THE STAGE LINE

in Fayetteville, Tarborough being part of the Yorkville line.

I have disposed of my interest, to the highest bidder, under a deed of trust executed by the subscriber by the proprietor thereof, for the sum herein mentioned, at the Town House, Fayetteville, on Monday the 30th January last at 11 o'clock, A. M.

The Line consists of thirty houses, forty stages, and barns, &c., all in excellent condition, so as to give the present year, and there is no doubt of its becoming a great success.

In addition to the stage lines from Fayetteville to Tarborough, and the City of Washington, a very superior Steam Brig has been recently brought from the iron works to New-York, with the greatest success, which must advance the interest of the stage line.

Communications addressed to the Proprietor, or subscribers of this line, will meet with immediate attention, and all persons disposed to enter the society invited to do so.

Terms liberal, and will be made known on the day of sale.

LEWIS THOMAS, Trustee.

ON the 10th instant, between Germantown and town, or in the said town, a red moccasined Book of Books, containing the following papers, &c.

One note, dated the 6th of December, 1821, and due the following August, and a counter by Obadiah Holcomb, living in Buncombe county, N. C. to James Ziegler, of Stokes county, for 50 dollars, one ditto, of 13 dollars, executed by John P. Tigue, due the 25th instant; one of 50 dollars, due the 23rd December, 1822; one of 25 dollars, due between 5 and 8 months after. All of which were executed by said Tigue in the subscribers. The two first were executed on the 20th October, 1822, the other on the 9th November 1822. One on A. Vanhy, for 12 dollars, due one day after date, and executed the 9th day of November, 1822.

A proven account of James Nest, Lunenburg county, Virginia, on A. Rostich, Jr., with a few other papers of not much importance, which I cannot at this time recollect. I therefore forward all persons from trading for, or paying the same

Female Teachers.

TWO ladies (sisters) are desirous of obtaining a situation, in a healthy part of the country, as instructors of Females.

They will undertake to give to their pupils a complete English Education, including all the branches of science usually taught in the best Academies, together with the ornamental branches of Drawing, Painting and Music.

For further particulars together with testimonials of their character and talents, application (post paid) may be made to Andrew S. Jones

Williamsborough Academy.

THE Trustees of this institution can now confidently recommend it to the attention of the public. Mr. A. Wilson, who has conducted the Academy during the last year, to the entire satisfaction of the Trustees, has settled himself here permanently, and will continue to have charge of the institution.

The course of studies adopted is preparatory to the University.

Tuition fees $12.50 per session, for the languages, English grammar, and the sciences; and $5 for spelling, reading, and arithmetic.

A few boarders can be accommodated in the family of Mr. Wilson.

Board can be had also in the village.

REMOVAL.

JOSEPH ANDREWS & THOS. P. JONES, Proprietors of the above Academy, having disposed of their interest in the building lately occupied by them, have removed to the healthy and pleasant village of Williamboro, in Granville county, 18 miles west from Warrenton, where their school will open on the 2d Monday in January, 1822.

The pupils are instructed not only in the elements of knowledge, but also in the highest branches of science ever taught in Female Academies, including Grammar and Parsing, Belles Lettres, Geography, Chemistry, Botany, Natural Philosophy, Astronomy, &c. The principal courses of better Philosophical apparatus than most of our colleges; and lectures are delivered on the different subjects, accompanied with experiments.

Board and tuition, in all the above branches, 60 dollars per session.

Music, Drawing and Painting, and the Latin and Greek Languages are also taught, and charge as follows: Latin, 50 dollars; Drawing and Painting, 40 dollars; and the languages, 10 dollars per session.

The amount for board and tuition is payable in advance, and each lady is to furnish herself with a suitable pair of sheets, blankets and bedding.

New pupils may apply from the 1st of January to the 1st of March, 1822.

For further information apply to the Proprietors.
