A PROCLAMATION,
By the Governor of the State of N. Carolina.
$250 Reward.
WHEREAS, it hath been manifested to me that a certain HARDY G. WHITFIELD, of Nash county, in the state aforesaid, stands charged, by the verdict of a Coroner's Inquest, with the murder of a certain Eli Vick, of the said county and state, farmer, on the 25th day of July last past; and that it is further represented and manifested to me, as well by the warrant of one of the Justices of the Peace of Nash county, as by the return endorsed on the said warrant, by a Constable of the said county, that the said Hardy G. Whitfield hath absconded and fled from the jurisdiction and limits of the said state, and thereby eluded the arm of the law and of justice.
Now, therefore, to the end that the said Hardy G. Whitfield may be apprehended and brought to justice, the above reward, of two hundred and fifty dollars, will be given to any person or persons who will apprehend, and confine the said Hardy G. Whitfield in any jail in this state, so that he may be brought to justice; and I, moreover, do hereby require, enjoin and command all officers whatsoever, as well civil as military, within this state, to use their best endeavors, and most energetic exertions to apprehend and take, or cause to be apprehended and taken, the body of the said Hardy G. Whitfield, and him safely and securely keep, so that he shall be brought to justice.
Hardy G. Whitfield is a little more than forty years old, and about five feet seven or eight inches high, with dark hair, fair complexion, grey eyes, double eye-teeth and nose turned down at the end; is well made, weighs about one hundred and fifty, and has a tetter-worm over his head and ears that is very plain. He is very fond of spiritous liquors, and when sober, a man of ingenuity, and somewhat of a blacksmith.
In testimony whereof, I have caused the great Seal of the State to be hereunto affixed, and subscribed the same officially, at the Seat of Government of the State of North-Carolina, in the City of Raleigh, on the 13th day of September, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three.
