ances has enabled some to perfor

 fhly gratified with thanding has be alacrity manitested by MajorThe efficiency of Capt. Armstrong? company, and energies of his men, have The preserved in an emininent degriee. skill in the management of his commian neatest confidence in the pliysica strength and force of his company. In this respect he' has satisfied his comWith Captain Riley, the Colonel commanding has been highty pleased, He has been skilfut, discreet and sucsessful in the management of his tmeo and the bont and pubtic property com mitted to hischarge. flis efficiency and prompness in the execution of orders, have been conspicuousad ditholy honor ble to him? D. Gale has not only performed hit Duty to the entire satisfaction of th dommandant, but he has done mores th Commandant, bat he has done more; to perform important duties, and partithe large boat, when she was sunk by a severe storm at night. He effected much, and in a manner bighly gratify ing to all who knew the circumstauces Although Lieat. Wicklife had the mis fortune to lose the boat which was com. anitted to his charge, it has been eviden that his zeal for the good of the public serviec has been equal to that of any other gentleman with the expedition. In every station in which Lieutenant Bradley lias been placed, he has given entire satisfaction, and would, po doult had he been put to a more serions trial To the gentleinen of the Staff gene rally, the Commandant returns his the duties of Quarter Master and Assist ant Comminssary, in the rinost correctand acceptable manners; and, in addition accepdered important services, by yolunreering his serviees as an extra Adjutant to the Missouri Legion, curing our ope rations. rations. Noel, in discharging, the duty lieut. Noel of Adjutait, has given the most entire of Adjutant, has given the most enture satisfactiou, and the fullest evidence o his ability to perforim still more impor his ability to perform stur tant service.
It has fallen to the lot of Lient. Mor ris, to perforn the most important du aes, and he has done so in a manne that cannot be too highly commended.
Whenour boats were lost, and much Whenour boats were lost, and much of our ammunition either lost or damaged in a great degree, we found it maged in a great degree, Trepheed and wel! prepared, by the ac tivity and attention of Leut. Morris, and that too without delaying the expe ditiona single hour. Citiona single hour.
Tise Lieutenant's direction of the artillery, would have done honior to a master of the trade The men who were of the trade, artiliery, deservenotice, and the appro bation of their conutry. They have tha of the Colonel of the Colonel commanding, in a hig degree; particularly, Sergeants Lathro and Perkins; the former of whom, with I erior shots: The Colonel commanding canno dismiss this subject without again mentioning his very great satisfaction wit the galiant and bonorable condact of Gen. Ashley, and his brave and hard little corps of monntaineers, althoug for several days entirely destitute: daring," withouta murmur. The Col nel commanding only regrets that b can offer them nothing hore substantia than his thanks.

We are happy to'state, that the Se retary of the Navy has sent a medica cretary of the Navy has sent a medic deputation to Thompson's Island, wi a view to enter into the critical exam ination of the state of our gallant little aquadron on that station; and with pow er, if such a step be judged necessary to arrest the progress of that fatal mafady which has already deprived us of so ma ay gallant officers ay gallant officers, and threatens a sti) nore extensive destruction to Jore extensive qestruction, to order the temporary abandonment of soinhospitaof four navy surgeons, who stand high on account of their talents and experience, and in whiom the people are just With a patriotic fearlessness and dis tre on his reputation, Commodore Rod gers has volunteered his services to ac company this delegation, and has lef For a time, the luerative station he ha Tited with so ibuch integrity and effect, missioners, for the purpose of acminis-

 So inportani to us, will commence at Joultrie, near this city, on Friday, the We received by the last mail one colk mails having arrived.
Co. Hnmpleys, Indian Agent for the Territorp of Plorida, withatiout 300 The Territory of Plorida, withalhout 300 In the vicinity of this city, on Friday on the , who was employed with other motion, and will asy, sec. are now in day last a week. He rematined on the same bank of the river during the tine the other Chiefs and Monday or Taesday.next. The liands were at work, and when theyceasribes are reported to be favorably dis- with then. Finding himselftooill toprowill be made them through the CommisStatess. by the Esecutive of the United Col. Homphreys, with his detachcircuitous route, and in crossing rivers and many smaller strewns intersecting complished his march from 8 . Marks in 15 tays. We are informed that he speaks, lavorably of the practicatility fa good and direct road from hence o the wesiern parts of the Territory of Plorida, and that with such a Corida, and that with such a highway the journey hence to St. Marks may be pertormed in six or seven days, This is approximating the two extrenes, Eas and West of the Territory of E. nearer to each other than was anticipa ted, and will have the happy effect o removing any erroneous impressions of the geographical divis ons of interes and make us feel as an united people.

The trial of the Rev. William Hogan charged by Mary Barry with being the father of her infant child, closed on Sa turday afternoon, having occupied the Mayor's Court during one entire week He was pronoticed by the jury "not ed to pay the costs. ear, that Mr. Hogan has been arraign ed and tried for a crime peculia-ly in consistent with his character as a Homin Catholic priest. Of his entire in noeence, the tribunals of his countr have twice declared. ly convincel.-P/ril. paper.

By the arrival of the brigantine $U$. dandted, Captain Hatton, in 38 days froo Demerara, we have received the Roya Gazette of August 2 sd, by which we learn that thi IIland las been put under Martial Law in consequence of a very Martial Law in consequence of a ver serious instirrection of the blacks. prencher had been put in confinement charged with being the instigator of the that he would be thung. Many of the negroes had been killed by the troops sent against them, and

tions lad taken place

Dissensions in New Orleans. - The ifferences between the French and the Siw Orleans, scen to be on the eve the of the 8th January, 1815, that ch orining and keeping up regular an veh disciplined voluntcer companie They have generally, in consequam nd manners, Kept up the distinctio Americans, (emigrants from the oth tates). This has been frequently ductive of nhappy schiseqs, The I islature, some four or five ormed a lecion or five years sinc olunteer companies; and in consef danger, authorising the enlistment of sed, have crept into their rarks, and have latterly become so fornidableas to One of these, Mr, Cuvillier, was about rear since appointed a major in the ested against the appointment. The outigana Guards, upder the command Captain Eitward Fenno, positively efused to obey the orders of the alien najor. Capt. Fenpo has been iereguajor acrest. Fenpo and tried been itregtariy alien court martial. and deprived of his aand, as well as depprived of his comclared discualified from lolding any protested and determined to support making his appearance, sote, however ter darke after dark, Mr. Billings, the saperintendant , gathered the men together again ant, gaticred the men together again, and poceeded with them to the place where they supposed they had left him, and searched alt night, but without find ing him. On the next day, anothe ing him. On the next day, another search was nade with a stronger party day last, four days aster, his body wa fiund by two negroes in a corifield, a bout half a mile from where he had been leff, and shocking to relate, partially de left, and shocking to relate, partially de voured by the bazzards!. His, howel were entirly forn ouf, and his flesh in were entrly forn out, and his lissh

Philadelphia, Sept. 20. Extraordinary Suicite, This morn ing, between two and three b'clock an unhappy man, styling himself J. M Crom 1809 to 1819 at the sovereigCourt of Caen in France, put an end to his existence in a singula

Mr . de Mombray's mind had been fo many years past many years past hauuted by many imaginary foes. He was the special object of vengence of vengeance with the French govern ment, whose displeasure he fancied he had incurred by his political opinions had incurred by his politioal opinions, and by exposigg the abuses of men in authority. The emissaries of France seemed to have little to do but to work his destruction. They hall poisoned al the wells in his neighboriood, afid when the wells in his neighboriood, anfd when Mr. De Mombray wanted a drink of water, he was obliged to go from his own house itr 9 thrstreet, near Lombard as far perhaps as the Northern Libettees. Sometimes he tok a boat, and from the niddleof the Delaware ebtained the necessary supply of pure water It was equally difficutt for hain to obtain a wholesome loaf of bread. In vain was it that Mr. De Mombray published adlarge rewards for the diseovery aud pro lation secution to conviction of those person who were plotting against his life. In vain was it that fee appealed for tance to his brother masons, amon whom he had been for ten years a pas master Whom he had been for ten years a pas master. The nomber of his, enemie increased rathec than diminished; and increased rathee than dimisished; an iome of our newspaper editors fell un der suspicion for refusing to publish thi advertisments, though he was eonvince that the refctance of others to insert fthem arose from a dread that they als would be poisoned if the would be poisoned, if they exposed th designs of the French emissaries., He dwelt alone, not daring to trus He dwelt alone not daring to trus another person in fhe house with him and nuder continual ureal of attacks on nd ander continual tiread of attacks his life. It was this state of mind inhich made himin look upon almost ever man as his, enemy, which probably, le him this moring to put an end to his terrestrial sufferings. He Het fire to tagazine of powder, and blew out the he dwelt. This morning the remains of the unhappy Mr. De Mombray were taken fromampong. the ruins. He was a man of elegant appearance and refined man of elegant appea mainners.-Phil. Gaz.

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \begin{array}{l}
\text { From the Buffalo Journal of sept. 23. } \\ \text { "Poor old Rovinson Cuso.,"-W } \end{array} \\
& \begin{array}{l} \text { "Poor old Rotinson Crusoe,"-We } \\ \text { earn that, when the storm of the } 7 \text { th } \end{array} \\
& \begin{array}{l}
\text { nhat when the storm of the } 7 \text { th } \\ \text { Commienced, Major Keler, former- } \\ \text { of Onondago county in this state } \end{array} \\
& \begin{array}{l}
\text { or Onondago countys in this state, } \\ \text { as passing with a dacyhter, } 16 \text { year } \\ \text { age, in an open boat, from one of then } \end{array} \\
& \begin{array}{l}
\text { ab, passug with a datughter, } 16 \text { year } \\ \text { age, in an open boat, from one of the } \\ \text { ut }-\mathrm{in} \text { Bay Islands, to Port Livirence, } \end{array} \\
& \begin{array}{l}
\text { When about } 20 \text { miles on their way, the } \\ \text { oit was wrecked on the " Western Sis } \end{array} \\
& \begin{array}{l}
\text { er." A desolate ldyand of about } 100 \mathrm{a} \\ \text { res. With an old axe, the crew } \end{array} \end{aligned}
$$

land.

eilim and happy dey, but atar fithuth set noon, and slirouded thioi foys in gloony so

An A pprentice,

Just Published and for Sale, Bell &c lawrence'g$A B M T A D A B C I$

 $2 \pi+3$ Examsaxata State of Nortl-Carolina, Randoph Cotenty.
Pleas and Ouarter A Angust Terin, 1823 .

wil.eives Rewnad.

ci) Country Myerchantitind bther can be

