Travellers for R. Hammond, Esq. & Co., Raleigh, N. C.
C. & G. & Co. from Philadelphia.

RE respectfully informed, that the nearest, the most expeditious, and the cheapest route from Philadelphia to Richmond and Raleigh, N. C. is through the City of Washington.

The fare on the route is certainly as good as can be found on any Line in the United States, nor has the line been interrupted by a single failure, during the summer. Passengers go South, from Washington city, every day except the Sabbath.

Notice,

To the Overseers of the Stage Road, from Raleigh by New-Hope Bridge, Haw River, Pittsboro, Randolph Court House and Salisbury. That unless they do diligently work on said roads, and keep them in good repair, as near as possible to law as possible, I will put the law in force as to each of them; for as they now are it is with difficulty that the Stage can pass or repass, &c.

Stop the Villains

DISCAP.—On Monday just past, on the night of the 22nd inst. William B. Crawfords, a notorious competitor for our sixt and seventy years age, about as high head white.—Also John M. Windham, about thirty years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, with an uncomely long face and chin, his fore teeth very long and prominent. This villain was imprisoned at the last spring-term of the Superior Court of Appeals to eighteen months imprisonment, for stealing free negroes of colored men. These culprits broke and made their escape from the jail on the night of the 7th of July last, and was apprehended and committed to Newbern jail where I found them
