In 1522, Col. Dufar was fastened to his bed by six iron rings. Colonel Pailley was conducted to prison with a chain on his neck. An ancient Spaniard [M. Idorente] was banished for having written a history of the Inquisition. A young writer (M. Magallon) for infringing the laws of the press, was conducted to the depot at Poissy, chained with a galley slave. A ministerial writer (Mr. Martinville) was more fortunate, in only expiating in the gardens of Tivoli, an outrage against the chamber of Peers. ...These, with divers other charges of equal cruelty and wrong, were urged with great vehemence, and discussed with the usual interruption of French parliamentary proceedings. The result is not yet known. Whether a ministry can be called back to give an account, remains to be proved.—U. S. Gazette.

For a complete refutation of the charges propagated against General Jackson relative to the Burr conspiracy and a certain Indian treaty, the reader is referred to two articles in another part of this paper.
Mr. Adams has left Washington for his seat near Boston. Mr. Clay, Secretary of State, is in Kentucky; Mr. Porter, Secretary of War, has gone to New York, and it is said that Mr. Southard, Secretary of the Navy, is to start for New Jersey in a few days.

The election in Kentucky for Governor and Members of the State Legislature, took place on the 4th, 5th and 6th instant. We may, therefore, expect the returns in a few days. The only apprehension on the part of the Jacksonians appears to be, that they will not be able to rally their whole party in support of their candidate for Governor, Judge Berry, who, during the violent strife between the Old and New Court parties, took an active part in favor of the latter, and, consequently, opposed by a large number of the supporters of Gen. Jackson.
The editors of the Albany Advertiser and Philadelphia National Gazette, two respectable Administration Journals, have incurred the displeasure of several of the violent partizan prints of that party, because they do not credit the base slanders which have been fabricated against Gen. Jackson. The editors of the Albany Advertiser are accused of being "half and half" politicians; and the Richmond Whig has gone so far as to say, that Mr. Adams would find it to his interest to give the editor of the National Gazette an embassy to Mexico, provided he will join the Jackson side.

At a dinner recently given to Mr. McDuffie at Hamburg, that gentleman addressed the company at some length on the subject of the Tariff, and, in the course of his remarks, deprecated the idea of disunion.
Shocking Death.—The Rev. Pare Jean de la Boz, Kineno, Curate and Vicar General of the Roman Catholic Church of Dominion, one of the British West India Islands, came to his death some time in May last, in the following shocking manner: While taking his usual evening's ride, he unfortunately went along an unfrequented turn of the road, which had been left in a very bad state. After proceeding for some distance, he came to a place nearly impassable, and, it is supposed, in attempting to turn his horse, both horse and rider fell down a precipice of nearly three hundred feet perpendicular height, and were found the next morning dead at the bottom of the cliff. His death was deeply regretted and all possible honor paid him at his funeral.

Signs in North Carolina.—At a muster of Capt. Nance's company, in this (Wake) county, on the 5th instant, the vote of those present on the Presidential Question was, for Jackson 104, for Adams 5. Several declined voting.
At a muster of Capt. Lotis Burgess's company and tax gathering, held at Crowell's Cross Roads, in Halifax county, on the 2d instant, the vote was as follows: for Jackson 63, for Adams 5. "I think (says our correspondent) that there are in this county at least four Jackson men to one Adams man."
At a muster of Capt. Powell's company, in Richmond county, on the 19th ultimo, Jackson 40, Adams 26.
At a muster of Capt. Plimmet's company, in Lower Lenoir County, in Cumberland county, Jackson 55, Adams 19. At a tax gathering and muster of Capt. Moore's company, on the 2d inst. in the same county, Jackson 82, Adams 33. At a muster at Bine's, in said county, on the same day, Jackson 59, Adams 19.
At a muster of Capt. Barrett's company, in Moore county, on the 2d instant, Jackson 58, Adams 8.
In Rowan county—Capt. David Linn's company, on the 19th ultimo, Jackson 36, Adams 7, declined voting 41. Capt. Hugh Park's company, on the 21st, Jackson 25, Adams 13, declined 18.

Capt. Geo. Fitch's company, on the 21st, Jackson 44, Adams 22. Captain Nathan Cornell's company, on the same day, Jackson 58, Adams 11.
The Western Confederation, says that the negroes under Alexander's banner, on the 16th ultimo, the day were desirous of taking the city, but the Georgia being an Adams man, and knowing the company were strong in the Old Hickory, would not suffer them to enter their pretensions at that time, and in that way, but the day of November will bring candidates to those who would thus suppress the voice of the people.
At a muster of Capt. Raleigh's company, on Hunting Creek, in the Forks, on the 15th ult. (says the same paper,) a vote was taken of not only the materials, but of all the by-standers, amounting to more than a hundred people; Charles Anderson, Esq. a Soldier of the Revolution, stepped out for his compatriot in those "times that tried men's soul" and another gentleman walked out for the Administration; the whole assembly, save a few who did not vote, gathered round the veteran of the Old War, leaving the Adams man "all alone by himself."
At a company muster in Manners Neck, Hertford county, on the 2d instant, Jackson 81, Adams 5.

West India Trade.—Negotiations have been again commenced between his Majesty's Ministers and the Government of the United States, for reopening the commerce between the British West India Islands, and the ports of the Union.—Montreal Courier.
Milledgeville, August 7.
During Outrage.—A gentleman of Virginia, of the name of W. Boulton, on his way from Tallahassee, stopped in this place on Wednesday morning. He started again northward after taking breakfast. At about 12 o'clock the same day, and a few miles only from Milledgeville, he was attacked by two negroes, stabbed and robbed of about fifty dollars. He was besides much bruised by the blows he received while on the ground insensible. The wound is not mortal; a rib prevented the dirk penetrating to a vital part. The negroes have not as yet been apprehended, notwithstanding the exertions of the Police officers and other gentlemen who went in search of them. The money stolen from Mr. Boulton is thus described by him; a $20 bill of the state of Georgia; two $10's of the United States Bank; a $10 bill of the state of Alabama; and 5 or 6 in change—not recollected. This is the first time that a crime of this nature has been committed in this neighborhood, and especially in the day time. It is to be hoped that the perpetrators will be caught and brought to justice.

The Louisiana Advertiser states that General W. H. Overton (the Jackson Candidate) has been elected to Congress from the 3d Congressional District by a majority of 139 over his opponent Mr. Brent—and that it is more than probable that Mr. Saunders is also elected in opposition to Mr. Gurley. Further accounts from Louisiana, and particularly as regards the elections to the State Legislature, will no doubt go far to prove that that State has not deserted the cause of her deliverer.
Charleston Mercury.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Louisiana to his friend in Nashville, Tennessee.
"We have just ended the most severe election that I remember—Adams and Jackson, the watch-words. We have put down the Adams boys completely. Turner and Hamilton vs. Bernard and Pope."  "This is decidedly a Jackson State, and yet the Yankees have the talent to appear the strongest. By some incomprehensible magic they never let the question come fairly before the people. Saunders and Gurley are taking a "hip and thigh race"—Gurley getting at least 500 votes from the Jackson party. Derbigny will be Governor. Livingston will be left out, and I fear Brent will be rejected. Our party will not stick to the question. Still it is a Jackson State, as our November elections will demonstrate. We shall however have Jackson men enough elected to send Livingston to the Senate."

It has not been long since we announced the departure of one of our enterprising citizens to the north, to make the necessary arrangements for commencing manufactures in Jefferson county, Georgia. We have been just informed, that Col. BRETHAUFF, of our sister State, has gone north for the same purpose, in order to establish a Cotton Factory in Edgefield District, South Carolina. Success attends the laudable enterprise.
Since writing the above we have seen a subscription paper for stock to establish a Factory for Cotton and Wool in Richmond county, on which in less than an hour upwards of 8000 dollars were subscribed in this city.

The New-Haven Journal of Tuesday says, "Gen. Hoadley, erst late president of the Eagle Bank, was committed to jail in this city on Wednesday last, at the instance of the acting agents of said bank, upon this claim, we understand, of $1,500,000."

Pirates Captured.—Captain Hart, of the scho. Bellows, arrived at New York in 20 days from Mananilla, Cuba, in forms that information had reached that place from Kingston, Jam. that the British brig of war Fairy had succeeded in capturing a piratical schooner off the West end of Jamaica, after a running fight of 20 miles. On boarding they could not escape, several of the pirates jumped overboard and were drowned. About fifty were taken.

Assault with intent to kill.—Late in the evening of last Sunday, a negro named Hammond, the property of Richard Bradley Key, went into the kitchen of Mrs. Wright's dwelling house in this town, and made an assault on a negro, named John, belonging to Mrs. Nixon of Tappah sound, and gave him a blow with a knife. The wound is very dangerous and the issue is considered extremely dangerous by the attending physician. Hammond has "escaped" and the officers we understand, are in pursuit.
Mrs. Wright and family are at their residence at Wrightsville; and the house is left in charge of a negro woman servant.—Washington Recorder.

Melancholy Event.—On Sunday morning, the 13th instant, Mr. Thomas Barclay, of Scottsville, Albemarle, was missing. From the circumstance of his clothes being found in his room, apprehensions were entertained that he was drowned. A state of suspense continued until Wednesday morning, when his body was found floating a few miles below. The weather being very warm, it is supposed he had gone, in the night to bathe, when the river being high, he met his melancholy fate.—Mr. Barclay was a young man of talents, great respectability, and affectionately beloved by his friends, as evidenced by the deep and profound sympathy felt by all in the loss sustained by a devotedly fond mother and family.—Rich. Eng.

A Bet.—We are authorized by a Subscriber, to state, that he will make the following bet, and deposit the cash: Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars, that General Jackson will be elected President of the United States for the next term; and Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars that he will receive 150 Electoral votes.—Newbern Sentinel.
It gives us pleasure to hear several friends of the Administration in this town speak with regret and disapprobation of the lame and impotent attempt making to implicate Gen. Jackson in the Burr conspiracy. Such conduct is highly expressive of candid and honorable feelings, and evinces the liberality and good humor with which to a degree rarely equalled, we suspect, political discussions are conducted in our good town. The Presidential election is talked of as it ought to be, without the bitterness and heat which appear elsewhere, without exciting animosities, or interrupting the ordinary courtesies of good neighborhood.

Portrait of Jackson.—A very fine portrait of Gen. Andrew Jackson, was sold in this city on Thursday evening. A sale of portraits, pictures, &c. had been advertised, and in the notice it was stated that the portrait of Jackson would be sold exactly at nine o'clock; about 8 o'clock the auctioneer was induced by the solicitation of a few, to put it up at that hour. As few were present friendly to Jackson, it was sold for $4 50. At about 9, a large number of purchasers went to the auction room, and called for the portrait of Gen. Jackson. The first purchaser, for a long time refused to give up his bargain. At length he consented to do so, and the portrait was exposed to a new set of bidders, and it was at length bought by Mr. Archibald Weaver, for $33 50. Such is the value of even the likeness of the Hero of New-Orleans, the Farmer of Tennessee. It is proper to add, that the first purchaser generously presented five dollars to the original owner of the portrait.—Troy Budget.

A gentleman of New-York has received a copy of the Duke of Saxe Weimar's tour through the United States and Canada, in 1826, printed at Weimar, the present year. It is in an imperial octavo volume, of about 700 pages, embellished with a portrait of the author, with correct views of the Capitol at Washington, of the Schuylkill water-works near Philadelphia, the safety barges, on the North River, &c. and several maps, including those of the cities of New-York, Philadelphia & Pittsburg. In the list of subscribers, we observe all the monarchs of Europe.

A pitched battle.—Mr. Robert Owen, well known from his eccentric opinions and unique plans, threw down the gauntlet to the Clergy of New Orleans—and the people, "that all the religions of the world, have been founded in the ignorance of mankind; that they are directly opposed to the never changing laws of our nature; that they have been and are the real source of vice, disunion and misery of every description;" &c. with other strange propositions of a similar character.—No notice was taken of this arrogant challenge, until the Rev. Mr. Alexander Campbell, of Bethany, Brook county, Virginia, took it up, in the last number of his Christian Baptist.—He has offered to meet R. O. at any time within a year, and at any place equidistant from New Harmony and Bethany, such as Cincinnati or Lexington, in Ken. He pledges himself to prove in public debate, that Mr. O. is utterly incompetent to prove the positions he has assumed, &c. &c. We have not seen any reply from the New Harmonist—but it is probable that in the fury of his disputation, he may accept the terms, and rush to the rencontre.

Justice Justice.—An Indian and a negro were executed on the 12th instant, at Fort Mitchell, on the Catahouchee for the murder of Robert, a white man, who was coming through the Creek Nation. The negro with which he was murdered, was a small hatchet, or tomahawk. The Indian, in his own account, immediately confessed his guilt; but the negro broke from custody, although shot at several times, and pretty severely wounded in the attempt. He was immediately pursued by a company of Indians deputized for that purpose, and retaken—for who can escape the never slumbering vigilance of these avengers of blood, when once they have scented the foot steps of their victim?
A tribunal of Chiefs had been convened by the Agent, to sit in judgment on the two wretches, after which the negro, son of Little Prince, presided. The trial and execution occupied about an hour. The examinations being closed, and the order given, "Take them away and kill them!"—A Chief of the Creeks, as if anxious to vindicate the character of his Tribe from the stain of blood, rose to say something in exculpation. The presiding Chief drew out his long knife, and motioning it significantly to the speaker, while he extended his arm, and a dark frown lowered on his brow, gravely said,— "That's a bad talk; you'd better not make it!" The wretches were then taken to execution upon a log about a hundred yards distant, the Indian sitting across the log, about eight feet in advance of the negro. The executioner of the Indian was ready with his knife, and that of the negro, with his club. Both struck simultaneously. He who wielded the knife evinced some skill in teaching the heart through the left rib. The blade being buried to the hilt, one or two sudden turns were given to it, to make the stab effective.—Quick as light, the knife was withdrawn, and plunged in the opposite side. In doing this, the blade was bent nearly half double by the resistance of a rib. The executioner then placed it upon the log, and deliberately straightened it with his foot. The next thrust was more cautious and more successful. At this moment the negro sunk under the blows of the club, and both Indian and negro fell on the same side of the log together, without a groan, and to all appearance, without the yielding of a muscle. At this crisis, each executioner passed from his own to the other's victim, so that the club finished what the knife had left undone, and the knife drank the blood which the club had left.

Gov. Cass, and Col. Menard, of Illinois, have been appointed Commissioners to treat with the Sac, Fox, Winnebago, Ottawa, Pottawatomie, and Chippewa tribes of Indians, for the extinction of their title to the mining country upon Fever River, and also to a tract of land South of the St. Joseph of Lake Michigan, and to another, to connect the settlements of Indians. The season is so far advanced, that we learn it will be impracticable to hold the council this year for the lead country—it will be held next season. Some of the other objects committed to the commissioners will be effected this year.—Del. Gaz.

According to a statement in an Alabama paper, the value of steam boats and barges lost on the Alabama river, for the last seven years, amount to $378,000; and other losses are supposed to have been sustained sufficient to increase the amount to $400,000. For many months in the year this river is not navigable.
Yale College.—We are sorry to learn that a serious misunderstanding has arisen between the principals of this respectable institution and a portion of the pupils, which has resulted in an open rupture, and the withdrawal of nearly one third of the scholars. The circumstances of this unfortunate occurrence, we hear, were these: The scholars had become dissatisfied with their fare at commons, and several times petitioned for an improvement. At length some of them refused any longer to partake, and, in violation of the rules, withdrew from the public table. Four of these delinquents were expelled. This being deemed an act of injustice, a remonstrance was got up and signed by one hundred and forty four of the scholars, demanding the re-instatement of their fellows, and threatening in case of refusal to withdraw in a body from the college. The Faculty could not, without a relaxation of their laws, comply with this demand, and the resolution of the scholars was carried into effect on Saturday. About 40 of them arrived here yesterday morning on the way to their homes. A good deal of excitement prevails at New Haven on this subject.

Quackery.—A friend at Walpole, Mass. writes—"A man in this town, after having been sick with a fever had so far recovered that the physician had discontinued his regular visits, and the man was able to go about his work. He had, however, still remaining upon him a slight cough and the debility which always follows a fever. When recovering as fast as possible, he encountered one of the practitioners of the Smith and Thompson school, who persuaded him to be doctored with some medicine which would be almost instantaneous in its cure. The poor man walked some distance from his own home, to the residence of this friendly destroyer, took the prescribed dose, probably Lobelia, or India To-
