

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOV. 17, 1865. NO. 313.

Reception and Views of Gen. Grant.

New York, Nov. 16.—The Union League of this city have given Lieut. Gen. U. S. Grant a grand reception. He was welcomed at the headquarters of the League last night by one of the Vice Presidents of the organization, Mr. Beckman, who alluded to the foul wrong practiced by the French invasion of Mexico, and insisted that the United States could not honorably do less than apply a remedy by timely enforcement of the Monroe doctrine.

Good News—Hon. Bedford Elected Over Hanes by Ninety-Six Votes.

The following special despatch reached us last night, which enables us to announce that Lewis Hanes, whose ingratitude to Governor Holden is most unaccountable, has been beaten in the Fifth Congressional District by that sterling patriot, Hon. Bedford Brown:

GREENSBORO, Nov. 16.

The official vote of this Congressional District being compared here to-day, the footing up showed that Bedford Brown was elected over Lewis Hanes by ninety-six votes.

Important Decision.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 15.—A Springfield despatch states that Judges Davis and Hewfield have made a decision in the case of the claimants of one thousand bales of cotton, residing in New Orleans, Cincinnati and Havre, dismissing all the claims on the ground of the incapacity of the parties to purchase in insurrectionary districts.

Great Fire in Maine.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 16th.—A fire in West Baxter, Maine, this morning, destroyed Hall's woollen mills, Lord's saw mills, and House & Bryant's grocery store. Loss probably about $100,000. The fire originated from a kerosene lamp.

Dr. Tyng's Church in New York Burned.

New York, Nov. 16.—Dr. Tyng's church has been destroyed by fire.

SECOND DESPATCH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—The loss by the destruction of Dr. Tyng's church is about $300,000, on which there is an insurance of $70,000. The walls and towers are still standing.

Latest From Jamaica.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Late Jamaica advices received in this city confirm the previous rumor that the rebellion in Jamaica had been crushed. Several of the leaders of the insurrection have been condemned to death, including the chief in the affair, Gordon.

From New Orleans.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Letters from New Orleans state that since the receipt of despatch there from the Rio Grande, there has been unusual activity in military circles. New regiments of U. S. Cavalry have been ordered to report for duty at San Antonio, Texas, without delay.

Pardoned.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—Gen. A. E. Jackson, of the late Confederate army, has been pardoned by the President to-day.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Cotton firm, at 60a95c; turpentine dull, at $1.10a1.15; rosin dull at $7.25a7.50.

Colorado Election—Democratic Triumph.

DENVER CITY, October 28.—The enclosed is a transcript of the official vote. The Democrats will probably have the Legislature and the Congressmen, with the entire State ticket. The official canvass of the vote on the adoption or rejection of the State Constitution shows:

For Constitution,	3,025
Against Constitution,	2,870
Majority for Constitution,	155

The question of negro suffrage was presented at the same time, with the following result:

For negro suffrage,	496
Against negro suffrage,	4,172
Majority against,	3,714

Caucus of Republican Members of Congress.

It is stated that a number of the Republican members of Congress and outside politicians held a caucus at the Astor House, New York, on Saturday evening, and pledged themselves to the policy of excluding every Southern applicant for a seat in Congress that cannot take the test oath. Governor Fenton, according to the correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, is said to have suggested, as a solution of the difficulty, that Congress organize without the Southern members; then, if deemed expedient, proceed at once to so modify the test oath as to enable the applicants to take their seats with a clear conscience; but the meeting was not prepared to go that length, rather preferring to the present to back up Mr. Clerk McPherson in omitting the Southern States from the roll-call, and trusting to subsequent events for their admission on conditions that will be acceptable.

Debt of the Southern States.

A statement of the Southern States (legal) debts prior to the war places them at one hundred and fifty millions. The most of these bonds are held in Europe, and the prospect of payment, even of the interest, is small indeed. Of these bonds $20,000,000 belong to Mississippi, $9,000,000 to North Carolina, $5,500,000 to Louisiana, and $56,000,000 to Virginia.

—Dr. Walker, Superintendent of the Lunatic Asylum at South Boston, Massachusetts, is up before a committee of the alderman of Boston, charged by Oliver Frost, Esq., with causing the death of his son by ill-treatment while he was in the asylum.

HENRY WIRZ.

The effects of the late Henry Wirz were yesterday afternoon sent to his wife, in Kentucky, by his counsel, Mr. Schade. They consisted of a book entitled "Meditations on Life and its Religious Duties," with this inscription on the fly-leaf: "To my dear children, Susan and Cornelia, from their father, H. Wirz, Washington, D. C., November 10, 1865." Next was a copy of the New Testament, which contained the following inscription: "November 10, 1865, to Cora, from her father, H. Wirz." Also, a volume entitled, "A Kempis, A Treatise on Christ. To my dearest child, Cora, from her father, Washington, November 10, 1865." There was also a Bible given to Wirz, on the fly-leaf of which was this inscription: Presented to Carroll Prison, room twenty-nine, for the use of the prisoners. Not to be taken from the prison. Washington, D. C., December 18, 1864. "Search the Scriptures." Under this Wirz had written as follows: "My dear wife, this Bible I read to where you see the marks, where I left off reading. God bless you. Keep this Bible to remember me. H. Wirz, November 10, 1865." In the package there were also two letters, one addressed to his wife, and one to his father, Abraham Wirz, who was living when his son left Switzerland.

Disposition of Naval Vessels.

The Navy Department have concluded to divide up such vessels as it is necessary to keep in the service into small squadrons and locate them upon the various seaports on both the Atlantic and Pacific Coasts, this policy being better than to allow them to be huddled together and fall into disuse at the Navy Yard. Out of this has grown the absurd story that our government were looking out for an immediate foreign war.

—Edwin Booth will play in December.
—Emigrants at New York last week: 9,800.
—Edwin Mott Robinson's estate foots up $5,700,000.

—October brought the country 3,700 pension cases.
—It is rumored that Ole Bull will soon re-visit this country.
—The "Africaine," was to be given at Dresden in perfect style.
—The rag-pickers of Paris are nearly all dead from cholera.

—Corcoran, the millionaire banker, is shortly expected in Washington.
—The cost of collecting the Internal Revenue is more than four per cent.
—There are 1,100 taverns in Washington, one for every ninety-one inhabitants.

—Wild turkeys are said to be more plenty this season, than for many years past.
—James W. Perkins, tried at Richmond on the charge of killing his wife, has been acquitted.
—Two negroes were arrested in Norfolk on Sunday for stealing a trunk and $1,400 from the residence of W. H. Whitehurst on Friday night.

—A guest of the Exchange Hotel, Richmond, has been arrested for stealing the blankets and sheets from the room he occupied.
—Gen. Butler who has just settled in Washington city, is the tenant of a colored man, the house he lives in belonging to Alfred Lee, a wealthy colored citizen.

—The names of Ex-Governor Kirkwood, Gen. Fitz Henry Warren and A. W. Hubbard are mentioned in connection with the Iowa United States Senatorship.
—Gen. John C. Breckinridge is reported to be living at St. Catherine's, Canada. His Louisville Journal has reason for anticipating his return to Kentucky at an early day.

—A man in Ohio attempted to drink two pounds of whisky in one hour, on a wager, but twenty-eight ounces finished him. The betting parties were arrested, and ought to be hung.
—The Hartford Times, Chicago Times, Cincinnati Enquirer and Buffalo Courier, all leading Northern papers, are advocating the assumption of the Confederate debt by the United States Government.

—Gen. Kilpatrick will visit Europe before going as Minister to Chili, and probably have a talk with the Spanish Government about the relations between that Power and the South American States.
—The steamboat opposition on the James river has ceased, there now being but one line, and the fare $2 50 between Norfolk and Richmond. Two lines are continued on the Bay, between Norfolk and Baltimore.

THE CITY.

Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT—Official Vote.

The vote cast at the late election for a member of Congress for the Fourth District was compared at the Court House yesterday, all the Sheriffs being present with the exception of the Sheriff of Franklin. The following is the vote as returned:

	Turner.	Russ.	Edwards.
Wake,	460	1824	64
Granville,	659	254	184
Nash,	235	98	10
Chatham,	690	823	12
Johnston,	188	612	00
Orange,	1069	65	2
Warren,	508	7	8

According to the provisions of the law, the vote of Franklin may be added if returned to-day, but if not reported by sundown this day, it will be thrown out. Upon the above returns, however, Josiah Turner was declared duly elected.

A FEW FIGURES.

We have frequently adverted to the extravagance of the rates of house-rent in our city, because we know that they constitute one of the drawbacks to the prosperity of Raleigh and must in the end seriously affect the permanent, substantial interests of property holders. But to show the justice of the complaints we have made, a citizen here and native of North Carolina has supplied us with these figures:

Rent of house before the war,	$ 350.00
" " during " in Confed.	4500.00
" " demanded now,	1900.00 in gold or three thousand dollars in national currency.

We have these facts from two as responsible parties as can be found in the South—gentlemen of unimpeached veracity—and who are now engaged in an enterprise of some magnitude. It will be seen that the modest landlord only wants five or six times the sum he realized previous to 1862.

This is a fair index, we understand, to the general spirit manifested by men who have houses in this place. The effect is to drive capital and enterprise from our midst, and thus utterly destroy the bright future which had been predicted for this section.

We are truly glad to hear that such mania has taken possession of Charlotte, Wilmington, Newbern and other points. The people elsewhere appear fully to appreciate the importance of attracting population, encouraging enterprise and inviting capital, but here there is a disposition to exact as rent the full purchase value of houses.

We ask those who are contributing to such a condition of affairs to reflect on the matter. They cannot fail to realize the injustice of their course or to see that it must ultimately destroy the real value of all property hereabout. Half prices contrasted with their present prices will pay them far better in the end.

KEEPING STORE.

The Washington Republican has the following:

Last evening a party of gentlemen were conversing upon the subject of the capabilities of the southern negroes for obtaining a livelihood, when an officer lately from Raleigh, N. C., related that as he was passing along the streets the other day he saw an aperture in an embankment just large enough to admit a person in a crouching posture, and over his doorway was suspended by a string one apple and half a dozen peanuts. Upon looking in he discovered an old colored man who had about a peck of apples, a few sweet potatoes, and peanuts ditto. He asked:

"What are you doing here, uncle?"
"Oh, I'm keepin' stob, Boss."
"Well, how much money do you make?"
"Oh, Boss, I make enough to keep me from beggin'."

Upon further inquiry he found that the profits of this "stob," which was simply an excavation with a small chimney to carry off the smoke, ranged from forty to fifty cents per day, which was sufficient to keep its enterprising proprietor from begging or starving.

THE AUTHOR.

The authorship of the petition for the pardon of Mr. Jefferson Davis, which we mentioned as circulating here, was attributed to one of North Carolina's distinguished women. The truth is, it was penned by Mrs. Fanny M. Downing, whose novel, "NAMELESS," is creating such a ferore in the literary world. We make the correction as a matter of right to all parties. Mrs. D. is a Virginian.

SINGULAR CHANGE IN BUTTER.

It is not a little noticeable that since butter has held at its present high price, it has taken a great deal of salt to flavor it. The fact is the salt is a good deal cheaper than the butter, and so a liberal salting pays. It has come to such a pass that one can't eat much butter without making of himself a salt-cellar.

THE SUN.

It may be rather far off for a local item, but there is a very large spot now traversing the sun's disc, which is visible to the naked eye about sunset. It looks about as big as a tea cake, though the telescope gives to it astonishing proportions. The phenomena of spots on the sun have never been explained, we believe.

AUCTION BILLS, Business Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, and in fact printing of all kinds done at the PROCESS OFFICE with promptness and in the best style of the art; and as our facilities for printing are more extensive and better than those of any other establishment in the State, at lower rates than the same can be done elsewhere.

ON DIR.

A negro was arrested yesterday by that efficient city officer, Wm. C. Parker, upon charge of stealing horses. His name is John McGuire and he hails from New York. It is now believed that he is the ringleader, the chief of the desperadoes who, about a month since, visited the house of Mr. Harry O. Parker, near this city, and besides plundering the premises of money, whipped that gentleman and his wife and committed other outrages. The negro was turned over to the military authorities, who thought so highly of the rascal as to treat him to a pair of handcuffs and a splendid fob chain with an inconveniently large ball attached to it.

Our hope is that the surmise with respect to the guilt of McGuire may not turn out to be a fable. The military authorities have proceeded with particular caution and marked determination in this affair. From the day when the offence was committed up to the present hour, they have pursued the idea of bringing the guilty wretches to justice and we have every confidence that, if possible, they will succeed.

How is It?

We referred yesterday to the great difference between the price of beef in and out of the market. A more striking fact still is related to us by a lady respecting bivalves. At the market and most other points three dollars a gallon is the ruling price for oysters. Now, Mr. Lewis, at the express office, retails them, best quality, at two dollars. Here is another screw loose—how is it? The latter is content with his profits and we must conclude the $3 sellers are too lofty financially.

SMALL POX.

We hear that at Camp Holmes and the classic region known as Vinegar Hill, the small pox is raging to a considerable extent. We learned also that a case in the neighborhood of the North Carolina rail road depot was reported yesterday afternoon. The best remedy against small pox, cholera and other loathsome and fatal diseases is cleanliness.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM.

When you find a man writing his advertisement and sticking it up at the post office, or in hotels, or on street posts, instead of publishing it in his town paper, look out for him—the very act shows that he is too close fistled to deal with to advantage. This is the "frozen truth."

STILL FALLING.

We saw very fair beef offering in the market yesterday, by the quarter, at five cents per pound, and no buyers. The scarcity of money will necessarily cause a decline in prices generally.

HON. T. L. CLINGMAN

was in the city yesterday and looking well.

The Legislature.

We give below the names of the members elect to the Legislature, to assemble in this city on the fourth Monday of November, as far as received:

—Emerson Etheridge has not been acquitted, as was reported. The finding in his case is in the hands of General Thomas, and has not been divulged.

—Two negro women in Memphis recently appeared in a police court, to settle a dispute in regard to a child. Both claimed to be the mother of the infant. Solomon settled a similar case very easily.

—A daughter of the rebel General Pettigrew has received an appointment as clerk in the Treasury Department.

—President Johnson received the news of the Republican victory in New Jersey with great delight, clapping his hands and exclaiming, "Good good!"

—Mrs. Maximilian of Mexico, recently received the Mexican troops in a carriage that cost $40,000. It was constructed entirely of glass and silver, and the inside lined with white satin and gold lace. She's expensive to somebody.

—A Paris paper denies the report that General Beauregard had tendered his services as commander of the Papal army; and it is now rumored in Europe that General McClellan has offered to accept the position.

—The Government has come to the conclusion that the employment of female clerks is a failure. The women are given to more display in dress, to flirting and coquetting, than to hard work. They will probably be succeeded by males soon in all the departments.

—Judge Withers, of South Carolina, died recently at his residence at Camden.

—Gen. Howard reached Florida about the first of the present month, on his tour of inspection.

—A man who has nothing better to do, has calculated that the entire amount of the national debt in silver dollars would weigh down 125,000 tons, and that laid side by side, the coins would go four times and a third round the world.

—The English publishing house of Rutledge & Sons have just issued a volume entitled "Men of the Time," in which, among other startling facts, the reader finds that General Sherman was compelled to abandon Atlanta, and fleeing eastward escaped to the sea.

—The principal cities of the Union rank in order of population, according to statistics in the Interior Department, as follows: New York, Philadelphia, Brooklyn, Baltimore, Chicago, Boston, New Orleans, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Buffalo, Newark, Louisville, Albany, Washington, San Francisco, Providence.

—Gen. Grant is reported to have said at Cincinnati, in speaking of the arrest of Dr. Huston, the Kentucky clergyman, "I have ordered his unconditional release. It is time that military arrests and military commissions were at an end. We are now at peace, and if any citizen commits any political offence he should be taken before the civil courts and there be tried for his crime."

—General Longstreet, on Tuesday, had an interview with General Grant, and subsequently visited the State Department, where he took the amnesty oath, which is preliminary to the consideration of his application for pardon.

MARRIED.

On Tuesday, 14th inst., by Rev. Dr. Craven, Mr. JAMES G. KING and Miss LAURA S. GORMAN, both of this city.

[We present our acknowledgements of the courtesy of our happy friends and trust they may realize, in wedded life, unchanging bliss.]
