

List of the Members of the General Assembly and Sheriffs. Table with columns for SENATORS, MEMBERS, and SHERIFFS, listing names and counties.

By the Judge at Chambers, 23d July, 1830. State of Georgia, Richmond Superior Court.

Between Green Howell, Com'ly and George L. Twigg & Valentine W. Adams, Executors of Edward Howell, deceased, and others. A bill for the recovery of a debt...

his ankles and locked them to a ring bolt... After we had secured the hatchways, we proceeded to the companion way...

The President promptly replied—He told them of the great pleasure and satisfaction he had enjoyed in seeing them... Some of the friends had been long known to him...

Talk of the President of the U. States. Through the Secretary of War and General Coffee to the Chickasaw Delegation at Franklin, Tenn. on the 2d August, 1830.

TOWNS. Wilmington—Joseph A. Hill, Hillborough—William H. Phillips, Halifax—William L. Long.

THE STAR, North-Carolina State Gazette, Published weekly, by LAWRENCE & LEMAY.

University of Pennsylvania. MEDICAL DEPARTMENT. The Lectures will commence as usual on the first Monday in November...

JUST PUBLISHED, LAWRENCE & LEMAY'S NORTH CAROLINA ALMANACK FOR 1831.

CITY HOTEL. The subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public in general, that he has purchased of Mrs. Jeffer the City Hotel...

Law River Mills for Sale. Mills on the east side of the Seven Islands of New River, formerly the property of the Rev. Mr. Hays...

A Teacher Wanted. I wish to employ a Teacher, who can teach recommended, to take charge of a School, ten miles south-east from Raleigh.

Cattle Show and Sale. Will be exhibited for Show and Sale, at the Capitol Square in the city of Raleigh, on Monday the 4th day of October next...

Twenty Dollars Reward. Has away from the subscriber, some time in April last, a negro woman, named ELISHA, about 37 years of age...

BLANKS For sale at this Office. August 31, 1830.

Blank advertisement for a business or service, mentioning 'Wake county, Sept. 10'.

From the Northern Spectator. Mr. Spectator—The following adventures were related to me by a revolutionary veteran, who is now alive, and was an actor in them...

The next morning we got under way, and carried our prize safely into Beaufort. This is all, except that the vessel and cargo were sold for $20,000, and all I got was part of a cask of rum...

From the Nashville Republican. The Indians.—Information from Franklin, which may be relied on, gives assurance that there is every prospect of the conclusion of a treaty with the Chickasaw Nation...

Letters from a strolling Editor.—Prestige writes home letters under the above title. The following is one of them, and develops a dark transaction which we advise him to add by way of appendix to a certain biography that we wrote of—Camden Journal.