

Notice

ABOUT the 1st of May last, a dark brown or black mare was strayed from my lot in this place, and has been lost since in the neighborhood of Morehead, and I expect is owing for Halifax, or Person County, where she was named. She is very likely, well made, can run out of her eye, without with an ax when very young, a little above the hoof on the right side, behind, the ear of which is to be seen, and carries the hoof turned out a little. Any person delivering said mare, or giving such information as will lead to her recovery, either to David Yarbrough, Esq. or Hillbrough, Nathaniel Newell, Esq. of Person County, Col. H. G. Burton of Halifax myself, shall be generously rewarded, and all reasonable expenses paid.

Fayetteville, August 1819.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

I WILL sell on accomodating terms, my tract of land near Sim's bridge, where I lately resided, containing eight hundred acres. The land is not inferior to any in the county, is entirely woodland, and is situated on both sides of the main road, leading to Williamsburg. There is on the premises a good dwelling house, with four rooms, kitchen, and all other necessary houses, with an elegant garden, all new, and a better spring is not to be found in Franklin County.

W. M. P. TAYLOR

Franklin County, September 6, 1819.

State of North-Carolina,

Wake County.

PERSONALLY appeared before me, Oren Vincent, of the County and State aforesaid, and made oath that on the night of the 24th July last past, he had lost two tobacco notes given to Jubilee Rogers for two thousand tobacco money at Fayetteville the 24th February 1819, by Posts and Letters. The sum of the two thousand dollars, (2.) No. 455, 1400, 181, 1270, went out of the other legatee, 456, 1370, 1-0, 1140, next. And that they have been duly advertised at Raleigh, in the Register, Minerva, and Star papers.

OIGRE VINCENT,

Sworn to, and subscribed before me this 6th September,

NOTICE.

LAST evening runaway from the subscriber, a negro girl, by the name of JEN, eighteen or nineteen years of age, about five feet high, tolerable dark colour, with a scar on her face near her ear, about one inch long, her small toes are uncommonly short, and being considerably the longest. She is supposed to be half gone with child, and is a likely girl. She took with her two cotton frocks, one copperas checked, and the other striped with blue; and one fitted with black yarn, one pair of red stockings, shoes, & 1 pair of white cotton stockings. I suppose she went off with a master to buy of Maria Cannady's. It is likely they will pass together as free people; and may take up their habitation in some town, for employment a while, and then make for some free state. It is likely they will have some company with them. If any person will bring her to me or confine her in jail so that I can get her again, they shall have a reward of 50 dollars.

Mr. John D. Carson, Son of General John Carson, of Rutherford County, in the State of North-Carolina, having an intention to settle himself permanently in West Tennessee, in the late purchase made of the Chickasaw Indians, with a view of resurveying old claims and laying warrants; and having asked of us the expression of our sentiments relative to his character and conduct, we state, that Mr. Carson is a young man distinguished for habits of morality, honesty, sobriety and industry, and we have no hesitation in saying that persons who think proper to employ him will not be disappointed.

Caution.

AWAYED from this, within the night of the 6th inst., leaving his home unprovided by the name of HENRY BROWN, a hatter by trade, he is dark complexioned, has large whiskers, smokes the pipe incessantly, speaks very mildly, but not very distinctly. He has on when he went away a green broad cloth coat, other clothes not known, except a ruffled shirt. It is supposed that he is yet in the State. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received, addressed to either of the subscribers.
