RAPH CAROLLING SEPARE CAN RALEIGH, N. C. JUNE 25, 1829

oling State Gazet weekly, by RENCE & LEMAY

NATIONAL FEELINGS. loud torrent and the ind's roar them to their native

Goldsmith tiful and patheticsong of is known to, and admired by we an ear for music or a soul y; but heard by a highlander ant land and amid other e effect is similar to that prothe Swjas by their ontional nz des Vaches-it inspires a carnest longing to return to of their nativity, the early their youth. The following as related to me by the medman who witnessed the eft the same time that it tends borate my assertion, it also no powerful is the sympathy etween this our "tenement and its celestial inmate, the the fate of Dr. C to accom lighland regiment across the to " a fac distant shore." ion where the troops were enwas very healthy, the climate rly good; judge then of the of the good doutor to find his falling sick daily, and his hosled with invalids-wniist, as not discover the disease, he oply no remedy.

calling the muon shone so unoright, the scene from his winso lovely, as the beams play the rippling water, or gave shadow to the magnificient rees near his abode-that he apted to take a solitary ram Musing on days long past, pleasures gone forever by:" ud of the bagpipe struck upon and attracted him towards the ks, where the piper was playing. most touching manner, Lochaber no more!

to return to Lochaber no more." approached the large room un-d, and tooking in, found all his imbled, and all in deep emoclined against the wall, many warfare, and laying hold of the Consta thrust him "neck and theets" out of the house, the old iman " assisting, aiding and abetting" the white. For this,

warm for some days past, and with a appointed republicans of '98, who had Judge should make a full court. solitary exception its enervating effects have been apparent in the conduct and country. They were poor, and urged that they should send this evening to inquishment of dower, and that it is will not only neave interesting to your proceedings of the opposition. The that the salutary principle of rotation in office, should be carried into effect. New Jersey, with the view of obtain in office, should be carried into effect. Their wishes were complied with; and States' Librarian, who was very po-litely informed, a few days since, that I have no doubt but very many Post quire the presence of the grand jury favoritism throughout the whole trans- communicate it as nearly as possible, the system of reform, which has thus masters, similarly situated with those from day to day. Far been pursued with great singleness referred to, who have been in office. It is protable that the opinion of the of purpose, and will secure to Gen many years, and grown wealt'y from court on this demurrer, will not be pro-Jackson the gratitude of posterity, ren their appointments, will be removed to nounced for a day or two. On Mondered it necessary its him to sacate his ten the thoughts of the most pugnacious. |qually honest and capable, and who that the organs of combativeness were so developed in the perieraueum of the Librarian as to induce an open declara (pat object is, to purify the body politic. tion of war against the government of regenerate and invigorate the institu the United States; consequently, when tions of the country, and ravive those the little gentleman refused to vacate, habits of republican simplicity which and set at mught the combined power of the President and his Cabinet. they were literally taken by surprise. and found themselves placed in a pre-dica neot as rare as it is awkward. The me recumbent on the floor, through the rashuesss and folly of a if he had secured ins re-election, would ess intrudes. At length, finding that heir enemy was bet one, they magnan mously laid down there weapons of rarfare, and laying hold of the Consta le, they speeduly and unceremoniously brust him "neck and heets" out of the nuse, the old man " assisting, aiding and alterting" the while. For this, here were all indirected at the present rendered important services, to the have been found active in bringing into power an administration whose princi can alone give happiness to our country. and guaranty the perpetuity of our go vernment.

and one, burying his face in rant & reckless military chieftains as great an extent as General Jackson ran-incumbents wealthy, and the persons deferred until the presence of the Chief and Mr. Newton's tille (founded on rather than says, that he had claim "I was the second, I think, in command to Pac-It is said that Mr. Adams made no commissions in 1800. The Telegraph kenham, and wounded at the battle of Or Navy some two or \$5,000 for a transary of terial facts the Navy, w of his Co and upon his own con $\begin{array}{l} \begin{array}{l} \mbox{there} & \mbox{the result} & \mbox{the result}$

and Mr. Newton's title (founded on A MELAN HOLY STORY some Escheat) are not set out in the Caps Girardess, (Missouri,) May 2, 1829, face of the Deed-that there is no re-Mr. Swann and Mr. Key announced face of the Deed-that there is no reaction -lb.

make way for those who have been less day, we presume the motion of Mr. lowing letter in the National Gazette distance of its confluence with wann and Mr. Jones will be argued. of Thursday; and have pleasure in re- Mississippi, one of his r June 16. publishing it in our columns. The il- (whose retired babits, and melan On the opening of the Court this liberal feeling towards this country, aspect had been a subject of an morning. Judge Marsell announced that displayed in the article in the Quars tion, for some days, for the orew. he had received a letter from Chief terly Review, is happily becoming more ded him a letter directed to W Judge Cranch stating his loability to and more unpopular in Europe; and we ton City, requesting he would a stepd, on account of continued indisabits of republications implicitly which an alone give happiness to our country and guaranty the perpetuity of our go ernment. There are in all 8,000 Postmasters that duy. The arguments on the ex-that duy. The arguments on the ex-that duy.

as I received it. Captain Gree sobbed alond. My friend to his quarters; on the following he sent for the piper, and, im to secreey. commanded hun e to play nothing but lively airs, trathspeys, and marches; but m pain of his displeasure, to Lochaber again. The piper the effect was magical-the revived, and in a very short t one remained in the hospital. anecdote, which I know to be spired me with a most ardent to see Luchaber; scenes must be al which produce such a power ct on the mind. Last summer through the magnificient scenee northern lakes of Scotland, pon Lochaber; Ben Nevis rearrowned head-at his base stood er of miserable hovels, in a where every breeze that passes spers " ague"-each hut is form and and surf gathered from the heneath their feet; a hole in the rms the chimney—a hole in the the window and in some of indow and door in one-not a be seen-yet dear as life to the ader is the memory of Lochaulion a Constables .- " There is for all things," & officers of the uld take heed at what time, and what circumstances, they enter 'castles' to levy executions. the honorable fraternity of Conin this county, being desirous of ing his induction to office by se worthy explicit, determined e his first essay by entering a which thro' the aid of blots s had for some time proved im. ible to every attempt of the kind not being sanctioned by the law, a compelied to resort to strata Stationing his predecessor in of at a considerable distance as a de reserve, he approached the illdomicil a little before the dawn ay, accompanied by a friend. latter using some feigned excuse y knocked at the door, which aping opened by the old man, afford ee ingress to the Constable, who kly availed himself of the opportua effect an entry. This was a clever and ingenions contrivance, a sad reverse awaited our hern, officer!" exclaimed the old man, in a twinkling, the old tramon and or three strapping daughters boun out of bes, and seizing each a k of fire, flourished them effect round the head of the luck.

tempted to remove from office so important a personage as the Librarian of removals on political grounds, but it is asserts, that this extravagant claim of leans, on the name of Gen Jackson being former composure. The budy sunk the United States, without first con also said, and with truth, that he abcentrating at this place our small but centrating at this place our small but stained from doing so because he was of for the first time, and has been got there was no individual whom he was do individual whom he had taken minimate who he such retaring the normalized marines and the miltin of few handred marines and the the miltin of the District? Who could have believ ed that the predictions of the virtuous Adams and his still more virtuous adhe-rents, whuld so soon have been realized? Oh, deluded fellow citizens of the Uni-ted States! why did you not listen to the tot States! why did you not listen to the voice of wisdom? Why did you huri I venture to predict that no removals per cent. Does counsel think, that it. from power the virtuous and patriotic under the government will be made with is competent for any officer, after let ci izen who in the day of adversity more judgment, or prove more satisfied ting his (account lay over for so many preached to the nations of Europe of tory to the country, than those in the years, without the commission being re-our power and resources. A man who Post Master General's Department gulady allowed to him, to pay himself at Glient so n bly contended for our He is one of the most clear headed, and out of the monies in hand, and thus exclusive rights to the mighty Mississ intelligent men that I have ever met try to square accounts?-It this be the ippi-who at Washington so bravely re- with, and his being called to take mode of doing busines at the Treasury English travelier, to General Jackson's acuted the insults of power less Biazil charge of the Post Office Department of the U. S -If Mr. Fillebrown can and so generously fostered and pre is another evidence of that correct pay himself an extra commission of 1 served our West India commerce knowledge of min ind and discrimina per cent. on his disbursements, and -he who arrayed around him the ting judgment, for which Gen. Jackson Mr. Nourse 21 per cent, upon his dis-talent and the virtue of the nation, and has so long been remarkable. bursements, and some Clerk of the talent and the virtue of the nation, and has so long been remarkable.

retained in power the honest Watkins and the generous Nourse!-But alas! alas! the suicidal act has been perpetrated, and our sighs and regrets are alike unavailing. The civil war which was so confidently predicted has commenso confidently predicted has commen-ced, and there is no salvation for us but by hurling from office the powers that be, and once more calling from his re-tirement the Clacinnatus of America & his associate heroes. So confidently predicted has commen-gather Di traday, by Mr. Coxe, for the a cased, and by the District Attorney and Mr Key, in behalf of the United livered an argument against the indict-Mr. Watterston is now under discus-his associate heroes. P. S. I have just understood the grounds on which the Librarian refu opposition to which are, first, that it is we shall submit both sides hereafter. Sees to vacate his office. By a law of precisely to the same effect as the in-Congress, the Librarian is required to dictment for forgery, ignored by the give such security as shall be approved grand jury on Thursday, and secondly, brary; and if these were not sufficient, by the President of the Senate and the that the abstract of account in which that Mr. Watterson was one of the Speaker of the House. Mr. Cathoun the ensures are alleged to have been main prompters, if not contributors to have approved of the security offered by made by Dr. Watkins, is not an instru- the "We the People blackguardism." the new Librarian, but the term for ment of such a nature that a forgery of —The Telegraph states, that Mr. W's which the late Gongress was elected it can be committed ameanable to the bond was not a legal bond, but inchoate having expired on the 4th of March law. last, there is no such officer as Speaker On moved." What renders this opposimoved!" What renders this oppost tion still more rediculous, is the fact of an indictment, which they consid-that at the same time to is claiming to of an indictment, which they consid-retain his effice because the security of-fered by his successor is not properly oppoved, he binself has never given infineteere and consequent-infineteere and consequent-infin to render nugatory the appo

From the United States Telegraph. June 13.

United States vs. Tobias Wathins-The demurrer to the indictment against Dr. Watkins, was argued in the of the last Administration, ough to be ment. The principal grounds of the sion in the public prints at Washington, opposition to which, are, first, that it is We shall submit both sides hereafter.

last, there is no such officer as Speaker of the House, and therefore, says the present incumbent, "I cannor by se-to the court, that since the delivery of the securities dead for many years, its opinion on the former densurcer, the and that it bears no approval either from following description of a visit, by an fer of Stocks, it is, indeed high time to look after the Moths of the Government, and to introduce a " Reform."-The day which arrested the mad career

"Travelling through the Western States of America in the early part of the year 1823, I was induced by the fame of this distinguish-ed man, as well as by the report of his hos-Gen. If, formerly an introduction to h Gen. If, formerly an aid of the hero, it now commanding the militia of the State Tennessee, being made acquainted with wish, came, and policity tendered me command and policity tendered me carriage and attendance. We left for General Jackson's seat, the 1 distant about nine miles, on a ing, and arrived just as he and his getting into the carriage to attend of Baprists, [Presbyreruns,] the la a strict follower of that seet. To the which was crected entirely with plied from his own parse, and not a mile from his house, we re only; that it was not only entirely de-Jackson's religious fain, and well as every thing else con underwent the strictest s gradually subsided, and assum former composure. The budy sunk t also said, and with truth, that he ab-stained from doing so because he was of for the first time, and has been got there was no individual whom he would be the first time and has been got there was no individual whom he would be the first time and has been got there was no individual whom he would be adent and in the British army. Neither which he requested, after reading he that army northe government of Great British would name to his family, he would that army nor the government of Great Britain ought, I think, to be wholly identified with a periodical work which has long since lost all reputation for truth or decency. June 3d, 1829. P. S. T. We may append to the above, the We may append to the above, the the metanchoiy end of the writer, and direct it as before mentioned.

English travelier, to General Jackson's residence in Tennessee, copied from the United Service Journal, a periodi-cal of high literary rank, by the Suru-one of the leading London Journals. The editors of the Sun, introduce this account by remarking: "We give the following account of a visit to Gener-al Jackson-a gentleman whom the force of circumstances, concuring with no ordinary merit of his own, has at present rendered a vecy remarkable character:" tist Church.

hat Church. Negro Fed, the property of Jas. Cof-field. Esq. was last week, while em-ployed in getting timber in his Mills Pond, lost overboard from a cause and drawned—cause supposed to be intoxi-cationi—Edenios Gazette, June 16.

Mr. Hall, whose horses pluoged into a well on the Columbia road not long met with a annilar 'accident il A horse from his Liver e fell into a well in the c as extricated alive from tuation, though the well w nity and in K en, who,