ENCE & LEMAY

EVANS, who was remain st 5 feet 8 or 10 inches

DAVID YOUNG, Jailor.
1820. 30 St

desale and Retail A MEDICINE STORE.

MS & HAYWOOD have lately reurge and extensive assortment of Medicines, consisting, in part, of inine, Gum Opium, Denarcotized do.
inphor, Cantharides, Castor Oil,
, Elaterium, Extrants of various ified Copaira. Oil of Black Pepper, idea Blue Pill, Black Oxyde Merad Kali for making neutral mixture, in Sarsaparilla, Hydr. Potuss, Sup.
Tart. Acid, Turkey Gum Arabis,
csia, Yellow Bark, Calomel, Jalap, Tartre, Sugar Lead, Spt. Ritre,
va, Spt. Ammon, Tarv. Antimony, per, Liquorico Paste, &c.
Il assortment of Patent Medicines,
ittire, Sufgeon's Instruments, Dye
teer's Trimmings and materials, euch
mits, Quicksilver, Logwood, Bow ion, Bindings and Bunds, Buckies es, seey low. A large supply of Brushes of every description, Spt.
Linseed, Bomp and Panner's Oil, leer lead, Copal and Leather Varnish,
ality, Window Glass, S. M. 10, 10 M
6 and 16 M. 18, and Putry, ortment comprises every article in the 's line; the principal part of which been selected by themselves in a and New-York with cash, they are sell to cash dealers or punetual cusmuch better ferms than ever before MS & HAYWOOD have lately re sell to eash dealers or punctual our much better terms than ever before this market. Physicians and Mor-find it to their interest to call and find it to their movemere.

June 3, 1829 23 5weow have also received a great variety of les -- such as French Cologne and Water, Bear's Oil, Macassor do. Cosballs, Emolient Cakes, a superior shaving, Soaps of various kin!s, of consiste flarours, a large quantity of shes, Sc. all of which will be sold Dollars Reward.

ZANGO, brothers. Henry is a black fellow, very sektors talks, has a down look at times, talks, has a down look at times, very artist and councing. He is thing about 180 lbs. has been shot a wrist and bock part of his shoulders. These wounds he got when running a little bald place on his forehead, to have full over it; which latter was jail by a hot shove! At that time he carly two years from me, and states not to the Great Hismal Susamp, henton and Norlolk, and there was shot, previous these, and from which place by Richmond and Salem on to Ten-Inff Post Office, Marion District, S. C.

t Sterling for Sale.

on is situate about ten miles abt Uston Houge, and 2 miles and 3 Sent of the river Mississippi. It lies of an oblong square, and contains be 677 English acres, of which aared. The buildings thereon are relling house, kitchen, and negro in tood repair.

t in good repair.

remarkable for being less ent up in almost any other plantation of at on the Bluff lands—and it is be-when cleared, less than fifty acres i when cleared, less than fifty acres i wift for the plough, at are now making with the ribband adjoining plantations. Should they of by early frosts this year, it may asserted that all the lands there m be covered with sugar case. It ity well ascertained that the highsurpasses that of the lowlands in qualities; and, if the cane yields trace produces whiter and more. Added to this consideration in highlands, there is another which an will pass unleeded—There are

Land for Sale.

JNO. D. BARR

Five Cents Reward,

a bound boy by the name of Hunes, the in of a between 19 and 20 years of age. He is of a redish complexion, and dark hair. I beeway all persons from harboring, trading with, or clothing the usid boy, as I am determined to protecute any person so offending, as he were away without any provocation.

HIRAM WARD.

Chatham county, July 11, 1829 30 50

Chronicles of North Carolina. CHAPTER VIII.

The tribulations and good deeds of the upright, and the rewards they receive from the devout— A thought upon the doings of Satan—The style and delicacy of one calling himself a servant of the sons of Belial, and who telleth about their system of espial, and various other tales of their doings.—The temptations he spreaded before doings.—The temptations he apreadeth before the writer of the Chronicles to bribe his integrity, and his resusing them, peradventure because he was not a ruler nor a judge in the sinful times —The praise of upright rulers and judges.

1 Moreover, while I slept, a thief belonging unto a certain son of Belial who lived near me, came around my cabbin, and finding nothing to steal, he went his way, leaving my gate open.
2 And his master's hog, seeing what he had done, came into my field, and faring somewhat better, he staid therein, devouring all before him. 3 When I awoke in the morning an saw what was done, I went after the how to drive him out, whence he came. But he feared my gate mightly and would have a system of espial upon every ran after him, until I was wearied, to dom, and upon every man's favor with none effect.

4 Then I ceased, and went and got some corn and called him, and he came unto me and did eat; and I laid hands come thither before him, and it be upon him and hurt him not for what he had done, but took him up gently, and carried him home unto his moster, and fail in paying tribute, it may likewise and all these precious things are thine; speaking in kindness, I told him what had suffered by reason of his servant and his hog;

5 And his master bid me put the hog n his stye, which, in all meekness and humility, I did; and he thanked me not, his family, according to his heart's debut spake roughly unto me, and said sire: And that, if any man have wisthat I was a shame unto all this land, dom or favor with the people, and he for writing the Chronicle- of this tribe; and had his servant thrown down my naged, they may make much of him, and cabbin, and his hog devoured all the labor of my field, he should have re- and help them. joiced thereat; for I had taken the part of the accursed people like unto myself, Belial and the lawful powers that be;

6 Wherefore it was mete, that I should receive favor at no man's hands, price, and he forsook his office to range integrity therewith, lo! they have em-withal very rich and esteemed a godly perously and well. man, even next unto the priest himself. 23 In their last grand Pandemonian 44 Arise therefore and rejoice, and 8 And he reviled me much, but I they called on him, and he set forth, I, thy servent, will conduct thee in marvelled not, for in this thing he did from his greatness, what the rulers were thy great estate unto thy other servery wrath, and why should I tempt plainly, wherein his wisdom was selfish, to welcome thy coming. him to sin? And I went my way, and and that he aimed to get their goodly came onto my own cabbin.

10 And in running after this selfsame a gang of his choice and trusty ones. garment, even in a place where it had on high, to baste and burn the trembling er dealt with me, save only, through a hin and sorrowed, because some of my corn had been eaten down, and because were abated, they bade him stand forth carefully, that it might bring forth with honor and renown, by his wisenough to satisfy my hunger and have dom; yea verily and make them as some to sell, to get an unclean rag to pure as snow, as innocent as babes, and pay my taxes therewith, lest for the withal so compassionate as to have might lawfully take away my bible or this people. my field, or both just as he listed.

themination, that the sons of Belial to commit than justify sin, and stand swer. should bid the rulers commit such sin not forth? And they went unto his continually, that the opright are thus friend, thegoodly treasurer of this tribe, afflicted in all this goodly land! Veri- and bid him do the same; ly, they do not consider, nor do the rulers take heed, only to obey them; and what will be the end thereof, God only behold! our dignified servants are forknoweth; nevertheless I will continue ward to sin for us, and greedy to reto serve and trust in him.

which seemed to come from the ground, not to uphold our honor and good name and I thought, peradventure Satan only before the swinish people, that our reign make, and no one need fear least grewled more loudly under the earth, in may be perpetual.

grewled more loudly under the earth, in may be perpetual.

29 Peradventure we are betrayed alterates of his own or his of By at had sinned out their day, and ready, by them, for their price out of people. It is true, these Biolifands of By at had sinned out their day, and our own spoil, and when we dream not unto the door of my cabbin. He then and our good name will be handed to perish with thy masters, who have let down the steps of the chariot and down in his writings, from generation assisted his master to descend them; and his master, leaning on him and walking on the carpet, lest his feet might tread all.

like the dew of Hermon! And as pleased God. he drew near I brought forth my stool, | 35. And they straitway knew three and when his servant had placed a scarlet cushion, fringed with gold, thereon, and his servant stood behind him, uncovered, & I sat in the door of my cabbin.

18 And he saluted me with great courtesy and honor, and snake and said. 19 Behold, I am sent unto thee by the high and mighty sons of Belial, who their dominion is secured by law and precedent, and upheld by the strong, the wise and the devont

20 Moreover, to make it perpetual and more profitable unto them, they run the other way continually; and I man's goods, and upon every man's wis with the people;

21 That if a man cometh unto the temple to humble himself, his name may known, whether he be worthy to receive the rag; and that, if a man be about to be known, and all due advantage taken, and these, who love him, only suffer no friend, save only a son of Belial, who therefore dealeth with him and cannot be kept down or otherwise magive him his price that he may turn in

22 Wherefore it came to pass, that when the people were lately getting ti and reviled the priesthood, the sons of red of their blessed bondage, and wax ing restive, they gave unto one of their ablest and best beloved judges, his but be esteemed as an heathen and a publican, devoted unto destruction.

INFORMARG.

Stop the rinaways, who have been different many plantations and cue, made long prayers, exherted and will be since, two Negro and every the priest to put in the temple, and was priest to put in the temple, and was publican, devoted unto destruction.

The Reward in the since in the stand of the suffered no harm, save only, in loss of fame, for they kept their money and their power; and himself at their head, and cover them onto thee!

And lot this son of Belial was an edge and the suffered no harm, save only, in loss of fame, for they shall flourish, as the sit on high, and have rule over the print ces and sovereigns of this land; and the bis wise, and the mighty, and the devout shall bow down before thee, and whatso they desired to do would go on pros-

better onto me than I was wont to re- to do and the people to suffer, and all vants, the wise and mighty ones of better unto me than I was wont to receive from those like unto him, for doing what God commanded.

9 And I held my peace, for he was in the Chronicles of this tribe, they saw in the Chronicles o 9 And I held my peace, for he was in the Chronicles of this tribe, they saw calf and spread the gorgeous banquet manimon and power unto himself, and

25 But when his pain and wrath could not labor and till the rest more and defend their cause, and cover them want of this accursed thing, the sheriff played only the good Samaritan unto

26 But, wherefore should he have 12 And I said, it is indeed a great churlishly answered, that it was easier it is mete that thou receive this an-

27 But he came not out. 28 Then, they said unto one another, leeive the wages thereof unto them-13 Then I heard a rumbling noise, selves, but are sleepy headed and care cople. It is true, these Bluff ands of By and sinned out their day, and ready, by them, for their process of By and had sinned out their day, and ready, by them, for their process of the pains taken to apport a level of But 1 looked up, and lo! a character would make manufacture. It is not the chariot of a great and will be rooted down, and all the good indicates the process of the riot, like unto the chariot of a great and things we have laid up therein, to make the set of the rooted like unto us, will be wore, as he gloried in his pride.

16 When the chariet had stood still and stood still and stood stood on the carpet, lest his feet might tread on the ground, came forward towards any cabbin.

34. Then they looked in their book of espial open wisdom, and it was found to the prosper the cause, and pamper the was given wisdom unto the breaking sloth and sin of the ungadity, by dealment and exceedingly glorious in his apparel, and the sme! thereof was in this tribe, with an holy weapen, as the unright, and even unto the Blood of this improvement and efficient results.

by this token, and they bade me take dare do, whatever was at hand, and hasten un- 57 Ti he sat down under the shade of my tree, to thee, with these glad tidings of thy horse and his rider, the shroud, the great promotion.

and answered him not.

37. Then he commanded, and the servant brought out of the chariot marule over the rulers and people of this ny changes of costly raiment, and gifts thy laving masters send unto me, and tribe, and do according to their own of spices and precious continents, and this is the price they will and pleasure in all this land! And ornaments of silver and gold, and laid integrity therewith. them at my feet.

before his master, and placed some my soul to Satan, to murder and slav the Jury as follows:
flaggons of wine and gobiets of gold this people, through oppression and sin? "That if the Jury should be flaggons of wine and goblets of gold this people, through oppression and sin? thereon, and when he had filled the gob-

it off unto me, and said,

fore and rejoice.

41 These changes of costly raiment, their temple now; of mosey in the sail draft me and all these precious things are thine: 61 But when I come up thither it the said J. K. Paulding, the vants are thine; my masters have sent fusion and desolation upon them. them unto thee by my hand, only, that they may find grace in they sight, and I hence; and see that thou take all these service of the United States. and be made like unto him, and he have them unto thee by my hand, only, that dest me.

42 And whatsqever is thy yearly price, for saling over them and upholdng their cause, they will give it. Of double the great mammon they give mine own tribe, and I said, lord, and shouldest thou even require upright integrity in rulers and judges! and the defendant guilty uppaid unto the treasurer of this tribe, to divide out among the rulers of this peo-ple to blind their eyes and corrupt their of God. himself at their head, and cover them powered me, by writing, to make it sure priest to put in the temple, and was they desired to do would go on pros- shall bow down before thee, and whatso ever thy hands seek to do shall be done.

45 Then the spirit of the Lord came of this nation.
67 Wherefo

46 From the magnitude and infamy was eaught to a cance going down

10 And in running after this selfsame
a gang of his choice and trusty ones.

10 And in running after this selfsame
a gang of his choice and trusty ones.

24 And because he had raised the
bucket of impure and scalding pottage
one J. C. Davis, in North Carolina.

25 And because he had raised the
bucket of impure and scalding pottage
on high, to baste and burn the trembling
one J. C. Davis, in North Carolina.

26 And because he had raised the
bucket of impure and scalding pottage
on high, to baste and burn the trembling
one J. C. Davis, in North Carolina.

26 And because he had raised the
bucket of impure and scalding pottage
on high, to baste and burn the trembling
on high, to baste and burn the trembling certain priesthood, and their servants, one forced gentry, who run beon his brother off, who is as large as be been mended well, and I had nothing to mend it therewith again, and none offer, eyes very large, and when a latter of the garment, and my shoes were old and clouted on my feet, and I had troduced on my feet

47 But if thou art Satao, and comhave done, and tempt me thyself, get thee hence, I command thee, in the name of God!

48 But if thou art indeed what they seemest, and art a servant of the high and mighty sons of Belial, who ruled over this land and sent unto me with the message, thou hast delivered,

49 Look around thee, and what seest thou?

50 Have I aught, on earth, to gladden my heart, or cheer and comfort the infirmities of mortal life? Still, thou seest me content and cheerful, and God strengtheneth my arm against the mighty sons of Belial, to crumble down their power, and make them repent.

They were managed dexterously before the people, and cometh not out. go! It is the bread of the upright guilt, ordered sthingian servant in goodly appa. SI. And let us find out the writer of and honorable, of the widow and is. States for trustated as high over them, and the Chronicles, and give unto him his theriess, who now hunger and faint! lost—a part of the dead on the coronet he price, and instal him to this great of it is the spoil and the blood of this people and sold at St. I this innucent and afflicted people?

coffin, the grave, corruption and the Court. But the Court is worth, would be forever in my eyes, has jurisdiction of any cost 36. And he ceased speaking, but I woren, would be forever in my eyes, continued looking down on the ground, and the harrid howl of devils, and the Government of the United of spice, and precious ointments, and this is the price they offer to buy my spices and precious ointments, and this is the price they offer to buy my means consisting in part of acts of naments of silver and gold, and laid integrity therewith.

59 Am 1 a ruler or a judge, that I Upon the motion of the count of the price his master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master, and placed some my soul to Salan to master. 60 Verily, thy masters have killed evidence in this lets, he took his place again behind his the fatted calf, and spread the gorgeous draft in this indictment set master.

banquet, and scut forth their splendid in manner and form at time 59. And his master took up one of gifts, and still more splendid promises, with the intent therein a 39. And his master took up one of girts, and still limit proper, and private capacity, or in his thelgoblets, and making obeisance, drank in vain! I am one of the people, and private capacity, or in his thelgoblets, and making obeisance, drank in vain! I am one of the people, and private capacity, or in his cannot be bought, though through the 40. Behold, the good things thy seruniquity and sin of our rulers, we are all sold into their hands already to do for and rejoice.

Al The property of could remain any country and sin of our rulers, we are all sold into their hands already to do for his own private one and with us as they list. I go not up to tent to defraud the United

this chariot and horses and these ser- shall be with my brethren to bring con-

am thy servant also to do as thou bid things with thee, and depart right their own accord, they offer unto thee down these things in the chronicles of

64 flow beautiful and excellent is as much as that sum, which is yearly Like the oil of gladness, it cometh forth

66 Blessed is that upright ruler, who Court, his case stood up at the first, and cursed these must whereas Dr. Watkins mighty sons of Beliak and caused them up twelve weeks, marely for the tremble, for what they had done un-

67 Wherefore, should the sons of At 5 o'clack, when our paper with Relial set up a priest against him? But to press, the Jury had not raturum the priest was indeed a good and worthy man, and when he read in the Chronicles of this tribe, what this ruler had done for the people, the fear of God fell upon him, and he went back and stood forth against him no langer.

no one to come out against him, at their clock this marning the jury sulder budding, and all they could do, was to a note to the judges requesting send forth a paper, like unto the rag of mission to appear to convitheir temple; and he, who wrote it, granted, they wer feared to put his name thereon. their room, and the 69 Thus, is a ruler prospered of God, for doing a good thing!

70 Verily, verily, when will the reign of the sens of Beliai be no more, and of the sens of Beliai be no more, and when shall I have nothing to record, but the good, which the rulers will do unto the people continually? My heart will then overflow with joy; and lest I fail to record their renown. Soil will fail to record their renown, God will agreeing. Judge Greenel forth an angel to record it for me. recting them to retire,

Meeting.—From Capt. Whorf, who officer of the con-arrived here on Wednesday from St. them. The Chi-Thomas via New York, we learn the counsel would be following particulars: The brig Neu- of the jury; to trality, Whorf, sailed from St. Bar- Mr. Key replie trality, Whorf, sailed from St. Bar-tholomews on the 27th May last, bound and Mr. Coxe, that the court was on to this place. When eight hours out, petent to discharge them without the cook, an Irishman, came alt and consent. At 3 o'clock, the Jury communicated to the Captain the deblood of this suffering people wrung if he should offer resistance, at the out, by cruelty and oppression, and bottled up for their horrid banquets! Accordingly, in a few minutes after, I.o. I here pour it out on the ground, the crew, headed by the Mate came all, of By. and mines bluff land the Mississippi between the point ideas the Accordingly, in a law minutes after, work and the crew, headed by the Mate came attached the crew, headed the crew, headed the crew, headed by the Mate came attached the crew, headed by the Mate came attached the crew, headed by the Mate came attached the mate crew, headed the cre instructions; as drafted by Mr. 1 Chief Vodge Cranch, hat they were precisely substance:

" The Court being of fence charged in this indi-ged as an official offence of this innucent and afflicted people?

56 It is what no man, fearing God, dare do.

57 The brittle thread of life, the pale office of the government of the go and is not intended now to shrinks and screams of the damned, it would have jurisdiction if c in my cars! It would have jurisdiction if c 58 This is the promotion and honor the United States, although should have been cont of the Government of

63 And he was pale, and trembled news of the United States the very much, and did as I commanded; and that the defendant recommanded; and when he had gone his way, I wrote down these things in the chronicles mine own tribe, and

Mr. Coxe spoke in behalf of the oner, admitting his moral guilt, but controlled to the moral guilt to th they might send him unto the Congress the case being concluded, the Jury reand stood forth against him no longer. to by Mr. Coxe.

68 Then, the sons of Belia! could get Saturday, July 25 - About ten o' was put as to whother they had upon their verdict. Mr. Beverl foreman, on the part of the jury.