

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

THE STAR

RALEIGH, JULY 6, 1827.

Agreeably to our promise of last week, we lay before our readers, in this day's paper, the letter of the Jackson Committee of Nashville, in reply to the inquiries made by the committee of Cincinnati relative to General Jackson's marriage. It is a complete refutation of the slanders which have recently been circulated against that patriotic citizen and his lady, and is worthy of the particular attention of the reader.

Celebration of the 4th of July.—Yesterday being our National anniversary, was celebrated by our citizens in a style worthy the glorious recollections of that day, and creditable to a grateful, virtuous and enlightened community. It is true there was exhibited nothing of the pomp and splendor which may have been witnessed in other and larger cities; but that which is far more acceptable in the sight of Heaven, and equally expressive of the high estimation in which our Heaven-born and blood-bought privileges and immunities are held—the gratitude of the heart—was suitably expressed. The day was ushered in by the discharge of cannon; and at sunrise, the citizens assembled at the Presbyterian Church for the purpose of prayer—there, in the sanctuary of the Most High, to offer up "the enthusiastic language of the heart," when the throne of Heaven was successively addressed by the Rev. Dr. M'Pherson, the Rev. Mr. Blake and Mr. Dowd; a handsome and appropriate address was also delivered by the Rev. Dr. Freeman.

At half past 9 o'clock, our volunteer company of infantry formed in the Capitol square, where they continued on parade until half after 10 o'clock; at which time they marched to the Methodist Church, whither a large concourse of the citizens also repaired to continue the celebration. Then and there a prayer was offered up by the Rev. Mr. Blake. The Declaration of Independence was read by Thomas J. Lemay; after which a suitable Ode was sung with much animation, accompanied with music by the Band of the Blues; and an appropriate and eloquent discourse was then delivered by the Rev. Mr. Blake, from Colossians 1. 13. "Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son."

At 2 o'clock, a large and respectable number of citizens partook of a dinner prepared by Mr. Wedding, at the Concert Hall; at which his Excellency Governor Burton presided, assisted by Col. Wm. Polk, as Vice President. After the cloth was removed, the following toasts were drunk:

1. The day we celebrate—the birth-day of our Independence—its annual return inspires us with love and veneration for the Patriots who planned, and the Heroes who achieved it.
2. The memory of Washington, in the annals of modern greatness he stands unrivalled.
3. The memory of Thomas Jefferson, the author, and John Adams, the great advocate, of the Declaration of Independence, who, after enjoying the highest offices that the people could give them, and experiencing the blessings of a free Government for half a century, on this day last year, both slept with their Fathers.
4. The Officers and Soldiers of the Revolution, and the memory of those who are no more, their services were invaluable, their privations were great, such worth will not cease to be venerated by the American People.
5. The President of the United States.
6. The Congress, Representatives of a free people should possess independence enough to scrutinize into, and pass judgment upon the conduct of those in whom the weal of the Government is entrusted, without fear or hope of reward.
7. The Army and Navy.
8. The Militia.
9. South America and Greece—May all the Revolutionary troubles in which these countries have been involved, eventuate in the establishment of sound Republican Governments.
10. Agriculture, the foundation of our prosperity, Manufactures, essential to our welfare, and Commerce, the parent of wealth; each supporting the other, are best supported—No Legislative favoritism.
11. Internal Improvement—May our exertions to promote these great objects never be relaxed, until all our principal Rivers are rendered navigable, all our main Roads made good; and all our valuable Swamp Lands drained.
12. The University of North Carolina and other institutions of learning—Education engenders good feelings and principles, and these are the safeguards of every society.
13. Social Intercourse—May its harmony never be interrupted by illiberal or party feeling.

VOLUNTEERS.
By Gov. Burton. Education and a free government, twin sisters. The experience of ages has proven that the one cannot exist without the other.
By Col. Wm. Polk. Gen. Andrew Jackson—As a Military Chief, he stands pre-eminent; as a civilian, he has filled the most important offices in the gift of his State, and is what Pope says is the noblest work of God—an honest man, and worthy the first office in the gift of a free people.
By Gen. Lenoir, a guest. The U. States of America—May their union be so cemented by the blood of patriots and heroes, that it may be sufficient to withstand all invasion or domestic insurrection of party spirit.
By Mr. D. Clark, a guest. Lit. Taxwell—His great facilities have been advantageously exercised for the good of his country.
By Col. Davenport, a guest. Our wives, sweethearts and friends.
By Gen. Wellborn, a guest. The present administration—May it always be judged by its acts.
By Mr. H. M. Miller. The Union of the States—What the wisdom of Washington, Franklin, Jefferson and the elder Adams put together, let no man put asunder.
By Mr. S. Haywood. Our federal government, and those who administer it.

FORENOON.
1. Prayer by the President.
2. A Salutatory Oration in Latin.—Richard H. Lewis, Zelocomb.
3. An Oration on modern Literature.—Thompson Byrd, Cassell.
4. A Forensic Disputation. The merits of Lord Byron.—Warren Winslow, Fayetteville. John R. Williamson, Lincoln.
5. An Oration on Political Economy.—Alfred D. P. Nicholson, Chatham. Geo. M. G. S. Oration in French. Charles XII. of Sweden.—Lorenzo Lea, Leasburg.
7. A Forensic Disputation. It is to be regretted that our countrymen have as yet been so little devoted to Authorship.—C. W. Alexander, Mechlenburg. George Miller, Durham.

AFTERNOON.
8. An Oration in Greek. The death of Socrates.—Proctor, Hall. Irrell.
9. An intermediate Oration. On Poetry. Joshua H. Lindley, Greensborough.

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

...of the arrival of Lord... and that it uses every... that it has in its power... to secure the command of... a certain number of men... of Alexandria, who... resolved to measure his strength... with the English Admiral. Eight men... of war, two frigates, four corvettes, and... have already sailed from the... They will be followed... by thirty-six other men-of-war, and... many transports."

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
Goodwin Cotton Plaintiff
vs.
John W. Harrison Defendant
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, John W. Harrison, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette, for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September next, and reply to the property so attached, or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

Notice.
I wish to purchase six first rate horses, suitable for the Stage. The horses I wish to be from 5 to 8 years old. Apply soon.
MERRITT DILLIARD.
Raleigh, June 27, 1827. 28-6v

LETTERS
Remaining in the Post Office at Raleigh
1st July, 1827.

MARRIED.
At Halifax, on the 24th ultimo, Mr. Aquilla Womble to Mrs. Diana Sreaser.
At Kinston, on the 18th ult. Richard Gray, Esq. of Washington, to Miss Eliza Washington, daughter of John Washington, Esq. of Onslow county, on the 21st ult. Mr. Christopher A. Hatch, to Miss Ann Jones, daughter of the late Mr. Amos Jones.
Lately in Salisbury, Mr. James Harrison to Mrs. Mary Bellon.

DIED.
In this city, on Tuesday last, Mrs. Mary Bell, in the 77th year of her age. She had been for many years a worthy member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and bore the long and painful illness which terminated in her death with exemplary fortitude and resignation.
At Newbern, on the 27th ultimo, Mrs. Elizabeth Masters.
Lately, in Williamson county, Tenn. Maj. Joseph Branch, late of this State.

New Advertisements.
A Camp Meeting.
For Greenville county, will be held at Rock Spring Meeting house, in Greenville county, 10 miles east of Oxford, on commences on Friday, the 27th of July, and continues until Wednesday the 1st day of August next. The Local and Regional preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church are respectfully invited to attend, and also all those Methodist families who can conveniently leave their homes are requested to attend with their tents, prepared to encamp on the ground during the continuance of the meeting. Methodist friends and brethren, we invite you to seek in the spirit of prayer and of faith, that the great head of the Church may meet with us and make known his power in the destruction of the powers of darkness and the salvation of precious souls.
JAMES W. DUNAYE,
Oxford, June 25, 1827. 28-1v

Dancing School.
MR. ANDERSON, of Petersburg, Va. presents his respects to the ladies and gentlemen of Raleigh and its vicinity, and submits to their patronage his intention of opening, early in August next, a Dancing School; wherein his particular attention shall be devoted to the pupils entrusted to his care, and the greatest attention paid to their deportment. He will teach the most fashionable steps and dances, and so pains shall be spared by him to impart to scholars those solid and respectable manners which are so essential in society. From his experience, having been taught opera dancing, Mr. A. feels assured that he will be able to give entire satisfaction to those who may indulge him; as he will enable him to introduce something new in Raleigh.
Respectable references will be given on Mr. A.'s arrival in Raleigh.
Hillsboro, June 24, 1827. 28-4v

Ten Dollars Reward.
Ran away from the subscriber on the twentieth of last month (June), a negro woman, by the name of JUDA, about twenty-two years of age. She is rather slim built, small breast, white spots and looks very fierce when spoken to, talks considerably plain, and has some yellow complexion. It is expected that she is lurking about Raleigh, or in Buffalo District, in this county, or perhaps on White Oak or New Hope Creeks, in Chatham, as she or her husband has relations in those neighborhoods. I will give a reward of ten dollars, with such thanks, to any person who will apprehend and confine her in Raleigh jail, or deliver her to my home, sixteen miles south west of Raleigh.
GRAY B. BAIKER,
July 4, 1827. 28-4v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
John J. Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette, for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September next, and reply to the property so attached, or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Teste: J. W. HARRISON, C. C. C.
Issued 20th June, 1827. 28-6v

State of North Carolina,
Northampton County.
Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions—
June Court, 1827.
James Crump Plaintiff
vs.
Original attachment levied on Negroes Viny, Josiah H. Crump, J. London and Nat.
It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court, that the defendant, Josiah W. Crump, is not an inhabitant of this State; it is therefore ordered that publication be made in the Star and North Carolina State Gazette for six weeks successively, that unless the said defendant appear at the next Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to be held for the county of Northampton, at the Court House in said county, on the first Monday in September, and reply to the property so attached or plead, answer or demur, judgment final will be entered against him, and the property returned to the plaintiff's recovery.
Test