STATE CONVENTION.

THURSDAY, Oct. 12.

The Convention met at 10 o'clock. Prayer by Rev. Henry Hardie, of the Presbyterian Church.

The journal of yesterday having been read and approved,

Mr. Henry reported an ordinance on the basis of representation. Mr. Ellis, from the committee on resolution of thanks to President Johnson, reported back the resolution with the following amendment and recommending its passage: Strike out all after the word "assembled" in the first resolution and insert "That the administration of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, has been eminently national and conservative, embracing every section of the Republic, and that he is entitled to the gratitude of the people of the State for the manifesta. tion of his purpose to secure to them at as early day as practicable, the rest ration of their constitutional rights in the Union; and that W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina, deserves our thanks for his zea ous and faithful labors to the same end.

Resolved. That copies of the above resolution be submitted by the President of the Convention to President Johnson and Gov. Holden.

Mr. Jones, of Rowan, introduced a resolution that henceforth the convention will hald evening sessions, meeting at 7 o'clock, p. m; also that the Convention adjo rn on - inst., to meet again on the second Monday in May next.

Mr. Walkup offered a reso ution that a committee, to consist of seven -one from each congressional district in the State-be appointed to take into consideration the propriety of memorializing the Congress of the United States for the removal from this State of all free persons of color, or any part of them, and especially of those persons lately held as slaves, but now emancipated; and that they report the result of their deliberations for the action of this convention

Mr. Jones of Henderson, presented a resolution in favor of the citizens of this State, honorably discharged from the Unite I States army, being a lowed to vote in the November election, if otherwise qualified, without exhibiting certificate of their havng taken the amnesty outh.

Henry offered an ordinance concerning the election in November next. [Its provisions are identical with those embraced in Mr. Jones' prop-

Also, a resolution with respect to the incomplete internal improve ments of the State, declaring that the Legislature should furnish from time to time such appropriations of money as will secure the completion of the system of railroad improvement west to the Tennessee lin, in so far as may be compatible with the res ources of the State, &c.

Mr. McRae moved that the convention take up for consideration the resolution introduced by him in relation to the per diem and mileage of members of the convention.

The motion prevailed and the resolution was adopted, pursuant to which the President appointed the following committee on the subject : Messrs. McRae, Lyon, Moore, of Chatham, Houry and Walkup.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS. The Convention then proceeded to consider the' ordinance recognizing the just debts of North Carolina, and prohibiting the payment of all public liabi ities created or incurred in aid of the rebellion.

on its second reading. A lengthy and animated debate was here evoked. in which Messrs. Moore, of Wake, Winston, Conig land, McKay, and others participated. During its progress, Mr. Moore, of Wake, proposed an amendment to the original proposition, contempla ing the payment of certain debts and leaving it discretionary with the legislatures after 1877, to provide or not for the excepted claims-but this with the special proviso that the convention should not be understood as approving the la ter class of claims.

Before the debate was closed and a vote had been reached, the convention adjourned over till 10 o'clock to morrow.

A Strange Statement - How William L. Yancey Met his Death.

As you enter the cemetery at Montgomery and urn to the right you will perceive a colonnade of naple trees leading off to a quiet glan. Beyond is a rassy knoll, and leaving this to the left you will aproach a pleasent level of greensward. Here you will tempted to pause before a plain slab of white mare of the most humble description. It bears a sin-e inscription: "William L. Yancey." His last ords were : "Put me out of sight," and it is said hat he was constantly muttering, towards his latter end, those lines of Pope:

"Let me live unseen, unknown, And unlamented let me die-. Nor mound, nor monument, nor stone, Tell where I lie."

His death was quiet and painless, after a year of acute physical and mental suff ring. H; was a strict churchman; a man of quiet manners; a handsome declaimer, and a fair scholar. He was never wealthy, and it is understood that he left his family without an independence

The time has come when the circumstances of his last illness and death, with the occasion which suddenly convulsed a frame from perfect health into a wreck, and mere shadow, may be mentioned as a historical fact. William L. Yancey came to his end by violence. It was toward the close of the second session of the first Confederate Congress, that he broke from the counsels and influence of Mr. Davis; the opposition. Mr. Ben. Hill, a senator from Georgia, had likewise changed his front, and was remarkable for the earnestness, personal interest and persistency with which he sustained the measures of an administration to which his allegiance had been given out late in the day. Mr. Yancey, it will be remembered, had returned from an unsuccessful mission to Europe, and was representing Alabama in the Confederate Senate.

The question of a navy was under discussion in secret session. The debate ranged beyond the parliamentary limits, and Messrs. Yancey and Hill became animated over the abstract doctrines of state rights and the divinity of slavery. High words passed, and finally the lie was given by Mr. Hill -Mr. Yancey leaped forward, and as he aimed a blow at his adversary, was caught in the arms of the latter and violently thrown back over a desk. Mr. Hill is a man of wonderfui muscular development. Mr. Yancey was never very heavy, though lithe and active. In the fall his spine was seriously injured, and when the bystanders rushed upon the two and dragged the one from the other, the great fire-eater lay unconscious upon the floor, with a little trickle of blood obzing from his lips. He was carried to his hotel; a vote of secrecy was passed, and the eucounter hushed up. No one in Richmond except that body of men knew of the circumstances for six months after. Meanwhile the victim did not recover. He drooped from day to day. He became listless, hopeless and vacant. He was transferred to his own nome, where his convulsions ceased a few weeks before his death, which was tranquil and calm .- Nashville Republican Banner.

Three murders were committed in Philadelphia within less than 24 hours, last week.

THE EARTHQUAKE IN CALIFORNIA .- A telegram dated at San Francisco, Oct. 9, says:

The damage by the earthquake vesterday will amount to considerable, many houses needing new walls, new pla-toring, and repairing.

The City Hall is damaged is the iront wall to such an extent that a portion must be rebuilt, at a cost of several thousand dollars. The old Merchants' Exchange building, opposite the Custom House, will probably require rebuilding.

Santa Cruz felt the shock more severely than any other town in the State.

The motion was apparently from east to west .-The ground along the river opened in fissures and sponted water like the Geysers of Iceland. The people are unable to use some of their wells, which are either dry or filled with sand. The tide rose very high at the time of the shock, and fell very low immediately afterwards. Ten or eleven distinct shocks were felt since the first shock up to five a. m. to-day. The estimated losses will amount to $10,000, and may exceed that sum.

We fear the revereud gentleman who fills the Executive chair of Tennessee is about to fall from grace. Hear what the Tribune says of him :

Brownlow would make a pretty mess of Tennessec. He would disfranchise all the small rebels, hang all the leaders, and banish the negroes. This would leave about four thousand men to do all the voting, hold all the offices and vote. Brownlow would be sure of reelection for the next ten years.

A STRIKE AND IT'S CONSEQUENCES -The Norfolk Day Book is reliably informed, that the michanics emulated on two steamships in Baltimore a few days siuce, "struck" for higher wages, and that the steamers are to be brought to Portsmouth and repaired under the superintendence of John L. Porter, Esq., late Naval Constructor in the C. S. and U. S. na-

MISSISSIPPI.-Election returns form Mississippi no longer leave a doubt as to the election of Gen. Humphreys as Governor of the State. His opponent, Judge Fisher, has declared his intention of urging upon the President his immediate pardon. It is thought by many that Gov. Starkey's opinion that the action of the State Convention conferred n negroes the right of giving testimony in courts of justice, will defeat him for the United States Senate.

Two negroes sentenced to be hung for murder, and on their way to the Nashville penitentiary, were taken from the sheriff who had them in charge at Bowling Green, on the 9th, by some negro soldiers.

> BURNING OF THE MUSEUM! LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM! NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Mosere. Herring & Co.: GENTLEMEN-Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire. After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire Proof Safes.

Truly yours, P. T. BARNUM,

THE CITY.

SPEECHIFICATION LAST NIGHT .- Gen. Howard the chief of the Freedman's Bureau at Washington, met the members of the State Convention and a large assemblage of citizens, in the hall of the House of Commons, last night, to confer and take counsel of each other as to the present and future of the colored people in North Carolina. We have no room for an extended notice of the affair in this issue. Gen. Howard expressed the opinion that it was best for the State authorities and the Bureau to co operate for the present in the care of the blacks, but assured the assembly that as soon as civil law should be restored throughout the State and our people were prepared to accept the care and charge of them-to give them such protection under the laws as they were entitled to and take care of the paupers-the government, would with draw all interference in the matter. He was anxious to see reorganization accomplished as early as possible and the Union presented as a harmonious body of States, each one controlling their particular domestic concerns.

We may give a more extended report of the con vocation hereafter.

More Light -The gas works of the city, since the induction of Mr. James King into the superintendency, have been managed with praiseworthy regularity. We do not remember any failure in the matter of light since his accession to place; but cannot something better be done in point of duration of light. At present, we believe gas is supplied until midnight-after that hour families, express companies, hotels, depots, printing offices, apothecaries and "the rest of mankind" are in the dark or left to the tallow dip, poetically recognized as "the light of other days." We ask for amendment in such respect so that we may have light all night, or if nothing better, until two o'clock. We suppose it would pay the proprietors, Messrs. Waterhouse & Bowles, who are enterprising gentlemen and public spirited enough to undertake any matter in which the citizens will sustain them.

Point second. Cannot the streets be lighted and at once? If it be argued that the financial condition of the city forbids such an expenditure, we hazard the epicion that no citizen with a grain of local pride would object to a levy of a few cents in behalf of such an object. Away, then, with this Egyptian darkness, and let us remember the century in which we live and that Raleigh is not a benighted village.

RABE SIGHT .- Time was in the south when the highest offence against society was to affront a lady. Those were chivalric days, in which the lex loci of every community applied with equal rigor to bleached and unbleached denizens. We were glad to see the custom revived yesterday by a citizen. A burly freedman, named Ned Jones, a squatter sovereign from Newbern, presumed upon his new estate so far as to call a lady a liar. Old cit, with brass coat and blue buttons, heard the rascal use the epithet, when he proceeded to use his fists dexterously. The son of Ham, finding hunself the stronger party, merely parri d the blows of the attacking force. At the height of the contest a Federal officer came up and learning how matters stood, joined in the assault and the saucy rascal received a sound thrashing.

We are glad of this transaction, not because the negro was beaten, but for the reason that it shows an unmistakeable determination that insolence to ladies is not to go unpunished, whatever the circumstances of the country.

"NAMELESS"-Messrs. Wm. B. Smith & Co., the publishers who have this forthcoming book by Mrs. Downing in press, request us to state that its publication has been unavoidably delayed by their usual supplies of paper being cut short. Tois was caused in consequence of the operations at the mills in Raleigh and New York being seriously interfered with by the drought.

We are gratified to know, however, that they have at last obtained paper with which to start their presses on "Nameless" and that this really charming volume will be completed in a very few days. Having seen the manuscript, we speak advisedly in saying that the book cannot fail of creating a sensation in the literary world: besides it will be a brilliant commencement in behalf of and contribution to Southern literature.

RYAN, the great jigist, whose challenge to the world in that department of dancing stands unaccepted in the New York Clipper, advertises to appear at Market Hall this evening. He will be aid. ed by Lou Morrill, who is said to have few equals at piano or on harp; Geo Brennan, a good vocalist; and we presume other stars. They promise the votaries of music and terpsichorean arts a rich treat, and the best plan is to go and then render a verdict.

NOT TRIPLETTS-JUST ONE TOO MANY .- We find it announced in yesterday's Standard that a lady of this city has given birth to tripletts. We regret to state that there is a slight error in the count -a duet, gentlemen, not a trio, and Myner, not major music. It was at arst thought to be natural scale. Thus the work of rehabilitation goes on and at this rate tho next census will show that the old State has made rapid progress in population.

IN THE FIELD .- It will be seen by announcement elsewhere that Maj. Willie D. Jones is in the field as a candidate for the Senate from Wake at the coming election.

THE COLORED POPULATION OF RALEIGH AND THEIR PROSPECTS -We have recently made some very plain and pointed suggestions with respect to the colored population of Raleigh and its vicinity. We are pleased to hear from some of the most intelligent of their number that our motives are properly appreciated. The approach of winter makes us solicitous for every shade of our population, especially under present circumstances, and unless improvidence can be checked, and a new spirit of industry stimulated, nothing but a miracle will prevent either starvation or extensive criminality. The government and christian commission have suspended their operations, and thus considerable help to the blacks is withdrawn. But if they will all work-as large bodies of them, we are glad, are doing-they will not only place themselves beyond the harm of cold and hunger, but commend themselves to the confidence and respect of white people.

It is not wise to disguise the truth; we tell them plainy, and without any reserve, that their own energies and own hands must supply their wants during the coming winter and season of hard necessities. It will be dim. cult for white people with employment to stand out against the siege which winter will lay at their doors .-How much harder will it be for the colored race, without money We shudder at the recital of such things but we think we are doing nothing more than our duty in lifting the curtain which conceals the future If those who n we address are so blind or so infatuated as not to heed our advice, then the responsibility for their calamities will be upon their own heads. We warn them solemnly, and with a mind devoid of all prejudice.

Besides all this, as they appear chiefly desirous of winning upon the kindly feelings of the white population, nothing will contribute so much in that direction as exhibitions of industry, honesty, and a cheerful disposition at self-maintenance. Rely upon it, you will either make or unmake yourself in the next twelve months. Up, then, and werk with a will. It will do more to elevate your race than all the resolutions that can be put on paper in a handred years.

COLORED TROOPS.—The 107th and not the 10th regimeat of colored troops, left here Tuesday for home. We hear that only a single regiment of that complexion is to be retained in this State after the close of Otcober, and it is pr bable they will remain until January, when it is thought the last vestige of military presence will di-a psar.

PERSONAL - Maj Gen O. O. Howard, Commissioner of the bureau of freedmen, abandoned lands and refugees, reached the city yesterday and left this morning for Goldsboro, Wilmington and New

New ADS. - We ask our readers to look over the new advertisements. Smith & Co., have novelties in the way of mental provender, while B. P. Richardson & Co. have things stomachical of a choice kind. We know what we affirm .

Going.-Capt. Wm. H. Barlow and the attaches of his office, heretofore on duty at Morehead City, having been relieved from service at that point, left here this morning for Jacksonville, Fla.
