THE CITY.

THE CARNIVAL-A BUDGET OF CRIMINALITIES.-Like all other wars, our own has left us a great variety and number of criminals. We have in and around Raleigh our full apportionment of every hue as to complexion of both skin and crime, from the cut threat to the garden thief. Within a few weeks past we have recorded half a dozen instances of murderous assaults upon unoffending citizens; of less aggravated offences there is no end; but we have now to mention that several attempts have been made, within a week past, to rob the wagons of the Southern express company between the depot of the North Carolna railroad and their office on Fayetteville street. On one of these occasions the negro driver was knocked from the wagon, the foot of one of the mules cut off, and an effort made to capture one of the boxes. But the express company is able to take care of the property entrusted to their custody and the villians were disappointed. Such arrangements have been made since this occurrence as not only to guard against lossage, but arrest the parties who may engage in the raid.

And still another is the case of Richard Thompson, a very worthy and industrious colored man. He was attacked while on his way home the other night, between 10 and 11 o'clock, by a crowd of desperadoes, who approached, halted him and essayed to levy on a pair of shoes he had purchased. With prudence which cur people generally might imitate, Dick had an open knife in his hand, and as one of the rascals seized and sought to detain him, he gashed the assailant across his cheek, which made him relinquish his hold instantly. Here T.'s topographical knowledge was of immense value to him in eluding his pursuers. He made his way home without again seeing or being seen by these gentry of the road-side. The attack was made at the intersection of Fayetteville with the street leading to the depot.

These are a few of the incidents of the past week and like affairs will doubtless have to be chronicled before the close of this one. We see no prospect of mending the morals of the city unless those who are entrusted with its legislation add to its police force. Perhaps a systematic plan to way-lay each of the commissioners would quicken their sense as to the propriety of the suggestion made above.

Our friends in the country, too, must arouse themselves and organize an independent, unpaid system of neighborhood patrols. In this way only can they hope for protection at present. Let them organize at once.

FOR THE LADIES .- On coming to the paragraphs, from a fashion article in Le Follet, gentlemen are warned to shut their eyes. It is none of their business, unless, indeed, they are preachers or editors. Here they are, ladies, for your and our in-

"Stripes are much in favor, either for petticoats, dresses or cloaks. We have seen two or three very pretty striped canotieres with sleeves, and either with or without hoods; they are preferable without the latter, as a hood, if made in a striped material, destroys the correct line.

"The prettiest petticoats we have seen are made of a white woolen material, very durable and soft, with bands of color. One, with which we were much pleased, had a violet band about four inches wide, about three inches above the hem. This band was embroidered in vine leaves and grapes; the leaves were of white silk, and the grapes formed by bunches of small white buttons. These petticoats should seldom be more than four yards round, as they are rather heavy, and, if hanging in folds, would spoil the shape of the crinoline and the set of the dress. The most useful petticoats are the white, trimmed with black, as they can be worn with any color. We have seen one pretty skirt of this kind. It had a small flounce, edged at each extremity with black velvet. This flounce is put on in alternate plats and spaces; a black velvet of an iuch wide hangs with a button in each space. Above the flounce is a trellis-work of narrow black velvet, with a round velvet button in each dia nond.'

THE RIGHT COURSE.—We were gratified to learn, last evening, of the purpose of one of our best citizens to attempt the organization of a building association in our midst-that is, unless it is the settled purpose of property-holders by extortion to crush enterprise and the present fair prospects of the city for quadrupling its population as shown by the last census. If those who own houses or lands can be induced to take a true view of their permanent and substantial interests, they cannot but realize that they are to be won by a liberal rather than an exacting spirit. We beg them to reflect seriously on the subject.

Tournament .- The managers have our thanks for an invitation to a Tournament and Ball, to come off in the fair grounds, at Henderson, to-morrow. If business engagements did not forbid, we could find much pleasure in a visit to that hospitable section. We wish the management and all who are fortunate enough to be present much joy.

LEWIS HANES, former private secretary to the Governor, having resigned, W. R. Richardson has been appointed to that position. Mr. R. is a gentleman of fine intelligence and first rate business talent, and will no doubt discharge the duties of the office in a satisfactory manner.

ELECTION TICKETS. - Candidates can get supplied with tickets for the approaching election, promptly, by leaving their orders at the Progress office, price one dollar per thousand. When orders are sent by mail, money must accompany them.

J. N., the philosopher, is in town again. He has a good deal of wind about him, but we don't know how he raises it.

SOLDIER SHOT .- About So'clock last night, a negro man in the employ of Mr. J. L. Pennington discovered some one in the potato patch of that gentleman and fired upon him. The result was that the discharge took effect in the head of a soldier named Honeycut. We are informed that the wound is a band one and may result fatally.

The negro was arrested and lodged in the guard house, but we hear that Col. Kise, to whose regiment Honeycutt belong, upon hearing of the affair, called at the Provost Marshal's office to secure the release of the freedman. Whether or not he succeeded, one thing is certain: he thinks there is no reason why Honevcutt should be commiserated, as he is preeminently distinguished for roguery all through his command.

THE CIRCULATION of the PROGRESS, in city and country, is equal to that of any other paper in the State, and we shall enlarge our dimensions so as to give the business public a still better medium for advertising their business.

Besides, we shall issue our weekly as soon as practicable and intend to make it worthy of the age as a news and family paper. In the meantime, our friends at a distance can be supplied with the daily regularly, tri-weekly or otherwise.

GRAND LODGE OF N. C .- The grand secretary of the Grand Lodge of Masons for North Carolina, gives notice this morning of the next session being held here on the 4th of December next. The fraternity will doubtless have a good time after disposing of the important business which must come

On Dirs .- Among the rumors on the streets last evening were the following: Mr. Worth would publish a letter this morning, announcing himself a candidate for Governor; Hon. Josiah Turner would proclaim himself a candidate for Congress in the 5th and Lewis Hanes, Esq, for a like honor in the 6th district-both to run on the Worth ticket.

[COMMUNICATED.]

TO THE PEOPLE OF WAKE COUNTY. MR. PENNINGTON :- As the election for members of the Legislature has been fixed for the second Thurs day of next month, allow me to recommend two of the truest patriots to the Union cause who ever lived. North or South. I mean A. Frank Page and Calvin Rogers, Esqs. They are both farmers and both men of strong, practical sense. They are not, as some may say, half Union and the other half secessionist; half Vance and another half Holden, and don't know which is the best ; but they are men who know what is best for the State : Union and Liberty. They have always been faithful to such principles Besides, they are both like the rest of the country people, sustained great lossages by large armies, and now hey know precisely what the poo class of people need; and it they should run for seats in the Legislature, I shall vote for them. and I earnestly rec ommend every tarmer, every Union soul, and everybody A COUNTRYMAN. to tollow my example.

THE STATE PRESS AND THE GOVERNORSHIP .- The Charlotte Democrat of the 17th says:

A correspondent writes us inquiring if we are doing anything up here in regard to running a candidate tor Governor. We have heard of no regular movement for running opposition to Gov. Holden. The advice we have uniformly given is, to have no contest in the State over the Governor's election. Taking all the circumstances into consideration, we think it would be best to continue Gov. Holden in office, believing that he will be able to do as much, if not more, for us as a people, than any other man at the present time. No matter how much we may have differed with Gov. Holden and others heretolore, we think it our duty now to support the man who can navigate us out of present difficulties the best and quickest. Therefore, we repeat, we hope there will be no contest for Governor, and that Mr. Holden will be elected without opposition.

Since writing the above we see that correspondents of the Raleigh Sentinel suggest the name of Jonathan Worth as a candidate for Governor.
