Look Here.

Last November Court, a boy Horse, the property of the subscriber, was taken from Pittsburgh by Mr. Womble, through mistake, I presume, he thinking him to be his own horse. Mr. Womble rode him to his residence, (Deep River, Crutham county, N. J.) during which time it seems he was unable to discover his error—he still supposing him to be his own horse, let him loose, thinking he would continue about his plantation; he has never since been heard of—it is a horse of ordinary size, and trots tolerably hard; his hind feet are white, extending ten or twelve inches above the hock; his ears are remarkably small. There are no other particular marks remembered. Any information respecting him will be thankfully received & liberally rewarded by the subscriber living in Orange county, N. C. near Murphy's Mills.
