Particulars of the Death of Hon. Preston King.

NEW YORK, Nov 14 .- A little boy and girl saw a gentleman answering the description of Preston King jump overboard from one of the Hoboken ferry-boats. on Monday morning. They have been sent for, and from them further particulars may be learned. The hat brought to the city has been recognized by Mr. Thurlow Weed, Mr. King's private secretary, and Mr. Usher, deputy naval officer.

Mr. King stated to a very intimate friend, on Sunday night, that he would not see him again. Knowing that Mr. King had been, for some time, laboring under a depression of spirits, he took but little notice of the matter. His health has been poor for some ime, and latterly he had shown indications of a softming of the brain. He had only returned to the city ast Saturday from a visit to his home in St. Lawence county. He went to the Astor House, where remained over Sunday with his friend. On londay morning he arose, dressed himself, and said his relative, who slept in the same room with him, hat he wished to take a walk and preferred going lone. About eight o'clock he went up town.

Since his return from the country he had suffered ore than ever from depression of the mind. He as next heard of on board a ferry-boat, returning om Christopher street to Hoboken.

It was reported yesterday morning that a man had ed overboard. Four of Mr. King's friends visithe boat to-day, and found that a gentleman wering the description of Mr. K. had entered the yesterday at 9 o'clock, and remained on the n end, and when the boat was midway in the m, was seen by two children and the passengers on that end of the boat, to take off his hat and jump overboard. The alarm was given and the boat ped, but the body was not seen by any one on As the tide was falling at the time, it is able that the body was washed out to sea.

The men employed, on the boat had seen a man snewering Mr. King's description get on board of the boat. All parts of this story are strongly confirmed. Mr. King has been much perplexed ever since his sppointment over affairs at the custom-house, which weighed heavily upon his mind, and undoubtedly minated in his death. Those most intimate with him have carefully watched his failing health, and recently he has been attended by a companion, who occupied a room with him at the Aster House and wetched his movements. Mr. King was a bachelor.

The Florida State Occuvention, which assembled on the 25th of October, passed, on the third day of its session, by a unanimous vote, an ordinance declaring the secession ordinance annulled. There was considerable discussion over propositions to pronounce it, instead, null and void, and to declare, as did the North Carolina Convention, that it always had been null and void; but the majority would not accede to either of the latter forms of wording, it being contended by the advocates of the ordinance as it passed that annulling was equivalent to pronouncing null and void. A committee of five was appointed to solicit of President Johnson the release of Jeff. Davis, Mr. Mallory, rebel ex-Secretary of the Navy; Mr. Yulee, ex-United States Senator; and ex-Governor Allison, of Florida.

The Columbia Phænix says: - We are informed most painful and fatal occurrence on one of the acks from Alston. About one and a half miles this ide of Hope Station, the hack, or ambulance, was precipitated into a gulley about fifteen feet deep. The result was that four passengers were killed and three severely wounded. Among the passengers killed was the Rev. Dr. James Cohen, so long known as professor in the Theological Seminary in this city; Mrs. Van Winkle, of Charleston; an English lady, (name not known) a resident in the family of Mr. Peronneaux, of Charleston; and a colored servant or nurse. There is great blame to be attached somewhere. Under our present information, we forbear comment.

-- Intelligence received at Washington, from Gen. Howard, reports that his tour of inspection has thus far been of the greatest benefit. He has corrected many errors that worked disadvantageously for the

The Freedmen's bureau has received a communication from Surgeon Lawton, chief medical officer of the Freedmen's bureau at Augusta, Ga., in which he says that at the time of his entry there were two hundred cases of small-pox among the freedmen at Macon, and the disease was spreading rapidly. The city hospital, which is under the charge of the civil authorities, was also crowded with patients. A hospital is being erected at Atlanta. Surgeon Lawton is confident that the suffering in this neighborhood, during the coming winter, will be great.

-Mexican advices, via Brownsville, assert that the Liberals are still besleging Matamoras. The women and children are leaving the city and taking refuge on the American side. The United States forces are reported as cheering the besiegers on. It is also reported that the Imperial steamer Personna fired four shots among these American sympathizers, with what effect is not reported.

-A Senator who called on General Grant a day or two ago, remonstrated with him for keeping so many general officers in the service unemployed. He replled that he had several weeks ago made out a list to be mustered out, but that they were hanging fire in the War Department or some other place.

-Jeff. Davis is reported as having recently given in very brief terms his opinion of Fenianism and the execution of Wirz. Of the former he said "It's a bubble," and of the latter that "The Government need not have gone far to hang many worse men."

-Gen. Howard has issued a circular at Jackson. Miss., urging the officers of the bureau to endeavor to counteract the false impressions and reports industriously circulated among the freedmen, which tend to prevent industry and create disorder.

-Mr. C. P. Clinch, special deputy collector, has been appointed temporarily to fill the position made vacant by the death of Hon. Preston King, Collector of New York. -The Norfolk Day Book notices the arrival there of Colonel Lamb, so well and favorably known to the people of North Carolina. He is yet feeble from the severe wound he eecelved at Fort Fisher.

PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, MONDAY, NOV. 20, 1865.

NO. 315.

How they View it in the North. Speaking of the result of the elections in this State, the Albany Morning Express says:

"The President is said to have received a telegram from Mr. Holden saying that he was probably elected Governor of North Carolina by a small majority. Previous reports elected Worth by over five thousand. It is to be hoped that Holden is really elected. The Ralegh Progress puts it strongly and correctly when it says that "if Governor Holden is beaten, the sane men who did it would vote for Jefferson Davis or Zebulon B. Vance against Andrew Johnson." This is undoubtedly true. Mr. Worth himself is probably not a very had man, but the animus of his election, if he be elected, is secession.

to recognize the will of the North Carolina people until such action had been reversed." REV. DR. DEEMS-" The Watchman. - A late

New York paper says: "We are glad to learn that this paper is about to be published in this city, under the editorial management of the Rev. Dr. Deems, a gentleman of distinguished ability and learning, and of exalted personal character and well known piety.

A correspondent suggests that the Conference to which the Reverend Doctor belongs ought to make some arrangements by which he might obtain the charge of a regular congregation in this city. We are very sure that there are many here, even among those who belong to other churches, who hope that this suggestion may be favorably acted upon, and who would become constant members of his congregation if one shall be organized.

WAR " Down East."-The New York Times, of the 14th says :

We have, from apparently trustworthy authority, a rather startling rumor of trouble of a serious character on the Canadian border. It appears that a British officer took the liberty of sending a compan of marines across the line into the State of Maine to arrest deserters: that his men themselves, finding they were on foreign soil, deserted him; that application was made to our authorities to have the men given up, which was, of course, refused. The report adds that the Washington Government, on being apprized of the case, immediately ordered Hancock's corps, or a portion thereof, to rendezvous in Maine .-Such is the story; and this much is certain, that a body of troops left Hartford at midnight on Sunday for Augusta, Me.

CONFLICT IN MISSISSIPPI .- The Nashville Press states that a conflict has already broke out between Provisional Governor Sharkey and Judge Huniphreys, the Governor elect. Humphreys hates the Federal authority so badly that he wants Sharkey to get out immediately and let him assume the office of Governor, while Governor Sharkey, on the other hand, refuses to abdicate until ordered to do so from Washington. The President has instructed Governor Sharkey to hold on to his office until it is accortained whether Congress will admit the Mississippi delegation, and recognize her as a State in the

How to Stop Divorce.—By a Prussian law passed in 1844, no divorce can be tried until the clergyman of the parish in which the unhappy couple live has had an opportunity of reconciling them to their chains. In the year 1864 there were seven thousand five hundred and ninety-six couples who wished to part, and of those no less than three thousand seven hundred and seventy-four were influenced by the clergyman to give up their unamiable intentions. In this way the lawyers lost no less than forty-eight per cent. of their expected business.

-Hop. Simon Cameron, in an address to several regiments of colored troops at Harrisburg on Tuesday, said that President Johnson is determined to deal justly with all persons, and "I know that with his approval no State that was in rebellion will be allowed to return to the benefits of the Union without having first a constitutional compact which will prevent slavery in this land for all time to come; which will prescribe no distinction of color on the witness stand and in the jury box, and which will protect the homes and domestic relations of all men and women. He will insist, too, on the repudiation of all debts contracted for the support of the war of the rebellion."

Despatches from New Orleans report unusual and mysterious preparations in military circles there consequent upon the reception of the late news from the Rio Grande. Troops are being sent to the Mexican frontier, the sale of transportation has been stopped, and vessels are being placed in a belligerent condi-

-The leading hotel in Washington has raised its prices to five dollars per day, for the especial benefit of Congressmen. The preparations for a regular scalping season by hotel and boarding house keepers are so vigorous, that quite a number of members are making their preparations to reside in Baltimore.

-Captain S. S. Lee, formerly of the navy, and brother to Gen. Lee, is about to take up his residence on the Potomac, in Maryland, and engage in agricultural pursuits. Captain Lee entered the navy in 1820, and is about 65 years of age.

One of the Richmond journals advises the Representatives elect from Virginia to stay at home until invited to take their seats in Congress, and in relation to the test oath says, " Woe unto those that take the oath-better that they had never been born."

Savannah papers notice the death in that city of Judge W. A. Forward, a resident of Pilatka, Fla., and a distinguished and highly esteemed citizen of that State. Judge Forward was a native of New York State.

At a convention of the McKeon Democracy, held on Wednesday evening in New York, Mayor Godfrey C. Gunther was nominated for re-election, and Richard O'Gorman as a candidate for Corporation Counsel.

-The culture of cotton in Southeast Missouri, according to a St. Louis paper, already meets with marked success. New Madrid and Dunklin counties have each produced 2,000 bales this year.

-Two men from the wreck of the steamer Republic were recently rescued from a raft off Cape Hatteras. They had been eight days without food or -A street car was run into by the Richmond train, at Washington, on Thursday, and completely demoli hed. Several persons were injured but no one killed.

-Frank Blair has gone to New Orleans, and it is said that he will inflict as many speeches as he has a chance to down the Southern people. During the war two colored soldiers enlisted in the District of Columbia for every white one.

THE CITY.

Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

IMPORTANT TO BUSITESS MEN .- The DAILY PRO-GRESS will appear in new type and an enlarged form on Monday next, the 17th instant, and as we shall issue a large edition of our enlarged sheet to circulate gratutiously throughout the State, as a specimen copy, business men will consult their own interests by handing in their cards, so as to have them appear It was the secessionists who supported him, and his in that issue. We shill also revise our advertising rates with the enlargement of the paper, and we promise they shall be wry moderate. Hand in your advertisements by Saturlay next.

SEASONABLE HINTS. The practical value of the freedmen's bureau has been seriously questioned by some of the ablest publicists in this country, but we are inclined to question their logic. The evils upon which they have rredicated their reasoning are not justly chargeable to the system, but result most frequently from maadministration on the part of those into whose hands its operation has been confided. In this department we have been particularly fortunate. Col. Whittlesey, chief of the bureau in North Carolina, has, we think, given as much satisfaction as it was possible for any man to afford under like embarrassing circumstances. We are convinced that he has scrupulously pursued a line of conduct such as he believed accorded with the purposes of the government and the varied interests within his jurisdiction. All the circulars he has issued bear the impress of genius in which is blended the qualities of the christian and firmness of the magistrate. No one of them, however, is more marked in that respect than the one printed in Saturday's PROGRESS. It warns freedmen of the necessity of labor; tells them of the early withdrawal of government assistance; and of the enforcement against the idle of the laws affecting vagrancy. The class whom he addresses have only one wise course open to them: the immediate adoption of the course recommended by Col. Whittlesey. It is their salvation now and in the future.

It is easy to see what different conduct will work for them. It will demonstrate to north and south their unfitness for the new relation proposed for them and in every State of the Union we shall have laws establishing compulsory industry. The blacks can only defeat such legislation by practically ilmust go to work wherever employment one. They for a week, month or year-but systematically as the white race, and it is only by so doing that they may hope to escape a curtailment of freedom here or colonization abroad. Let them look to it.

THE MAILS .- We referred recently to the fact that our Wilmington and Newbern exchanges did not reach us either expeditiously or regularly. It now appears that close connections are not formed at Goldsboro. The following note throws considerable light on the matter :

Editor Progress: - In your paper of the 16th, see you have found out some of the causes of the delay in the Newbern and Wilmington mails. The mail arrives at Goldsbero from Newbern about 9 o'clock, p. m., and remains in that office till 5.10 the next evening—only 21 hours.

The mail from Wimington arrives in Goldsboro about 12 p. m. and remains there till 5.10 the next evening-only about 18 hours. Who is to blame?

We hope that some better arrangement will soon be made to do away with these delays. As now managed, the press and the public suffer considerable inconvenience.

VARIETIES .- If you want anything to eat, fish, flesh or fowl, go to Variety Whitaker's around the corner, on Hargett street. His store is literally rammed, jammed and crammed with vegetables, fruits, meats, fish, fowls, and indeed and in fact everything that the housekeeper will be likely to want. He has the largest cabbages, the largest sweet potatoes, the finest apples, the biggest turkeys, the fattest chickens, the nicest partridges, and the freshest and best provisions, substantials and luxuries, to be found in all the region round about. Read his advertisement in the Progress, go and examine his stock and buy what you want. You will find Whitaker and his wares all right.

A MEETING of citizens is talked of here to take into consideration the matter of high rents. hope it may be held and that the conference may result in some arrangement between landlords and tenants to reduce the rates now existing. In other cities renters and owners of property have taken counsel together, and the result has been mutually beneficial. Let the experiment be tried.

ACCIDENT FROM A PISTOL .- A man living on Hills. boro street, near the railroad bridge, named O'Connell, a son of "ould Ireland," caused the premature discharge of a pistol, yesterday afternoon, in attempting te remove the cap from it while his hand was over the muzzle. One finger was torn to pieces

AUCTION Bills, Business Cards, Circulars, Bill Heads, and in fact printing of all kinds done at the PROCRESS OFFICE with promptness and in the best style of the art; and as our facilities for printing are more extensive and better than those of any other establishment in the State, at lower rates than the same can be done elsewhere.

THE sale of furniture, &c., belonging to the late Wm. J. Lougee, will take place this morning. To those who wish to buy household articles this auction offers a good opportunity.

STORE ROBBED.—The store of Mr. James Rogers, north side Harget, between Wilmington and Fayetteville streets, was burglariously entered Friday night and robbed of sundry things, besides between fifty and a hundred dollars in greenbacks. It appears that the burglars effected an entrance to the premises through a rear window, made a light and after ransacking the house and appropriating such articles as they desired, unlocked and retired by the back door.

Mr. R. cannot say exactly what his loss is nor has any clue been obtained to the perpetrators of the misdeed. The proper steps have been taken to ferret out the guilty and we sincerely trust they may be successful.

Too Fond of Horse Flese .- In spite of all our admoniesh. Markswill Jeen up their nartiality for Saturday, a freedman appearing on our streets well mounted and offering to dispose of a magnificent horse for $40. Again the city custodians made it convenient to be on hand and took rider and steed in charge. Upon investigation, it was shown that the animal had been stolen from a Mr. Rogers, a short distance in the country. The owner recovered his property and the darky went where all bad darkies go: to the lock-up.

THE NATIONAL EXPRESS. - We learn that the new National Express company will commence operations here to day. They have opened an office a few doors below that of the Southern Express company on Fayetteville street. Col. W. E. Anderson, a gentleman of fine business capacity and formerly an officer in the Bank of North Carolina, has been appointed agent for this city for the new company We doubt not but the increasing business of the country will give both companies enough to do.

RECOVERED .- We are informed that Mr. Stedman, of this county, yesterday recovered two mules stolen from him Saturday night. Under the advice of Officer Parker he proceeded to make search for the long-eared critters and found them near Green's mill, a white and black man having them in custody. On seeing him approach, the two thieves fled and Mr. S. took quiet possession of the mules.

CAUGHT THEM .- Last Saturday morning, just before day, two colored "gemmen" appeared in the city in possession of a fine oxen. The police suspicioned that all was not right and after due inquiry arrested the rascals. They were handed over to the military authorities and the oxen returned to the owner, Mr. Morris, who resides about four miles

SEE the schedule of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad. We understand that the means of transportation on the line are to be kept to the mark necessary to the public accommodation. It is now pretty well equipped and those who control its practical operations are thoroughly competent for the task.

BRUSHING UP .- The legislature assembles here next Monday and the hotels, boarding houses, and other places of public entertainment are brushing up for the occasion. We like to see it-such movements are proofs of enterprise, energy and tact.

SMALL Pox.-We learn from an official source that all cases of small pox have been removed beyond the corporate limits. There is not a case in the city and should new ones break out they will be disposed of in like manner instantly.
