The gentleman replied that he did know of a power which could prevent him, namely: the presence and strength of a loyal man who would not tolerate the utterance of treason in his presence. Shortly afterward Mr. Johnson privately inquired the name of the person who had so abruptly silenced him, and was told that it was Maj Gen. John W. Geary.

ish Minister. That functionary, as a new comer, was not unnaturally puzzled by the nomenclature of the Washington streets. Finally he determined to seek for authentic information. Accordingly, one evening there appeared before the group of Staff officers next door a vision of white neckcloth and swallow tail coat, with knee breeches and handsome calves-the valet, to wit: "Aw, gentlemen, Sir Frederick presents his compliments, and desires to know whether 'is 'ouse is on the havenue?'' Thereto gravely responded, with courteous bow and gracious smile, one of the worthy Staff: "Give Sir Frederick the compliments of Col. ---, and inform him that his house is on Hell (L) street!" "All the Shriekers out of Hell."

The present Governor, W. G. Brownlow, of Tennessee, delivered a lecture on slavery in New Orleans, about eight years since, from which the following is an extract. It is characteristic of the old gentleman though little by little he has simmered down in the intensity of his words, as well as changed his front from South to North:

The Southern Methodist Church was doing more for the temporal and eternal welfare of the negro than | cially beneficial to the poor man, who, with the aid all the shrickers out of hell; the pious abolitionists would enter the church on Sunday, with a face as long as the moral law, descant upon and bewail the miseries and wrongs heaped upon the down-trodden son of Africa, and on the following day, in his picayone grocery, or candy store, would, if he could, swindle a Louisiana negro out of the pewter ornament on the head of his cane, and do it in the name of the Lord. "When I get to Heaven," continued the reverend gentleman, where I expect to go after my death, if I find a regular abelitionist there I shall conclude he practiced a fraud upon the doorkeeper, for, in my opinion, a Kansas agitator and freedom shrieker has no more business in our Father's kingdom than Commodore Paulding had in Nicaragua, when he captured the fillibusters.

BUILDING Associations .- Among the local developenents of the times, as effecting Ruleigh, is the necessity for the organization of building associations. The system is not merely admirable because through their instrumentality persons of moderate means may make for themselves homes, but chiefly from the fact that they operate to protect renters from outrageous demands from unprincipled landlords Of course we have in view the idea of connecting with the enterprize a loan association, the whole to be operated on the basis which underlies similar institutions throughout the North.

We throw on this recommendation as not only remunerative to capital, but productive of the highest benefits in other respects. Nothing now in our mind promises to interpose so effectually a check to the stupendous exactions of property-holders in Raleigh. The effect of unreasonable rents is to retard the growth of Raleigh; to deter enterprise; to check investments, and generally impoverish the community where it is practiced. Nothing in the world but a spirit of extortion among owners of property prevented the development of Norfolk and Portsmouth to half a dozen times their present proportions. I parties from the North entered the market as purchasers of wharf and other property, the holders immediately ran up the figures to a princely height, and this, too, for property that had been notoriously nonpaying from time immemorial. A like spirit, but less in degree, appears to have tastened itself upon a portion of property-holders here. We beg them for the sake of the city, its future wealth and repute, to be satisfied with fair prices, and thus encourage rather than retard every legitimate species of enterprise.

If they continue their present game it will have a very hurtful influence against their real and permanent interests. If they abandon it, their revenues will not only be liberal, but permanent.

But whatever their future course, we insist that it will be of universal and enduring advantage to found here building and loan associations, and espethey would confer, could in a few years at least be the proprletors of their own dwellings

PIPE LOGY. - If it never was true previously, the war nade of us a ration of smokers. The great pe nehant of all pipers, however, has been meerschamm. and for the information of the gentry who pride themselves on the magnifi ent coloring of their chibuques, we have to say that their imagined meerschaum is made on a large scale in New York by saturating carbonate of magnesia to silicate of soda, or soluble glass, care, in selecting a good quality of Magnesia and silicate being the only requisite for success .-The profits are immense, as will be seen. Magnesia costs about twenty-five cents per pound, and silicate of sodieven less. A pipe made of the " foam of the sea," as smokers verily believe, costs for material about five cents, leaving the balance for labor.

NEGRO TROOPS. - We have previously announced that the colored tro ps in this State, enlisted at the North, would be mustered out. The order from Washington to Gen. Ruger is annexed:

"The Secretary of War directs that all organizations of colored troops in your department, which were enlisted in the Northern States, be mustered out of service immediately.

"The muster out will be by entire organizations, including all additions thereto by recruits and from "The musters-out, discharges and payments will be made under the regulations promulgated in general orders no. 94, current series from Adjutant T. S. VINCENT, A. A. G.

FALL FA HIONS. -It may interest the ladies in pursuit of the late fashions, to know that bonn ts in New York this fall, are made lower in the neck, leaving less room for "waterfalls," which will probably oe tabooed altogether before Unristmas. Git ornaments are in vogue, many of the dilgns representing coin. Coaks are to be worn fulln the back. Small sleeves still pred minute; some are closely fitting at the hand. The regular fail fashious, however, will not "open' till the 1st of October.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT. - LOSS OF LIFE. - We learn by a passenger down last night, that on Tuesday evening the steam-boiler of a saw-mill exploded, at a point one mile below Pine Level, on the line of the North Carolina railroad. We did not hear the particulars further than ascertaining that the proprietor, Mr. Taylor, and three negroes, were killed, besides badly scalding one white man, whose name our informant was unable to obtain. One half of the boiler, a large one, was thrown a distance of at least twenty yards and the building literally riddled.

COUNTERFEIT FIFTY DOLLAR NOTES .- Well executed fac similes of the United States $50 notes are in circulation. The face of Hamilton on the bill is coarse. The paper is heavier than the genuine bill.
