THE Synod of North-Carolina, will meet at Fayetteville, on Thursday the first day of October next. At the same time and place will also be held the Annual Meeting of the Presbyterian Missionary Society, of North-Carolina. A revision of the Constitution of this Society is contemplated; a full meeting is therefore desirable.

Raleigh, Sept. 28, 1818.

CONFECTIONARY.

DAVID SHAW, Confectioner from Glasgow, in Scotland, has commenced a Manufactory of Confectionary articles in Raleigh, on Fayetteville Street, directly opposite the Star and Observe Printing Offices, where he intends carrying on that business in all its branches and to that extent which the demand may appear to require both wholesale and retail. Those who purchase by wholesale will be furnished at the Petersburg wholesale prices, and as the Advertiser learnt his business with one of the first Confectioners in Glasgow, he has no hesitation in answering those who may favour him with their custom that his goods will be equal in quality to anything of the kind made in the United States.

Orders from the different Towns throughout this State, or elsewhere, will be thankfully and carefully attended to, and should any article not meet the expectations of those who may have ordered it, if returned in the course of one month in the good order as when sent off, it will be received and the purchase money returned.

N. B. The Advertiser is a nephew of mine, in whose success I feel a deep interest as a connection, I order therefore to do away any want of confidence which might exist from his being a stranger, so far as my word can aid him, I please myself that whatever promises in the above Advertisement will be faithfully performed.

WAKE LAND FOR SALE.

THE subscriber offers for sale the Tract of Land on which he now lives, lying on Swift Creek, nine miles south west of Raleigh, it is believed, that for soil, beauty of situation, excellence of its spring, timber and grass range it is surpassed by none in the county: there are considerable improvements almost of every kind, good orchards of well selected fruits, a Grist Mill, &c. Should any person apply, the land will be shown and the terms of sale made known by Joseph Lane, who is living near the land.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY, about 3 years ago, from Mrs. Lowrie's sister of Judge Lowrie, while on a visit to her friends in Beaufort, a negro girl named Delilah, of a black complexion, smooth skin, white handsome teeth, pleasant countenance, of tolerable size. She was bought, 4 years ago, by Judge Lowrie from a man of the name of Hill who said she was brought from Maryland, where she may possibly have gone.—But as she absconded with a negro, formerly waiting-man to a Mr. Anthony (who, I understand has since been taken) the probability is that she may still be harboured near Halifax or in Bertie.——As, by the bequest of her late Master, the right and title to said negro has fallen to me, I will give the above reward to any person who will deliver her to me in Charlotte, Mecklenburg county, N. C.—or Thirty Dollars to any person who will secure her so that I get her—and she shall be forgiven.

DAVID R. DUNLAP.

March, 1818. 1y

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.

RUNAWAY from the Subscriber on the 17th instant—2 negro men, GILES and CAESAR.

GILES is about thirty one or two years of age, about five feet ten or eleven inches high, a little yellow complected, has lost one or more of his upper forefeeth though seldom shows any of his teeth, has very little beard, he has had part of his right great toe split off with an axe which makes the end sharper than the end of his other great toe, he has a down look when spoken to and I expect wears the marks of a severe whipping which he received in January last.

CAESAR is about twenty nine or thirty years of age, about the same height of Giles, large and well made, very black, no other particular marks to describe. Giles is an artful and cunning fellow has by his ingenuity learned to read and write a tolerable good hand and from the best information I can get he intends to write himself a free pass and try to get off and pass for a freeman. I think it very probable that he will write Caesar one & they will go off together, if they should make that attempt and are taken up and secured in any Jail so that I get them again or delivered to me in Lenoir county, N. C. I will give the above reward, if they do not attempt to get off and are taken in the county or any of the adjacent counties, I will give for them both fifty dollars or 25 for either of them provided they are secured so as I get them again. Giles and Caesar are legally outlawed, and all honest citizens are hereby solicited to be on their watch, & if they come in their way to take them dead or alive.
