EXECUTIVE PROCEEDINGS. IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES. February 15.

Panama, the Senate ought to act with open doors, unless it shall appear that the publication of documents, necessary to be referred to in debate, will be prejudicial to existing negotiations.

Resolved, That the message of the President, in the following words, viz: "In answer to the two Resolutions of the Senate of the 15th instant, marked (Executive) and which I have received, I state, respectfully, that all the communications from me to the Senate, relating to the Congress at Panama, have been made, like all other communications upon Executive business, in confidence, and most of them in compliance with a resolution of the Senate requesting them confidentially."

Resolved, That the Senate has the sole right in all cases to determine what shall be the "rules of its proceedings," and that the President cannot interfere with the same, without violating the Constitutional privileges of the Senate.

Resolved, That upon the question whether the United States shall be represented in the Congress of Panama, the Senate ought to act with open doors, unless it shall appear that the publication of documents, necessary to be referred to in debate, will be prejudicial to existing negotiations.

Resolved, That the Senate having, on the 15th day of February, passed the following resolutions: "Resolved, That, upon the question whether the United States shall be represented in the Congress of Panama, the Senate ought to act with open doors, unless it shall appear that the publication of documents, necessary to be referred to in debate, will be prejudicial to existing negotiations."

Resolved, That, although the Senate cannot find, in the answer of the President of the United States to their resolutions of the 15th instant, relative to the proposed mission to Panama, any distinct information that the publication of the communications, alluded to in said resolutions, would or would not be prejudicial to existing negotiations, they find a strong objection on the part of the President, to the publication of those communications, inasmuch as they were made "in confidence, and most of them in compliance with a resolution of the Senate, requesting them confidentially."
