

THE STAR,

And North-Carolina State Gazette.

No. 31.

RALEIGH, (N. C.) FRIDAY, AUGUST 4, 1820.

Vol. XI.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY,

BY THOMAS HEARDERSON, jr.

Subscription, three dollars per annum—No paper will be sent without at least $1 50 cents is paid in advance, and no paper discontinued, only at the option of the Editor, unless all arrearages are paid. Advertisements not exceeding twelve lines inserted three times for one dollar and twenty-five cents for each continuance.

Madison Academy.

THE Trustees of the Madison Academy are happy to inform the public that they have engaged James Franklin Martin, a late graduate of the University of North Carolina, to take charge of said Academy, as a Teacher—This Academy is situated in the west end of Beaufort County, N. C. The trustees can assure parents and guardians that board can be had in good families at thirty dollars per session. The school will commence on the 4th day of July next.

DUKE SCALES, Secy.

Yadkin Navigation Company.

NOTICE is hereby given that the President and directors of the Yadkin Navigation Company have required the payment of the first, second and third instalment, of ten dollars each, upon any share subscribed, to be made to the Treasurer of the Company, or to such agents as they shall appoint to receive the same; and that payment of said instalments be made on or before the second Monday of August next, or the shares of subscribers failing to pay, will be sold at auction in the town of Halifax, in North Carolina, on the Thursday next preceding the fourth Monday of September next.

FREDERICK RANDAL, Treas'r.

26th June, 1820.

Wilson & Shelton,

Chair makers, House and Sign Painters. RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and the public in general, that they have commenced the above business in all its various branches. Their work shall be executed in a style equal, if not superior, to any done in this part of the state. Those wishing to purchase can call and judge for themselves, at the shop next door to Messrs. Savage and Stedman's.

Raleigh, February 18, 1820.

One or two apprentices will be taken to the above business.

For Sale

ON accommodating terms, half of Lot No. 33, in the town of Haywood. Also Lot No. 441, in the addition laid off to said town, both unimproved.—Apply to THOS. G. SCOTT.

Raleigh, April, 15, 1820.

New Stage.

THE Subscriber, agreeably to contract with the Postmaster-General, has commenced running a mail stage from Halifax Court-house, in Virginia, to Salisbury, in this state; and having provided excellent Horses and careful Drivers, he hopes for encouragement.

This Stage leaves Halifax C. House every Saturday morning at 4 A. M. and passing through Milton, by Casswell C. H. Lenox Castle, Greensborough, Salem and Lexington, arrives at Salisbury on Tuesday at 10 A. M. and returns from Salisbury the same day at 1 P. M. and reaches Halifax C. House every Friday evening at 7 P. M.

JOHN MORING.

Raleigh, May 3, 1820.

The Stage from Fredericksburg, which meets this Stage at Halifax Court House is in operation, and that which meets it at Salisbury and goes to Powelton, in Georgia, where it meets the Milledgeville Stage, will be in operation in a few days.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, the 8th May, 1820, a bright Mulatto man, by the name of ISHAM, six feet high, about thirty five years of age, raw bone, and active, slow spoken, with one of his foreteeth out, has a swelling on the side of his face, and was in the habit, while at home, of wearing a truss—also has a small bit of the lower part of one of his ears cut off, scarcely discernible. Said fellow was confined about five or six years ago, in Beaufort Jail, Carteret county, where, it is probable he may now make for. He attempted to pass as a free man when he ran away before. I will give a reward of twenty dollars, if delivered to me or confined in any jail so that I get him again.

May 15.

T. ALSTON.

AS it is my intention to settle in the out-part of the city, I wish to dispose of my town property. The improved lot on which I live is one of the most desirable in the city for a dwelling, and at the same time public enough for any business. I have two other lots very valuable on account of their relative situation, and of the handsome sites they afford for building. Purchasers are invited to view the premises.

Raleigh, 1st June, 1820.

H. POTTER.

Entertainment

At the sign of the Cross Keys, Raleigh. THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the public that he still keeps a house of Entertainment at his old stand, and offers board for man and horse at one dollar and sixty cents per day, during the summer season, provided they remain a few days. The reason of this change, is that it is attended with less expence—even the article of fire wood is an item of consequence.

JOSIAH DILLIARD.

Raleigh, May 26, 1820.

The gentleman who stayed with me last Federal Court, and left his great coat and took one belonging to Mr. Long, of Randolph, is requested to return the same.

J. D.

P. S. The subscriber keeps horses and chairs to hire, to those that can come well recommended.

MUSEUM.

THE Museum lately belonging to Mr. Lawrence of Newbern, has been removed to Raleigh, and is, with the addition of many other articles, opened for exhibition in a spacious room in the old Star buildings. It is now the property of a Lady, who will devote her time and attention to it, and who is anxious to increase its attractions and usefulness. Donations of whatever is rare and curious in art or nature, will be thankfully received, and articles deposited in loan will be taken care of and duly returned.—Admission, 25 cents.

Raleigh, July 20, 1820.

For Sale.

ON unexceptional terms, or exchange, for good land near Raleigh, fourteen hundred and twenty two acres of the best land in the Southern section of Kentucky, lying convenient to Navigation. Apply to Thomas Cobbs, for particulars.

Raleigh, June 29th 1820.

26-6c

A valuable Tract of Land for Sale.

PURSUANT to a decretal order of the hon. court of Equity for Warren county, made at April Term 1820, in the case of an ex parte petition filed by James Gordon and wife and others—I shall, on Saturday the twenty sixth of August next, proceed to sell at public auction, at the court house in Warrenton, that valuable tract of land belonging to the estate of the late Edward J. Jones, dec. whereon he formerly resided, situate in the county aforesaid, near the Shocco Springs, adjoining the lands of Dr. John Brodese, George Murphey, Gen. Wm. Williams, Hill Jones and William D. Jones, containing by estimation eight hundred acres. It will be sold on a credit of four years, payable in equal annual instalments, with interest from the date. Possession will be given on the first day of January next. Bonds with approved security will be required.

This situation was so well known as a boarding house for visitors to the Shocco Springs during the life of its late proprietor, and presuming that those disposed to purchase will view the premises prior to the day of sale, it is deemed unnecessary to give a particular description of the land. The dwelling house, out houses, &c. are in good repair.

Taken up & committed to Jail,

A NEGRO man who calls himself John, and says that he was purchased by a Mr. Turner, a negro trader, some time in April last from Thomas Spain, in Gloucester county, Virginia, that he ran away from the said Turner about three or four weeks ago. The said negro John appears to be about twenty-eight or thirty years old, stout built, five feet five and a half inches high. The owner is requested to come forward, prove his property, pay charges, and take him away.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber living within one mile of Wadesboro' Anson county, on the 4th day of this month (June,) my Negro Man WILLIS, about 22 years of age, 5 feet, 9 or 10 inches high, dark complexion, Willis is a very stout, likely, sensible fellow, will probably attempt to pass himself for a freeman; he wore away a blue cloth coat, green pantaloons, and fur hat; he was raised in Norfolk Virginia by a Mr. Sharp where I expect he will try to get; he can read and write his name, has some knowledge of figures, beats the drum and plays the fife. The above reward will be paid to any person who will deliver the said Negro to me, or secure him in any jail in the state so that I get him again.

ARCHIBALD SMITH.

Trades-Hill, Chatham, July 6, 1820.

Stolen,

FROM my stable on Saturday last, a sorrel HORSE, about 8 years old, 4 feet 8 or 9 inches high, has some little white in the face and I believe about the feet, his main bushy from having been roached, and has the appearance of having been sicked; goes well in harness and has the marks of traces, paces well under the saddle; I had him from Robert High, jr. and have frequently driven him to the lower counties.

I will give a reward of Fifty Dollars for the delivery of the horse to me and of the thief to the Sheriff of Wake, or I will make a suitable compensation to any person who will return the horse to me or inform me where he is. I think it not improbable that he was rode off by a negro and is now wandering at large.

Valuable Land and Mills

FOR SALE.

THE subscriber will sell on the most accommodating terms, 600 acres of Land, or a part of it, within three and a half miles of Raleigh; on which, is a healthy high situation, where I now live—also, a Saw and Grist Mill nearly new, built on a very constant stream and runs with velocity. About 75 or 100 acres of the land is in cultivation, on which, is a very profitable Crab Apple Orchard, together with other kinds of orchards, containing 4 or 500 trees.—There is also, 40 or 50 acres of rich meadow land, which can be watered with little work from springs that never fail. The land is very heavily timbered, and a better watered tract cannot be found in the county—the soil is well adapted to the culture of wheat, corn, cotton and tobacco. Persons desirous of purchasing are invited to view the premises.—Terms and payment will be made easy.

Wake county, July 20.

WILLIAM DANIEL.

Committed,

TO the jail of Pasquotank county, as ranaways, two negro men, who call themselves JOHNSON, and WM. SHAYERS.—Johnson is a young likely fellow about 25 years of age, very black, about 5 feet 3 or 10 inches high, speaks rather slow, has a down look, and says that he belongs to a Mr. James Crooker, of the town of Washington in this state, and that he has been ranaway nearly five years.—William Shavers is about 4 feet 2 or 3 inches high, about 36 years of age, yellowish complexion, has a scar across his breast, and one on the ball of his right thumb, also, one on the right side of his left hand near the joint of his thumb; says he is free, and produced a certificate of his freedom, signed by James Rochelle, as Clerk of the Court of Southampton county, State of Virginia, but not having the court seal it is supposed to be a forged paper. The owner or owners of said slaves, if any, are hereby notified to come forward, pay expenses, and comply with the law in such cases made and provided, or else they will be dealt with accordingly.
