputation not only for gallantry in the social sense, but enterprise, energy and liberality in the more liberal phases of the terms employed.

GOLD IN THE CARDS.—We have a large lot of fine paper on hand, and can print military blanks, court blanks, circulars, catalogues, &c., at the shortest notice, and at northern prices.

Also, a large lot of cards on hand, which we can print at from $5 to $8 a thousand. Orders solicited at Progress Office.

PROVOST'S SANCTUM, Aug. 28, 1865.—The labors of the new provost marshal and his assistants begin to expand rather than diminish.

Yesterday a citizen named Griffith, was brought up for wearing soldier's clothing, which is positively prohibited, as made known by an official order in the Progress near two months since. He pleaded the non-possession of other apparel, which the provost deemed good excuse and he dismissed Mr. C., but not without reminding him that the blue was a peculiar institution with the army just now.

Another citizen, James Clark, arrested upon the charge of keeping a gambling saloon, was dismissed after a severe reprimand.

A negress, Mary Tucker, lodged complaint against a white man for retaining her clothes and refusing to pay wages justly due. He was ordered to square up in a financial as well as calico light, and Mary is doubtless the mistress of her spondulices and clothing, too, before this moment.

Two negroes, corn-stealers, had the charge proved against them and were made to pay the amount of damages to the owner in funds.

Several disputed points about mules were adjusted in a spirit of equity and the parties sent homeward.

A case of illegal arrest and detention of two boys, York and Altmore White, in Nash county, was enquired into and their release required by order.

No other cases of any public interest were disposed of, but Capt. McIvor assures us he is determined to do full justice to all the criminally disposed who come before him.

MUSIC.—Bonner & Lappie, music publishers at Richmond, have sent us specimens of their publications, for which they give us their thanks. It is probable they have extensive facilities for supplying the musical world with every production of the day, and if so, they need only to properly ventilate the fact to secure heavy orders all through the South.

HAND IT IN.—An officer informs us that one of the spouts, belonging to the machinery of the sprinklers which pour on Fayetteville street, daily, supplies of water to keep down the dust, has been lost. As it is not easy, if possible to replace the missing piece, we hope the finder will hand it to Capt. Garoutte, or one of his subordinates, and at once permit the machine to go on with its refreshing operation.

THE DRINKING SALOONS.—We think it more than probable that a limited number of the drinking saloons will be allowed to resume business in the city either this evening or to-morrow. The intention is, however, to confine the privilege to such parties as will have been ascertained to be trustworthy and who will not seek to evade the wholesome restrictions which are to be imposed. If the condition upon which they are permitted be once violated, then neither the house nor the individual will transact any more business here.

IT is the purpose of Capt. McIvor to see, however, that no low rum-mills or holes in the wall disgrace the city, no matter who may be the apparent head or manager. We know what we write to be true.

MATTERS CHIEFLY MILITARY.—The departure of the 8th New York is announced elsewhere, but we omitted to say they numbered 653 rank and file.

The 47th and 48th New York infantry are daily expecting to follow in their foot prints.

The 97th Pennsylvania volunteers left Weldon this morning en route for their homes in the Keystone State. They numbered 574 strong.

The Senior Paymaster's headquarters, which have been heretofore at Newbern, are to be removed to Raleigh. Preparations are now going forward looking to a transfer of the public monies from the "little town" to our big city.

Col. J. H. Lawrence, 18th Indiana Infantry, has been removed from command of the post of Goldsboro, by Col. W. W. Wheeler, 28th Michigan, with five companies from same regiment as the garrison.

WILMINGTON AND BUSINESS.—The Progress is not jealous of the success of our Seaboard cities in their march towards commercial greatness, but is rather gratified to hear that they are steadily rising in all the elements of material wealth. Wilmington, we are assured, has a fair prospect of surpassing the prosperity of the olden time, and among others who are contributing to such results, we may mention Andrews & Bardin, who are conducting a commission business on such a scale as would not do discredit to the merchant princes of Gotham. See their card.

OPEN AT EIGHT O'CLOCK.—In future, the city postoffice will open at 8 o'clock; a. m., instead of 9, as heretofore.

We are glad to find that postmaster Miller evinces such a ready disposition to meet the public convenience. With Mr. Belvin (OUR CHARLEY) as his chief clerk, the affairs of the office will go on swimmingly.

PERSONAL.—We are glad to hail among the returned Raleighians, A. P. C. Bryan, Esq., the courteous and polite agent of the Southern Express Company. Bryan is an exceedingly modest and unostentatious man, but one of the noblest gentlemen in this community or State.

ADVERTISERS.—We have to request our advertising friends to hand in their favors as early as practicable in the afternoon. The morning hours are best, but they ought to send them, when possible, at least as early as three or four o'clock p. m.

NO ACCIDENT.—The apprehension felt here, during the earlier hours of yesterday evening, that an accident had occurred on the railroad between this city and Goldsboro, was relieved about 9 o'clock by the shrill whistle of the iron-horse. It appears that the delay was occasioned by the derangement of some piece of machinery about the engine.

THE TEETH OFTEN DIE.—Long before the system loses its youthful vigor, it is not to be prevented this species of dentals use Fragrant S-zodont. It keeps the dentals alive, the enamel spotless, the gums rose and elastic, the breath pure and the mouth clean.
