Ran Away. FROM the subscriber, living near Raleigh, on the 19th instant, a negro girl named FANNY, 20 years old, yellow complexion, common size. I believe she has a small scar on her face, and one on her foot. She had on when she went away a brown frock, copper and white buttons, white calico sun bonnet, and took with her a black tomahawk and a white sprig muslin frock. She will attempt to pass as a free woman, or may have a forged pass. I think she will go to Newbern, where she went on a former occasion, when she ran away, and remained some time. I will give Ten Dollars to any person who will take her up, and secure her in jail so that I get her again. HARRIS KING. Dec. 21, 1825. 5c-4f

100 Dollars Reward. RAN AWAY from the subscriber, at Tallahassee, about the 30th July last, a negro man named ESSEX, about 35 years old, light complexion for a negro, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches in height, at or made, cross-eyed, lame in one leg, occasioned by a burn when small, a piece of one ear cut off, (believed to be the right) has a small foot, & a downy look when spoken to. It is possible he may have obtained forged papers for the purpose of passing as free. All persons are forbid harbouring him under the severest penalties of the law. The fellow originally came from the neighborhood of Deep River, North Carolina, and was sold to me by Gen. Jno. Graham, of Huntsville, Alabama. I am inclined to believe he has shaped his course to North Carolina; and that he is some where in that state at this time. I will give the above reward for said negro Essex, if delivered to me at Demopolis, Murengo county, Alabama, or to Major R. Lewis, Tallahassee; or Fifty Dollar for his apprehension and confinement in any Jail in the United States, so that I can obtain him. Any information, by letter, addressed to Major R. Lewis, Tallahassee, Florida, will be thankfully received. CHRISTOPHER C. STONE. Tallahassee, Florida, 1-6w Nov. 16, 1825.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

It was our intention to have published the report of the Secretary of the Treasury entire; but, in consequence of its unusual length, we find it impossible to do so, without excluding every thing also from our columns. The following abstract of its contents, which we copy from the National Journal, will, however, furnish our readers with the substance of the document:

The actual receipts into the Treasury during the three first quarters of the year 1825, are estimated to have amounted to $31,681,444 56.

Viz: Customs, 15,196,397 80; Public lands, 976,902 67; Dividends on stock in the Bank of the U. S. States, 367,500 00; Arrears of internal duties and direct taxes and incidental receipts, 98,886 29; Repayments of advances made in the War Department, 41,738 60; Loan under the act of May 26, 1824, 5,000,000 00; Total, 21,681,444 56.

And the actual receipts into the Treasury during the 4th quarter of the year are estimated at 5,100,000 00.

Making the total estimate of receipts into the Treasury during the year 1825, and, with the balance in the Treasury on 31st of Dec. 1824, of 1,946,597 18.

An aggregate of 28,728,041 69. The expenditures during the 3 first quarters of the year 1825, are estimated to have amounted to 20,190,979 91. Civil, diplomatic and miscellaneous, 2,098,525 16; Military service, 4,890,500 59; Naval service, 9,127,156 27; Public Debt, 11,074,987 79.

And the expenditures during the 4th quarter are estimated at 3,253,000 00. Viz: Civil, 445,000 00; Military, 960,000 00; Naval, 820,000 00; Public Debt, 1,028,000 00. Total, 3,253,000 00.

Making the total estimated expenditure of the year 1825, 23,443,979 91. And leaving in the Treasury, on the 1st day of Jan. 1826, an estimated balance of 5,284,061 78.

Should the expectations respecting the receipts of the 4th quarter of 1825 be realized, the receipts of the year will have exceeded the estimate of the Treasury made at the last session, by about $500,000.

It is observed by the Secretary, that of the above estimated balance of $5,284,061, the sum of $3,500,000 is not subject to appropriation, being the estimated amount which will remain on the 31st December next, unsatisfied, of appropriations heretofore made.

Of the residue of $1,784,061, the Secretary observes, it is proper distinctly to state, that about a million cannot be counted upon in any estimate of effective funds, being made up of debts due the United States from various banks, whose notes were received by the government during the suspension of specie payments, or which were used as Banks of Deposits; debts of which the recovery must in regard to a large part, be doubtful and in any case slow.

DEBT. The total amount of funded debt on the 1st of October, 1825, was $80,985,537 72.

Of this amount, the only portion remaining unpaid of the revolutionary debt is the 3 per cents, amounting to 13,296,231. This and the subscription of 37,000,000 in the Bank of the U. States at 5 per cent. (the U. States holding an equal amount of that institution,) are redema-
