WM. Gholson:

3446.

For Sale,
BETWEEN seven and eight hundred acres of land hand-sown, within two miles of the University of North-Carolina, on Persimmon and Luck Creeks. A good proportion of this land is excellent low grounds. The whole is well adapted to the culture of corn, wheat, tobacco or cotton; this tract of land could be divided for the accommodation of purchasers, in conditions to plantations, which are required for raising a dwelling house and all necessary buildings, a stable, a corn and whiskey distillery. As I am anxious to dispose of it, should any person wish to view the premises, time convenient to purchase my respects, invited to call and see me. A great bargain may be had by an early application.

JACOB YEARGUN.

Fri. Oct. 24, 1819.

Notice.

A subscriber offers his farm for sale, lying five miles south-west from Raleigh, containing between fifteen and sixteen hundred acres. It is well drained and will improve well, with 100 and 40 ft. of Mill, and sufficient open land to work large farms to advantage, and in good repair. Four miles is to be available in here, so no person would wish to purchase without viewing the premises.
