

THE NEWS.

For latest news see Fourth Page. It is stated that the Fenian organization in the Northern States numbers two hundred and twenty-one thousand. The "Fenian Sisterhood" of Springfield, Mass., have been having a ball. At the Episcopal Convention, in Montreal, a congratulatory address to the American Church was passed. The family of John C. Breckinridge, consisting of his wife, two daughters and a son, have arrived in Toronto. Mrs. General Lander has returned from Australia. In 1860, there were 150 trunk manufactories in the country. Thursday was the grand opening day of fall fashions in New York. A group of six new houses in the Pennsylvania oil regions is called "Imperial City." Three bold men investigated the haunted church mystery at Jersey City and found that the doleful sounds proceeded from an imprisoned cur. The church had been left by the workmen in an unfinished state. Some "reformers" tried to get up a "World's Health Convention" in Boston the other day, and fizzled out to a baker's dozen. Not a very healthy sign for health reformers. A pretty accurate estimate of the defalcations of Edward B. Ketchum has now been arrived at, and it foots up the enormous amount of four million two hundred thousand dollars. A letter passed through the New York Post-office last week, from San Francisco for Dresden, Prussia, the postage upon which was $1.720 040. The Hartford Times says that when Secretary Welles was in that city last week "he did not hesitate to express his opinions as decidedly opposed to negro suffrage." There are numerous bank applications to be made United States depositories. But it is determined to have no more than one for each Congressional district. The Charleston News of the 16th says: "The thermometer in our office has been standing so long at 90 degrees, and there is at this time so little danger of its falling, that we have drawn the nail by which it was suspended." Two young Virginians, who were recently discharged from the Union army, returned to their homes in Green County, when they were informed that they would certainly be assassinated, if they remained, by ex-rebel soldiers. Mr Greeley says there was a majority of at least fifty professed radicals in the New York Republican Convention, but they had no adhesion or discipline, and so were seldom able to profit by their strength and allowed devotion to men to overbear attachment to principles. He calls the platform timid and wordy. The books of the Federal undertaker at Nashville, Tennessee, show that he has buried, since the Federal occupation of the city, 13,631 soldiers and Government employees (1,000 of the latter); also, 8,000 Confederate soldiers and 10,000 contrabands refugees. The President has either adopted a more liberal policy concerning pardons or has improved the method of passing upon them. The number issued within a week must greatly exceed that of any corresponding period of his administration. He has notified the Attorney General to send him no more applications at present. It is estimated that fully fifteen thousand are now in the White House awaiting his signature. Rear Admiral David D. Porter has assumed formal command of the Naval Academy, and active efforts are now being made to have everything ready by the first of October. The school ships Constitution and Santee are in an advanced state of preparation for the reception of the new class of midshipmen. The other vessels attached to the academy are the frigates Maedonian, Commander Fairfax; frigate Savannah, sloop-of-war Marion, double-ender Winnepeg, steamers Periwinkle, Mercury and Phlox, and yacht America. The Indian Commissioners have notified Secretary Harlan that they have ascertained that John Ross, the educated Cherokee, and formerly Chief of that Nation, was a Rebel emissary during the rebellion, and, by means of his superior education and adroitness, induced many of his people to abjure their allegiance to the United States, and to join the armies of the Confederate States. He still claims to be Chief of the Cherokees, and as such is using his subtle influence to poison the minds of those Indians who are truly loyal, and who are disposed to enter into a permanent peace and amity with the United States. The Commissioners have therefore refused to recognize him, and the President sustains them. Professor Lowe, who has been making short balloon ascensions from the New York Central Park, has in process of construction a bridal car, and announces that the next sensation will be the performance of the marriage ceremony in the clouds. The Pope is resolved to celebrate next year, at Rome, the eighteenth secular anniversary of the martyrdom of St. Peter, crucified A.D. 66. The Catholic bishops of the whole world are to be summoned to the canonization with which the celebration will begin, and the laity would also be invited were it not that some doubt has arisen as to the accommodations which can be furnished by the Eternal City. The Secretary of the Treasury has modified the instructions in relation to shipment of fire-arms and ammunition into the States lately in rebellion. Sporting guns and ammunition, therefore, and powder for mining purposes can be shipped on permits granted by a collector of customs without reference to the Department.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, SATURDAY, SEPT. 30, 1865. NO. 272

THE CITY.

YOM KIPPUR—THE JEWISH DAY OF ATONEMENT.—This day (the 30th of September) is the most solemn and sacred in the Jewish calendar. We are not aware that our Israelitish friends have a synagogue in this city, but whether organized in a body or not, those of their number here will doubtless "afflict their souls" after the custom or requirements of their creed, the soul by repentance and the body by fasting from "even to even." The origin and institution of Yom Kippur is to be found in Lev. xvi. 29. "And it shall be unto you a statute forever, in the seventh month on the tenth of the month, you shall afflict your souls and do no work at all," &c. "The first among your Sabbaths this shall be unto you," &c., and again in Lev. xxiv., which the reader may refer to. Whilst the Israelites in their own land worshipped at the altar of their temple, and in stoic accordance with the rites dictated by their God through Moses, the service of this day was equally splendid. It was the only day through the year on which even the high priest presumed to enter the most holy sanctuary of the temple, or to pronounce the venerated and dreaded name of the Deity, which, at any other time, it was unlawful even for him to utter. According to tradition, even before the giving of the Law, this was a day of atonement and pardon. Adam did penance and was pardoned on this day, Abraham entered into covenant of the circumcision on this day, Moses, after he had broken the first tablets, ascended the Mount again on the first day of Elul so that the second forty days expired with the Yom Kippur, on which day the Lord pardoned his people and revealed his thirteen attributes. The eve is allotted to solemn feasting, and at sunset the twenty-four hours fast and continued prayers commence. These prayers chiefly consist of confessions of sins and imploring divine mercy for pardon. It is customary in the evening for the parent to give his benediction to his children, with all the solemnity of his dying moments. Whosoever meet on this day, be they acquainted or not, salute each other with brotherly love and sincerity. All private disputes are reconciled before the parties can presume to enter the sanctuary on this day, and he that is conscious of having wronged his neighbor is bound to make reparation. At the close of the services one long note is sounded to commemorate the blowing of the trumpet, which formerly took place on this day in the land of Judea, in case that the year was a year of jubilee. ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—A party of gentlemen and some ladies, we regret to hear, were attacked on Thursday night, about our miles from the city, on the Pittsboro road. As the statement comes to us, they were coming to Raleigh to market and camped at the point mentioned. Ten or twelve negroes then approached and attacked them. They soon, however, obtained arms, when the negroes ran off. The assaulted party afterwards heard fire-arms a short distance above them, the darkies having discharged their guns without either showing themselves or giving any intimation of such a purpose. This and other recent transactions of a similar nature induce us to warn country folks from the bad habit of camping on the suburbs of the city. Besides, they should come prepared to summarily dispatch lawless bands whether white or black. But a short time can elapse before civil authority will be fully restored—until then they must protect themselves with the aid of the military. BOARD OF TRADE.—With what reason we have never been able to understand, but certain it is that inland towns and cities rarely ever organize boards of trade. We hope that the business men of Raleigh will, however, set a good example of reform in this matter by forming such an institution at once. A thorough knowledge of the productions, and the condition of mechanical industry in the country round about us will be of infinite advantage to the mercantile community. Indeed, in the absence of such statistics, it is almost impossible to see how merchants and tradesmen can make selections of their supplies with any considerable degree of intelligence. A FIXED FACT.—With their accustomed modesty, Maxon & Strong this morning salute the people by a partial enumeration of the new and really elegant goods just received from the North. The firm is a Strong one in more than one respect, adding to other qualities industry, enterprise, experience and politeness. Young in the trade here, they are old merchants of reputation and integrity, and we can confidently commend them to city and country patronage. Read their advertisement and then look for yourselves. DIRECT TRADE WITH EUROPE.—Messrs. Hughes & Dill, two of the most enterprising men in the State, announce in our advertising columns that they are freighting the fine ship Benj. Adams at Morehead City, direct for Liverpool. Certainly this bare mention will be ample to induce our people to send outward cotton, naval stores and other supplies adapted to the demands of foreign markets. Let us see to it that such enterprises are not withdrawn for want of full freightage. MONUMENTS, MANTLES, &c.—From their advertisement it will be seen that Messrs. King, Whitelaw & Co., have established themselves at the old stand of Maunder & Co., on Fayetteville street, and that they are prepared to furnish almost anything which can be fashioned from marble. They are experts in their business and will give prompt attention to all orders in their line.

WHO ARE ENTITLED.—It appears exceedingly difficult for freedmen to understand what classes of their number will be furnished transportation at expense of the government. Only such destitute refugees and freedmen as are dependent upon the United States for support are entitled, and then merely to such parties as are likely to find employment and become self supporting. The assistant commissioners are required to confine such grants to their particular jurisdictions. It will tend to lay an embargo on certain pestiferous individuals, now that only the regularly recognized teachers of the bureau are to be allowed free transportation. THE COLORED CONVENTION.—Agreeable to previous appointment, delegates representing colored men in a number of the counties of this State, assembled in Raleigh, yesterday, in the Methodist African Church. Their temporary organization was effected by calling John Good, of Craven, to the chair, and the appointment of John Randall and Geo. W. Price as Secretaries. Committees were then selected on credentials, rules for government of the convention, on permanent organization, &c., after which an adjournment to 2 o'clock, was moved and carried. During the afternoon permanent officers were reported as annexed: President—J. W. Hood, Newbern. Vice Presidents—J. P. Shanks, Charlotte, J. H. Harris, Raleigh; J. P. Sampson, Wilmington; Isam Sweet, Fayetteville; Wm. Smith, Wilmington; Stewart Ellison, Wake; and Sergeant Littleton, 1st N. C. Heavy artillery. Secretary—John Randolph, Jr., Newbern. Assistant Secretary—Wm. Cawthorn, Warren. Treasurer—J. K. Caswell, Wake. Chaplain—Alex. Bass, Wake. Doorkeepers—Lee Jasper and J. H. Jones. Other proceedings had are crowded out, but we hear from those who were present that no disorder or indecorum has been manifested since the session began. GOOD FOR MYNER.—Before the close of the war paints, in the South, were very scarce. A merchant in this city applied to Myner to paint him a sign. With great gravity, M heard the applicant through. His only reply was "a perverse and wicked generation seeketh after a sign, but they shall have no sign"—and left him to his meditation. The fact was, Myner had no paint. THE NATIONAL BANK.—located in this city,—went into operation on the 27th inst., last Wednesday, with George W. Swenson as president of the treasury.—The members of the board are Joseph S. Cannon vice president; Joseph W. Holden and C. P. Mendenhall. Our old friend W. B. Guick is the cashier—a most excellent selection. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Attention is asked to the new advertisements this morning: W. R. Price—Catarrh, consumption, scrofula, &c. James M. Harris—Private Boarding House. B. P. Williamson—Extra-Superfine Flour and Prime Havana Cigars. BURN.—An accident occurred at the gas house, Thursday evening, by which two young men Messrs. Willam and James King were slightly burnt about their faces and hands. Report had it that they were dreadfully injured, but we are glad to contradict it, as also the rumored hurt of a colored man. CITY HALL.—Those who are partial to such things as the science of self defence or sparring by professors of the art, dancing and the like, will not forget the exhibition at City Hall this evening.—See programmes. CALLED COURT.—There will be a session of the county court held here to-day, to transact important business. Belgium has been visited by a waterspout of extraordinary violence. It occurred in the neighborhood of Liege, and has spread ruin far and wide.—The accompanying gale caught people up in the air and dashed them to the ground, out off the tops of some large trees, and felled many other trees to the ground, stopped railway trains and overthrew houses, and was attended by thunder and floods of rain.—Altogether it was one of the most disastrous storms that has ever visited the country. The National Equal Rights League assembled in annual meeting in Cleveland, Ohio, last week.—About one hundred and fifty delegates were present, comprising representatives from Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee, New York, Michigan, New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, Pennsylvania and other States.—The meeting was largely attended by colored men in the South. The main purpose of the Equal Rights League is to secure for the colored people of this country equality before State and national law. LONE TRAILS AGAIN.—A letter from a fashionable watering place says: "The long trails are seen again, with the general cry of 'stand firm under.' Between the length and circumference of the dresses one is appalled in attempting to thread his way through the ball room. The Oretan labyrinth was nothing to some of the Parisienne innovations. But it is idle to deny that there is grace and elegance, as well as magnificence, in all these grand displays, and the sparkling jewels upon fair arms and fingers of course add greatly to the attraction. Increased cost, increased taxes, with petroleum down and gold up, with diminished incomes and business, only revive the old faith that one half the people wonder and study how the other half live."

MARRIED. At Exeter, Wake County, on Thursday morning, the 28th instant, by the Rev. Stinson Ivey, WILLIAM H. BURROUGHS, Esq., of Orange County, to Miss CORNELIA LEWIS LOUGEE, eldest daughter of the late William J. Lougee. DIED. In Portsmouth, Va., on the 18th inst., suddenly and of an attack very like cholera. THOMAS D. DEANS, Esq., aged 66 years and 6 months. It too frequently happens that fulsome eulogy follows the death of men whose lives were not distinguished by any conspicuous excellence. The writer of this, however, believes that few men have deserved higher commendation than Mr. D. for exemplary and genuine piety. He appeared to strive to model all his conduct—in the family, the church and society—upon a basis rigidly biblical. It is no marvel, therefore, that such an obituary should have enjoyed unqualified approval from the community among whom he resided; and the love and trust of the church with which he in early youth formed an association. He was really a good man and has inherited an eternity of bliss in that "sun-bright clime" where the just are made perfect. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
