

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, TUESDAY, OCT. 3, 1865. NO. 274

STATE CONVENTION.

At an informal meeting of the members of the Convention held at 10 o'clock...

The Convention was called to order by Hon Lewis Thompson...

The roll of the Convention was called, and the committee reported the following as present with proper credentials...

Adams, Alexander, Allen, Bauns, Baker, Barrow, Beam, Bell, Berry...

On the motion of Mr. Moore, of Wake, a committee of three be appointed to examine the credentials of members elect and take their names...

The roll being called, the members came forward and were duly sworn...

The roll being called, the members came forward and were duly sworn. Mr. Boyden nominated Hon. E. G. Reade for President of the Convention...

No other nomination being made, Judge Reade was unanimously elected and conducted to the Chair by Messrs. Dockery and Boyden.

The President then proceeded to address the Convention as follows: Gentlemen of the Convention...

As the representatives of the people of North Carolina, we are assembled at a time of great perplexity to organize the government which has been disturbed by a protracted and disastrous war.

It is gratifying to know that a virtuous and intelligent people have chosen a body eminent distinguished for abilities of such experience and exalted patriotism...

As the interests of our constituents are the same, it is to be hoped there will be little conflict of opinion among us, and that frank speech and courteous manners will distinguish our intercourse...

Fellow Citizens: we are going home, led painful reflections upon our late separation and pleasant memories of our early Union quicken our footsteps towards the old mansion, that we may grasp hard against the hand of friendship which stands at the door...

Mr. Moore moved that the Convention go into the session of Principal Clerk, and nominated for that position James H. Moore, Esq. of Halifax.

Agreed to, and Mr. Moore was unanimously elected. Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, nominated Mr. K. C. Badger as Assistant Clerk, and there being no other nomination, he was elected by acclamation.

The Convention then proceeded to complete its organization by the election of Doorkeepers. Mr. Grisson nominated Mr. P. McGowan, of Wake, Mr. G. Buck, Mr. H. B. Kingsbury, of Tyrrell, and Mr. Moore, of Wake, Mr. Mark Williams, of Wake.

Agreed to, and Mr. Moore was unanimously elected. Mr. Caldwell, of Burke, nominated Mr. K. C. Badger as Assistant Clerk, and there being no other nomination, he was elected by acclamation.

Mr. G. Buck, of Tyrrell, and Mr. Moore, of Wake, were elected Doorkeepers. Mr. McGowan, of Wake, was elected Secretary, and Mr. Williams, of Tyrrell, and Mr. Williams, of Tyrrell.

Mr. Hill received 55, Mr. Keenan 21, and Mr. Boyden 24 votes. Mr. Moore moved that a committee of seven be appointed to prepare rules of order for the Convention...

Mr. G. Buck, of Tyrrell, and Mr. Moore, of Wake, were elected Doorkeepers. Mr. McGowan, of Wake, was elected Secretary, and Mr. Williams, of Tyrrell, and Mr. Williams, of Tyrrell.

The Chairman announced to the committee on rules, Messrs. Mubane, Thompson, Boyden, Phillips, Gilliam, and Johnston and Manly.

On the motion of Mr. Wilson, the Convention adjourned Tuesday 10 o'clock.

A letter was recently addressed by some of the citizens of Charlottesville, Va., to President Johnson, pointing out the difficulties which surround them in relation to the approaching Congressional election...

It is our duty to sustain him and his policy in the administration of the Government. The Attorney-General in the letter, was referred, replies that he was instructed by the President to say he has no more means of doing what Congress may do in regard to the oath...

The Correspondent of the "Banner," writes of the termination of the American war every ship which arrives off Cork harbor on her homeward voyage from New York and Boston, lands on these shores large numbers of young men who had served in the Republican Army...

It is our duty to sustain him and his policy in the administration of the Government. The Attorney-General in the letter, was referred, replies that he was instructed by the President to say he has no more means of doing what Congress may do in regard to the oath...

FREEDMEN'S CONVENTION.

The session of this body yesterday was in some respects very interesting. At 9 o'clock a. m., the President called the convention to order...

The Secretary then read the minutes of Saturday's proceedings, which were adopted. The remainder of the morning was consumed in considering and disposing of various propositions and addresses in behalf of the education of freedmen...

Other important business was transacted, when the convention adjourned on 2 1/2 o'clock.

At the appointed hour, the Convention was called to order and opened with prayer by the chaplain. Various addresses were then made by members from different counties of the State...

To the Constitutional Convention of North Carolina and Legislature to assemble thereafter: Assembled as delegates from different portions of the State of North Carolina...

Earnestly disclaiming all wish to forestall your action or to dictate in the solemn and important duties which have been intrusted to you, at this most critical period, and confiding in your justice, wisdom and patriotism...

It is with reverent and grateful acknowledgment of the Divine power and interposition, that we accept the precious boon of freedom, resulting as it has from a prolonged and sanguinary struggle between two great powers...

Through it was impossible for us to remain indifferent spectators of such a struggle, you will do us the justice to admit that we have remained throughout obedient and passive, acting such part only as has been assigned us, and calmly awaiting upon Providence...

Just emerging from bondage, under which our race has groaned for two hundred and fifty years, and suffering from its consequent degradation, we are fully conscious that we possess no power to control legislation in our behalf...

Born upon the same soil, and brought up in an intimacy of relationship unknown to any other state of society, we have formed attachments for the white race which must be as enduring as life...

Filled with gratitude to God for His great blessing, we would bury in oblivion the wrongs of the past, and wish to become more united, as well as more useful and honorable in our sphere of life.

We are fully conscious that we cannot long expect the presence of government agents, or of the troops, to secure us against evil treatment from a rascally and prejudiced, and unjust men...

We know we must find, both at home and among the people of our own State, and merit them by our industry, sobriety and respectful demeanor...

THE CITY.

SOMETHING FOR IDLE HANDS TO DO.—We are glad to observe that vagrancy and idleness are in no measure to be encouraged among the negroes by the Government...

It is gratifying to hear that the same policy will be pursued throughout this district. While Gen. Ruger and Col. Whittlesey will see that the freedmen have their rights...

CHILDREN'S DRESSES.—Dress Fashion has given more than her usual attention to the clothing of children this season. The prettiest dresses we have yet seen for little girls...

A NEW PAPER.—The first number of the Journal of Freedom has been laid on our table. It is published weekly in this city by Messrs. Brooks & Crane...

IMPORTANT TO MINISTERS.—Ministers of the gospel are required by law to affix a five cent revenue stamp to each certificate of marriage they may return to the clerk's office...

HORACE NOT IN TOWN.—A report was very generally circulated on the streets late yesterday evening, that the "white hat" philosopher of the New York Tribune, had arrived in the city by the O. S. train...

ADDRESS TO THE FREEDMEN.—We understand that Col. Whittlesey, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, in this city, made an address to the delegates to the convention at evening...

THE TRUTH IS, THE ADDRESS OF THE COMMITTEE WHICH WE publish this morning embodies the general spirit of the speech. We are pleased to see the respectful tone with which they approach the State Convention and kindly wishes expressed for their former masters...

THE YARBOROUGH SALOON.—The engineer of which establishment is "ZOLA'S", of high reputation as a mixer of steely sherry cobbler and other royal drinks...

QUEER CLAIM.—We saw a person in the city, yesterday, from Charlotte, addressing a crowd upon one of the street corners and insisting that he was a delegate from Mecklenburg upon the basis of two barrels of apples...

WHAT NEXT.—A drink called the Pulli-ga-roo has been started in this city. The inventor is a Russian, who as a connoisseur in beverages, has a reputation equal to that of Boyer in the matter of estates.

HOOD'S MATCHLESS "Song of the Shirt" made him famous, but KINSEY is making an equal reputation by the sale of that article, linen and woolen, which fit to a t.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We have only time to invite attention generally to our new advertisements. They show the very age and body of the times throughout the State.
