Madison Academy.
 THE Trustees of the Madison Academy are happy to inform the public that they have engaged James Franklin Martin, a late graduate of the University of North Carolina, to take charge of said Academy, as a Teacher. This Academy is situated in the west end of Rockingham County, N. C. The trustees can assure parents and guardians that board can be had in good families at thirty dollars per annum. The school will commence on the 4th day of July next.
 DUKE SCALES, Secy.
 June 15, 1820.

Chapel Hill Academy.
 THE exercises of this institution will commence on the twentieth of July next, under the superintendance of the undersigned. The course of studies in this Academy will be (as usual) arranged as to render it every respect preparatory to the University. Elocution, correct pronunciation according to the rules of Prosody, Scanning and the derivation and composition of words will receive particular attention. Disregard will also be paid to those parts of the lower branches of Education, and every exertion will be made to stimulate them to emulation. The moral conduct and good reportment of the pupils will receive special attention.
 The local situation of this Academy must always afford advantages to those preparing for the University. The terms of tuition will be as usual. The sessions and vacations will be regulated by those of the University.
 JAMES A. CRAIG.
 Chapel Hill, May 1st 1820. 21-7's.

J. A. Craig will keep on hand a supply of School Books.
