

THE STAR, and North-Carolina State Gazette, Published weekly by LAWRENCE & LEMAY.

TERMS: Subscription, three dollars per annum. No paper will be sent without at least $3 in advance...

JACKSON MEETING.

At a meeting of the friends of Gen. Andrew Jackson at Pithersburg, in the county of Chatham, on the 25th of April, 1893, near three hundred persons being present...

Whereas the fundamental principle upon which the whole system of our government is based, is the political equality of the citizens, and that the will of the majority should prevail...

National Gazette.

Colombia.—We have the Bogota paper, Gaceta de Colombia, down to the ultimo. It was supposed that the Congress of Oceana would be in full session about the first week of the present month...

Mobile, April 12.

The effects of the frost on Sunday last, the 6th, we learn, was severely felt in the county. Cotton and tobacco above ground was all cut off, and what remains is now cultivated, to a considerable extent...

On motion, Abraham Rencher, Dr. John H. Hawkins, Robert Marsh, Henry Moor and Joseph Ramsay, Esquires, were appointed Delegates to represent this county in the meeting to be held at Ashborough...

On motion, Charles J. Williams, Thomas Thompson, Dr. William H. Strong, Abraham Rencher and Ambrose K. Ramsay, Esquires, were appointed a committee of Correspondence...

proceedings of the court martial which tried, and the orders of General Jackson for shooting the six militia men, together with the official letters from the War Department...

About no one circumstance, in the lives of public men, have more misrepresentations, falsehoods, and forgeries been committed than in the case of the six militia men...

The Freeman of this country have a right to look to their Representatives in Congress for correct information on all political subjects touching their interests, and the Representative is bound to discharge this duty to his constituents...

But the Hon. John Culpeper is not the only member from North Carolina who has been engaged in the circulation of this infamous pamphlet...

On motion, Abraham Rencher, Dr. John H. Hawkins, Robert Marsh, Henry Moor and Joseph Ramsay, Esquires, were appointed Delegates to represent this county in the meeting to be held at Ashborough...

On motion, Charles J. Williams, Thomas Thompson, Dr. William H. Strong, Abraham Rencher and Ambrose K. Ramsay, Esquires, were appointed a committee of Correspondence...

men were tried by the Court Martial on the 5th of December, and sentenced to be shot. General Jackson approved the sentence on the 23d January, and they were not executed until the 21st of February...

It is said, that thousands and tens of thousands of this pamphlet of falsehoods and forgeries have been printed and circulated from Washington...

We regret being compelled to speak in such terms of severity of an act done by our Representative, but we owe a paramount duty to the public which no considerations shall deter us from performing...

From the Richmond Enquirer. Coming at last.—The following article is from the National Gazette of Thursday last: We observe the following sentence in a series of resolutions printed for some public meeting. "It is now ascertained that Mr. Adams made overtures to the leaders of the Federal party, before his election, offering in substance to bring them into power provided they would support him."

These they receive as a specimen of the electing falsehoods put in circulation under the authority of party assemblies. No evidence of the fact thus stated—nor the shadow of evidence—is extant or could be adduced...

Mr. Walsh is coming out at last. Days, and weeks, and months transpired, after the pledge was noticed in the papers, and yet Mr. W. preserved silence...

Mr. Walsh has given us his versions, and we give another—let the world judge between them—Mr. Webster applied to Mr. Adams to satisfy the hesitating federalists, who had votes to give...

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN? The shocking facts and circumstances which have been disclosed in relation to the means employed by Messrs. Adams and Clay, to secure for themselves the two most prominent offices in this government...

was warranted in declaring it his official letter that he, without the sanction of the President, had written the pamphlet, and how far he was warranted in authorizing the N. Y. American to contradict the whole story, in the most qualified terms...

But I think that light on the circumstances which were the cause of the Net Gazette was made, we submit the following: Extract of a letter from a gentleman of respectability to a gentleman at Washington, dated Trenton, April 29, 1893.

"The age of Chivalry."—The administration prints have again opened their attacks upon an injured and persecuted woman. Mr. Hammond, Editor of the Cincinnati Gazette, and the confidential friend of one of the Secretaries, has recently been on a visit to Washington...

Mr. John Binns, the notorious prototype of the present administration, and the notorious circulator of the Harris letter and the Coffin-bushills, has thrown out the following language about the best and the most popular officer under the government at Washington...

Mr. McLann is supposed to prefer Gen. Jackson; but at the same time he is understood to take no part in the election—He discharges his official duties with an energy and fidelity which have never been surpassed...