Madison Academy.
 THE Trustees of the Madison Academy are happy to inform the public that they have engaged James Franklin Martin, a late graduate of the University of North Carolina, to take charge of said Academy, as a Teacher.—This Academy is situated in the west end of Rockingham County, N. C. The trustees can assure parents and guardians that board can be had in good families at thirty dollars per session. The school will commence on the 4th day of July next.
 DUKE SCALES, Sec'y.
 June 15, 1820.

Chapel-Hill Academy.
 THE exercises of this institution will commence on the twentieth of July next, under the superintendance of the undersigned. The course of studies in this Academy will be (as usual) so arranged as to render it in every respect preparatory to the University. Elocution, correct pronunciation according to the rules of Prosody, Spelling and the derivation and composition of words will receive particular attention. Due regard will also be paid to those passing the lower branches of Education, and every exertion used to stimulate them to emulation. The moral conduct and good deportment of the pupils will receive special attention.
 The local situation of this Academy must always afford advantages to those preparing for the University. The terms of Tuition will be as usual. The sessions and vacations will be regulated by those of the University.
 JAMES A. CRAIG.
 Chapel-Hill, May 1st 1820. 21-7's
 J. A. Craig will keep on hand a supply of School Books.

Entered,
 ON the Stray Books of Johnston county, one dark colored mare, with a white streak in her face, all of her feet white, some white specks on the back, about nine or ten years old, four feet three inches high, with a large bell on. Also one bay horse, left hind foot white, some white in his face, about four years old, and about four feet seven or eight inches high, appraised to $5 dollars.
 GEO. GULLY, Ranger.
 May 24.

$100 Reward.
STOLEN from the stable of Mr. Willis Pope, in Huntsville, on the night of the 3d inst. a nicked tail SORREL HORSE, about five feet high, paces at the rate of eighteen miles an hour, and walks remarkably fast.
 He is nearly a blood sorrel, dappled when newly shed, fine hair, with a strip in his forehead, rather a short thick neck, very fine shoulders, long in the back; one of his fore and hind feet white, not recollected which, and the very singular circumstance of a grey sheath. He is a horse that would attract very little attention unless when moving, then looks remarkably fine; he is known in this country by the celebrated fast racer of Mr. Richard Moore; sold by him to Captain Lockhart; then to Willis Pope; and since stolen, sold to the subscriber.
 It is confidently believed from description that he was seen eight days ago in possession of a man on the Georgia road.
 The above reward of one hundred dollars will be given for the delivery of the above horse in Huntsville, or a reasonable compensation for informing me where he may be got.
 ALEXANDER ERSKINE.
