RANDOLPH WEBB, DRUGGIST,
IN THE STAR BUILDINGS—RALEIGH.
HAS the satisfaction of informing the public that he has just received a fresh supply of DR. CHURCHES VEGETABLE LOTION,
An easy, safe and effectual cure for pimples, roughness, and eruptions on the face and skin. Three or four light washings twice a day rarely fails to effect a cure and leaves the skin soft, clean and with a fresh, healthy appearance. It also diminishes tan and freckles, and often removes them entirely, but not with the same absolute certainty in all cases as the foregoing. Ample directions for its use accompanies each bottle. The high reputation which this Lotion deservedly has, and the great demand for it in this town, at the University, and different parts of this state have occasioned R. Webb to obtain a liberal supply, and he informs the public that he intends to keep it at all times on hand so that no one shall in future be disappointed in their applications.
51-2w. December 12, 1816.

Lost,
ON the 31st November, a Blue Silk Umbrella, nearly new. It was left in the State-House. It is requested that the person who has it may leave it in the Clerk's room of the House of Commons.

Franklin Academy.

THE trustees of this Academy having attended the present examination, have great pleasure in announcing to its patrons, and to the public generally, that the performance of the Students in each department was highly satisfactory—they regret that the inclemency of the weather forbade the attendance of additional witnesses to the progress of various classes, but have no hesitation in saying that on no similar occasion have the Students done themselves greater honor.—The Trustees would be wanting in duty, were they to withhold the tribute due to the merits of Mr. Bobbitt, the Principal, as well as to Mr. Finch his Assistant, the examination throughout having afforded ample testimony of the talents and vigilant attention of those gentlemen.

The exercises of this Seminary will commence again on the first of January next, under the superintendance of Mr. Bobbitt as Principal, at the same prices for tuition—Board will be placed at from 35 to $40 per session, payable in advance.

If a healthy and elegant situation, moderate price of board and tuition, orderly deportment of Students, and the high accomplishments of the teachers, are incentives to public patronage, the Trustees flatter themselves that this institution will meet its full share.
By order, G. HILL, Jr. Sec'y.
December 6, 1816. 50-2t.

Lewisburg Female Academy.

THE Trustees of this Institution having attended the examination of the Students, make the following report, to-wit:

The first class, composed of Elinor Fox, Elizabeth Murphey, Mary Eliza Ann Taylor and Helen King, were examined upon reading and spelling, and were approved.

The second class, composed of Salley Bond, Maria Foster, Helen Jones, Emily Long, Salley Inge, Nancy Moore, Jane E. Fox and Sarah J. Murphey, were examined on reading, spelling and grammar—the whole of this class did very well, but H. Jones, J. E. Fox, E. Long and S. J. Murphey were considered rather best.

The third class, composed of Matilda Fenner, Ann R. Hill, Sarah A. Thomas, Martha Means, Eliza Bobbitt and Mary Falconer, were examined on arithmetic—of this class, Eliza Bobbitt was considered best.

The fourth class, composed of Elizabeth Lee, Mary B. Jones, Polly Boddie, Louisa Green, Martha Williams, Martha Jones, Maria Drake, Nancy Sorsby, Salley Brodie and Emily Jones, were examined on reading, spelling, English grammar and parsing—Mary B. Jones, Elizabeth Lee, Nancy Sorsby, Maria Drake and Martha Williams were equal, and considered best of the class, the others acquitted themselves well.

The fifth class, composed of Lucy Dunn, Polly Thomas, Martha Williams, Eliza Taylor, Eliza Dunn, Martha J. Sanders, Mary B. Hill, Sarah M'Leomore and Henrietta Mabry, were examined on reading, spelling, English grammar and parsing—this class stood an excellent examination, and the preference is given in the order of their names.

The sixth class, composed of Eliza Bobbitt, Mary Falconer, Elizabeth J. Lanier, Martha Hill, Ann Perry, Peggy Connelly, Martha J. Sanders and Nancy Bonner, were examined on American geography—Miss Bobbitt was considered best, Miss Lanier, Miss Hill and Miss Falconer, equal, the others in the order of their names.

The seventh class, consisting of Ann R. Hill, Elizabeth Lanier, Martha Hill, Sarah A. Thomas, Martha Means, Matilda M. Fenner, Mary Falconer, Eliza Bobbitt, Mary Thomas and Peggy Connelly, were examined on reading, spelling, English grammar and parsing—The great progress and perfection manifested by this class generally, renders it difficult for the Trustees to assign distinctions, but if preference is given it will be found in the order of their names.

The eighth class, composed of Matilda M. Fenner, Ann R. Hill, Sarah A. Thomas, Martha Means, Eliza Bobbitt and Mary Falconer, were examined on the geography of North and South America and Europe. If the Trustees were to make distinctions in this class, they would feel that injustice would be done, they therefore would remark generally, that it passed an examination meriting the highest approbation.

A numerous and respectable assemblage of ladies and gentlemen were then entertained with many elegant specimens of Embroidery, Painting, Calligraphy, Geographical Painting and Needle-work, in which the following distinctions were conferred:

In Embroidery—Eliza J. Lanier.
Painting—Matilda M. Fenner, Ann R. Hill.
Calligraphy—Eliza B. Lee, Sarah M'Leomore, Maria Drake.

Geographical Painting—Sarah A. Thomas, Martha E. Means, Mary Falconer and Eliza Bobbitt.
Needle-work—Martha Williams.

The Trustees feel it a duty to remark to the patrons of this institution and to the public, that this examination throughout, afforded the most satisfactory evidence of the talents and unremitting attention of the Principal, Mrs. Bobbitt, and at the same time to the pupils under her charge testimonials highly honorable to them.

The Academy will again commence its exercises on the first of January next, under the superintendance of Mrs. Bobbitt as Principal. The prices of tuition the same as heretofore, that of board will be placed at from 35 to $40 per session.

The Trustees would furthermore remark, that from the healthy and agreeable site of the Academy, the progress and good order of the Students, and the high accomplishments of Mrs. Bobbitt, they confidently hope for a continuance of public patronage.
By order, ROBT. A. TAYLOR, Sec'y.
December 6, 1816. 50-3t.

Tarborough Academy.

THE Examination of the Students of this Institution will commence on Thursday the 12th inst. and continue two days. Parents, Guardians and others interested are respectfully invited to attend.

The exercises of the Academy, will recommence on the 1st Monday in January, under the superintendance of the present Teacher, Mr. Hammond. The Trustees feel great pleasure in assuring the public, that from one years experience, they are convinced that in this gentleman, all the qualifications necessary for a Preceptor and Teacher, are admirably combined. The universal satisfaction expressed by parents and guardians, whose children or wards have enjoyed his instruction, furnish ample testimony of his ability, assiduity and success. The health of the Students the past summer, has been such, as to encourage the hope, that no objection can be made on the score of health.

The prices of tuition the same as last year. Board may be had in town and neighborhood on reasonable terms.
By order of the Board, ROBT. JOYNER, Sec'y.
