THE DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, SEPT. 28, 1865.

VOL. VI.

THE CITY.

The teachers of Christ Church Sunday School, Raleigh, N. C., have formed a society for the purpose of procuring money to build a Sunday School Room. Persons desiring to have fancy or plain work done can be accommodated by the society. The present place of meeting is at Gov. Manley's house, and the time Saturday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock. It is also proposed to have a Fair for the benefit of the same object, during the first or second week in December. Contributions in money or materials of any kind—scraps of carpeting, merino or any worsteds, silks or cottons, will be most that kfully received. The society also calls upon the ladies of other congregations in the State, or elsewhere, who may have opportunities of doing so, to make fancy articles of any description as denations to the fair. The Sunday School is in a very flourishing condition as regards number of scholars and zeal and number of teachers, but a room is very necessary for the tuture success of the school. Donations of any kind can be directed to the superintendant of the Sunday school, Wm. E. Anderson, Raleigh, N. C.

SIGNS — Everybody is more or less superstitious, whether they are willing to acknowledge it or not. If this statement be true the following from Puck, a California comic paper, will be of interest to our readers:

SANITABY.—The idle freedmen are still at work, under the supervision of Capt Purington, the active Provost Marshal, cleaning the streets. The military and civil authorities of the city are now running together in a remarkably amicable manner.

WE have a note from Messra. Fulton & Price stating that the Wilmington Journal will be resumed on the 28th of September. We wish them success.

-A story is told of a man who insured in London one thousand cigars, valued at £200, against fiae and water After the lapse of six months he made his appearance at the insurance office and de nanded his money, as the cigars had all b en burned. "But not on the vessel, sir," said the secretary, "for she is in do k now." "Yes, on board vessel : I smeked them, and therefore burned them all myself, and the insurance says against fire "-The secretary seemed taken aback, but told the smoker to call again next day He called at the appointed time, but was met by the solicitor of the company, who told him if he did not relinquish his claim he would be prosecuted as one who knowingly and wilfully set fire to goods insured by the company.

ME. EDITOR :- THE FOLLOWING IS STRANGE BUT TRUE.

'Twas late last night that I was sitting, in my chamber, lonely, knitting, Knitting on the same old stocking, 1'd commenced before the war; Knitting carefully, I was heeling-when methought I heard one stealing, Stealing softly up the stairway, leading to my chamber door.

This I thought, and listened more.

Soon I heard a gentle knocking-hastily I dropped my stocking;

Dropped my knitting-the old stocking I commenced before the war.

Again, and louder, came the rapping-as tho' they thought that I was napping ;

Meanspping? Koitting, napping? Me who never-
