THE STAR And North Carolina State Gazette PUBLISHED, WHERLY, BY LAWRENCE & LEMAY.

TERMS. Sunscarrerion, three dollars per annum—at half in advance. Subscribers in other States summer be allowed to remain in access larger than one year, and person) resident without this Stare, who may desire to become subscribers? will be strictly required to pay the whole a-mount of the year's subscription in advance. ASVERTISENESTS, not exceeding fifteen lines, inserted there times for one dollar, and twee ty-five cents for each continuance; TRUMS to the Editors must be post-paid.

NAVY COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE, 24th July, 1854.

Sealed offers, endorsed "Offers for Beef and Pak," will be received at this office until three clock, P. M. of the twenty-fifth day of September next, for the supply of three thousand burrels of Beef, and three thousand burrels of Pork; one thousand barrels of each to be delivered at each of the Navy Yards at Charlestown, Alassachusetts; Brooklyn, New York; and Gosport, Virginia. No delivery to be made before the first day of April, and the whole to be deli-tered before the 15th of May, 1835; and no extension of time will be granted.

The Heef must be packed from well fatted eartle, weighing not less than six hundred pounds not. All the leg and leg counds of the hind quarters, and she clods, neek or staking pieces, shows and checks, of the fore quarters, must be wholly excluded from the barrel, and the remainder of the carease to be ent in pieces of not less than eight pounds each.

The Pork must be corn led and well fatted.

All the skulls, lest, and hind legs entire, must be wholly excluded from the barrel, and the re-mander of the log must be ent in pieces weighing not less than six pounds each.

The whole quantity of the said Beef and Pork must be killed and packed between the present time and time of delivery, he thoroughly sulted with a sufficient quantity of clean, course, white Turks' Island, Island May, or St. Uhes salt, and no other kind, and five ounces of pure saltpetre to each burnet, to amoure its preservation.

The barrels must be made of the heat season-ed heat of white oak, free from sap, and the stace must be at least three-fourths of an inch thick. They must be fully and substantially hosped and nailed, and one iron hoop must be put upon-each of the chines of each barrel, for additional security, by and at the expense of the contractors. Each barrel must be branded on its head "Navy Beef," or "Navy Pork," as the case may be, with the contractor's name, and the Year when pucked.

The Beef and Pork will be inspected on delivery by "sworn inspectors of Salt Provisions," who will be selected by the respective commanding officers; but the charges for the inspections most be paid by the respective contractors, who must likewise have the barrels jut in good shipping order after the inspectious, and at their own expense, otherwise the Beel and Polk will not

Bidders must specify their prices separately and distinctly for the Beef and for the Pork, covering all their expenses and charges, and sepatate offers most be made for the Beet and for the Pork for each Navy Yard, with the names and residences of the surcties offered, stated in detail which must be accompanied by letters from the persons so named, expressing their willing-ness to become sureties, and certificates from the nearest United States District Judge or Attorney, as to their ability or competency, as sureties for the contracts proposed.

Honds in one third the amount of the respective contracts will be required, and ten per cent. in addition will be withheld from the amount o each payment to be made, as collateral scennity to secure the due and faithful performance of the respective contracts, no part of which will be of notif the contract is fully completed.

The parts of the Beef to be excluded from the barrel are particularly designated in the engrav-ings to be attached to the contracts, which engravings will be furnished to persons who intend 52 8w

NAVY COMMISSIONERS' OFFICE, 24th July, 1834.

Sealed offers, endorsed "Offers for Live Oak and other Timber, will be received at this of-fice until 3 o'clock, P. M. of the 3nth day of September next, for the supply of l'imber, to be delivered at the following Navy Yards, viz.

The live oak frame timber, beam pieces, keel-son pieces, and promisenous timber; the white oak keel pieces; the yellow pine beams, cartings, and ledges; thirty thousand feet of white oak plank stocks; and twenty thousand feet of yellow pine plank stocks, for a frigate, to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Portsmouth, New Hampshire. The live oak frame timber, beam pieces, keelson pieces; and promiseuous timber; white oak keel pieces; and three thousand feet white oak, and two thousand feet yellow pine plank stocks. for one frigute, one sloop of war, and one schoo-ner; to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Charlestown, Massachusetta. The live oak trame timber, beam pieces, keelson pieces, and promiseuous timber; white oak keel pieces; and three thousand leet of white oak, and two thousand feet of yellow pine plank stocks for one frigate, one sloop, and one schooner, to be delivered at the Navy Yard, Brooklyn, New

The live oak timber must be cut to moulds or directions, which will be forwarded to contractors. The dimensions of the white cak keel pieces, and of the beam, carling and ledge pieces, can be obtained upon application to the command-ants of the Navy Yards. The oak and pine plank stocks must not be less than thirty five feet, and must average forty five feet in length; said all of the aforesaid timber, excepting the keel pieces, must have grown on lands near to salt water, at have been cut or girdled between the 20th Octo-ber and 20th of March next preceding the deliveries; all of which must be proved to the satisfaction of the Commandants of the respective Yards, before the timber will be received.

Persons making offers, must state the price asked per cubic foot, when delivered, inspected and reserved, for each class of articles, and the offers must be made separately for each frame; and the Commissioners reserve to themselves the right of secepting any separate offer, without re-gard to other offers made by the same person. The frame timber for the selectores, and the plank stocks, deliverable at the Navy Yurda Charlestown and Brooklyn, must be delivered on or before the 31st of December, 1855; and all the other timber on or before the 31st December, 1836, and no extension of time will be granted I wo good and sufficient sureties will be required for the faithful performance of the contracts: and, as additional scenity, ten per centum of the value of all deliveries will be deducted, and fetained until the contracts are in all respects per-fectly completed, and is to be forfeited in ease of compliance on the part of the contractors. The names and residences of the sureties proposed must be forward with the offers.

Notice.

Was taken up and committed to the jail o Kinston, Lenoir county, on the 13th insuant, a negro man by the name of PETER, who says he belongs to Elijah Rathiff, of the State of North Carolina. Said negro is about five feet three or four inches high, and has on his right hand a scar. The owner is requested to come forward, prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, or he will be dealt with as the law directs.

JEREMIAH HAWKINS, Jaffor, July 20, 1804

Fresh- Arrivals.

NEW GOODS. CHEAPER THAN EVER.

MEAD & AVERY Have received, and are constantly receiving ad ditional supplies of new Spring and Summer Goods, which, together with their former stock, com-description of GOODS. And from the particusand the very advantageous manner they are laid in, they fewl confidence in saying, that a better, or more select assortment, has never been offer-ed before in Raleigh. They respectfully invite from their enstomers and the public generally, continuance of that petronage they have already so liberally received. They also state, that their terms will not only be liberal, and their thoods sold low for each, but that they will supply their regular contomers with any article hatever, as low at 12 maniha credit, as for Cash. Pheir assortment consists of Fancy and Staple Dry Goods, Groceries of every description, lardware, Crockery, Glass Ware, Queens Ware cooking Glasses of all sizes and descriptions, Hars and Shoes, &c. &c. &c. Raleigh, May 22, 1834

CHINA, GLASS AND EARTH-ENWARE. LUNSFORD & EATON,

PETERSBURG, VA. Have received per ships Tally Ho, Harkaway and Caledonia Brander, direct from Liverpool, large and splendid assortment of the above, which they will sell to such as will encourage southern importers as low as can be bought in way of the northern cities. Merchants and others who are in the habit of going North are juvited to call before they buy elsewhere, as we are determined to duplicate porthern bills. TENSFORD'S PATON. Petersburg, August S, 1834 34 4 w

NEW BOOKS

Just received by D. Lindingi. The Young Christian's Evening- 3d part, being the 18th volume of Harper's Hoya' and Girls' Library

Peck's Guide for Emigrants, containing sketches of Illinois, Missouri and the adja cent parts Lord Hover's Letters of Horace Walpole

(Earl of Oxford) to Sir Horace Muner Miss Edgeworth's Tales & Novels, complete, in 9 volumes, separate or complete sets' Library of Standard Editions, first series, viz. Burke's works, 3 volumes Drane's Dupuytrous Clinical Lectures on

Life of Cromwell, by Rev. Mich. Russell, in 2 vols. being the 62d and 63d vol of the Family Library. These can be in complete sets up to the last published volume, or in separate parts Colman's (the younger) Broad Grins of Po etical Vagaries The Magdalen and other tales, by James She ridan Knowles The Life of Archbishop Cranmar, by Charles W Le Bas, M A two vols

The Note Book of a Country Clergyman The Church of God, in a series of disserta tions, by Rev'd Robert W Evans The influence of the Bible, by John Mat thews, D D with a preliminary essay by Albert Barnes The Geographical Annual for 1834, revised, corrected and improved

American Almanack for 1834 Comic Annual for 1834, London edition, by Louisa Menrietta Sheridan The Amulet for 1834, London edition

The Keepsake for 1834, London edition, by Frederic Mansel Reynolds
A new edition of DAVY CROCKETT, with all its improvements &c

The Dominic's Legacy, in two volumes The Aristocrat, an American tale, in 2 vols The Down Easters &c &c &c by John Neal, in two volumes Scenes in our Parish, by a country parson's daughter

Newton Forster or the Merchant's Service, by the author of the King's Own, Peter Simple &c

The Naval Officer or Scenes and Adventures in the life of Frank Mildway, in two vols Tales of Romance, vol 2, containing Fazio or the Italian Wife, the Stranger, Dicky Cross, the Idiot of Exeter, the Irish Lord Lieutenant and his Double, the Parting and Return, Helen Waters, Annie Leslie, the Laird of Wincholm, A Legend of Macalis ter Moore and Annie Macleod, a tale by

Mes Crawford The Bridgewater Treatise, part 4th, being Bell on the hand, its mechanism and vital endowments, as evincing design

Also the three former publications Mrs. Willard's Journal & Letters from France and Great Beitain Library of Romance, edited by Leith Ritchie

Waldemar, being the 7th values of this vas luable work. They may be had either separate or in sets complete Besides many valuable works, to enumerate which would exceed the firmts of an adver-

The subscriber respectfully states, that, owng to the pressure of the times, he is anxious in measure to wind up his affairs, and see how he stands in the world as regards money concerns. He wishes so sell on such terms as cannot but give satisfaction to the purchaser. He therefore invites all those who wish to puy books for themselves or to sell again, to give him a call, and he is well assured that if the article they sish is in his store, they will not go away dissatisfied. A small advance on northern cost is only required. In conclusion, he is auxious to pay off his debts, and invites those who have demands against him to bring them forward for payment; ind, in order to meet such demands, he carnestly hopes that those who are in arrears will help him out in sustaining his fair name.

D. LINDEMAN.
Rateigh, Jan'y 28

. BOOKS.

Just received at the North Carolina Book Store the following new Books: Sketches by Mrs Sigourney, besuifully bound in stamped and flowered muslin, I vol. 12 ma. A Manual on the Sabbath, by Protessor J H Agnew Reautics of Robert Hale Counsels to the Young, by the Rev A Alexander. D. D. The Moral Testaments of a Man The 1st & 2d vols. Christian Library, half bound

The young man's Sunday book The young ladies' do do

The 1st vol. of Jarob Faithful Dunean's translation of Cicero's Orations, 5 vols Wrangham and Dryden's translation of Virgil And a great many more new, interesting and ta-luable Books.

TURNER & HUGHES, Bateigh, July 17, 1884

for the robbery; and so saying he ran for some of the most touching scenes the doctor's sensibility, prevailed, and bowels of the ocean; the ship, though off as fast as his legs could carry him. of romance. The ladies retired to their burst forth in pealing cachinations, moving through the water, was greatly When I had recovered from my sur- cabin, and I saw no more of them; but which, to his astunded ears, seemed retarded by the shivering of the afterprise the man that was with me said, if that young man and that beautiful the knell of his dignity and respecta-sails, and the dashing noise occasioned --- You may depend on it the rascal has girl are not married within three bility forever. At length he seemed by her velocity had ceased, gone to the police, --- and in a few min- mosths after this event, and if they fully awakened to the horrors of his utes we shall have a constable after us are not a happy couple, then am I no situation, and with a stern and meaand both will get into Bridewell,---I interpreter of the looks and gestures of sured gait, "dispensing odoriferous beam? No sir, replied the officer, think it better, therefore, that we passion, and then have I none of the sweets on all around," he made good should separate as soon as possible; and spirit of divination. so wishing me good bye, he hurried away as fast as the other, leaving me standing like a fool. And now sir I wish to know what is to be done? The advice of the magistrate was, we believe, not very satisfactory to the complainant, who left the office amidst the half-suppressed laughter of all who heard his story .... N. Y. Courier & Enq.

From the Jonesborough (Tenn.) Republican. would have ventured upon such a surf. He proceeds:

A flat between two sharps.—A middle aged personage, with a very dolorous countenance, calling himself on the keel of the capsized boat; the Lewis Disbrow, dealer in lumber, you do, and if you please I will show all this was totally unavailing, and cifully dragged by his more powerful exclaimed the Captain: up, Nep, up you some places worth seeing. We they seemed inevitably perishing—antagonist. In vain did he brace his my boy, and see to em! will go first to the Dry Dock, which is that beautiful girl and that noble boy—high heels against the floor; in vain did

The animal at first rose lazily. the greatest curiosity you ever beheld. when a sturdy old tar, a passenger in he pull back, as if he were dragging of course I consented, and we conthe boat, taking the end of a small cord at a refractory tooth; the lady was an tinued our walk. How far we went in his teeth and directing one of the over match for him, and be might have I don't recollect, but on coming to an crew to hold the other end, plunged in- been performing nameless evolutions to tion, and then sprung away upon the open place we saw a little way ahead, to the boiling waters, and dashing this day, had not the roll suddenly a min walking very leisurely. He them aside like a giant, swam to the parted in the middle. A universal pulled out his hold, and with it a small sinking pair, laid his strong grasp on burst of laughter followed this terminasnuff-box which fell to the ground, the young man's arm, and hallooing to tion of the doctor's set-to; for the im-My companion on coming to the spat the crowte-pull in they were drawn to print he had received precipitated him picked up the box & opening it discov- the side of the steamboat, and lifted on over a small rocking-chair, from beered a lottery ticket which he handed deck, seemingly, at the last gasp of neath which rose, simultaneously, the dent there is something near us. me to take care of. We soon overtook life! The same experiment brought agonized and heart rending squall of a the owner, when my new acquaintance in the old lady and her preserver, peaceable puss; and by a sudden turn or hear any thing to windward? Siasked him if he had lost something, who had managed, until relieved, to of his body, seated him plump in a lence, Neptune-down, boy! down! He put his hands into his pockets and retain their hold upon the keel of the capacious tub-not of water, gentle and the animal became perfectly tranafter searching answered.—Yes, a snuff-box. My comparison then said.—Does came to herself, (which she did in a few very patiently waiting the isroad of the head affectionately against his master's it contain any thing? Yes answered minutes,) she looked about her with a company. Now the contents were not hand. The officer on the look out he a lottery ticket. No it doesn't said wild glance, and we ask for her mother: exactly hot, but of a temperature suf-I. I'll bet you lifty dollars it does, with a cry of rild joy they rushed into ficiently high to make a contact with several others who had cationaly looked said he. And I will bet you seventy- each other's ams; and various as was them what might be called not coin- round, and attentively hatened.—"I five it does not, said I. Done,---and the crowd that witnessed this scene fortable. At least, so thought the will stake my existence on the dog's now stake your money, said he, taking out seventy-five dollars and putting dividual but seemed to regard it with tered ideas he scrambled forth, certain-ing the chief mate. *By heavens! it them into my companion's hand. the deepest feeling. The young lady by the most candi(e)d man in the comman better may be the missing best!—had up the Being sure of winning, as I held the again looked up from her mother's bopany, and the very personification of main sait and square the after-yards: lottery ticket, I took out my money som, with even a more alarmed insulted dignity. As he stood upon keep her course quarter-master till I and counted out seventy-five dollars, glance than before, until her eye fell his feet again—his clothes literally tell you to luft to the wind, & let there which I gave to the stakeholder. But, upon the very handsome features of the plastered with the adhesive substance, be silence fore and aft." The orders Sir, would you believe it, when the sound some fellow opened the snuff-box there was ion of her danger; and although I canin every direction—his hands held ed, and then the captain, patting the a lottery ticket in it sure enough. I not, in relating this real little incident, away from his body, like an urchin's head of the huge animal, exclaimed, was so astonished that I had not a adopt the style of the novelest, and who has been soused in a gutter; and who has been soused in a gutter; and who has been soused in a gutter; and of the huge animal, exclaimed, who has been soused in a gutter; and of the huge animal, exclaimed, who has been soused in a gutter; and of the huge animal, exclaimed, who has been soused in a gutter; and of the huge animal, exclaimed, who has been soused in a gutter; and boy; look for 'em, Nep! seek 'em you please, took the money, and then ther's embrace, yet such a look of ex- coat, his new frock coat! gathered up out! The dog whined with a languid said there was another lottery ticket treme joy as those beautiful eyes sud- into an indescribable mass, and self playfulness, as if satisfied that he had

-000

A Kentucky Candy Pulling. - A correspondent of the New England Magazine, gives an interesting description of a Christmas amusement in Kentucky, called Candy pulling, in high favor with the lads and lasses of describes in the subjoined extracts, took place in 1833, in the interior of Kentucky. A doctor and a lawyer Steamboat Incident .-- The small- were among the most conspicuous of boat put off to take in three passengers the company. The writer premises, who had made signals from the shore that connected with Candy Pulling --- a gentleman and two ladies, whose there are two important preparatory shawls and ribbons fluttered in the movements-1st, that a quantity of fierce wind like the quivering of a bril-molasses is boiled, no matter how long, liant flag at a mast-head. The bay till it attains a tolerable thickness. was exceedingly rough, and the white when it is poured out into large plates caps careered all over the watery ex- and allowed a short time to cool. 2d panse like the flashing manes of a troop it is cut in sections, taken in the hand, of wild horses. None but a heroine, and a system of pulling is commenced, or one totally ignorant of the danger, varying in kind as each one desires.

The boat was manned by two stout sea- The first one who made an onset upmen only; and after taking in the pas- on the rolls, which lay in abundance on sengers, and pulling out a few rods from the table, was the hopeful scion of the the shore, it lay tossing like a fish- law whom we have already introduced ing cork upon the rough sea, making to the reader. He seized one, and little or no progress towards the steam- giving one end to a young lady who boat. The sturdy rowers, taking long stood beside him-by the bye, it hapand strong pulls, bent their entire pened to the same one whom he threw strength to the oars, and the gentle- into a melting mood by his temperance man leaving the ladies whose hands he speech in the morning—and they moved had hitherto held, lent his aid to the oars- off to give way for other applicants. man nearest to him. This moment In a short time the whole were supplidecided the struggle! The united ed, and the most complete system of strength of the two, aided by a huge tugging was commenced that has been wave which struck the boat on its side, seen since the days when "Greek met threw it off its balance, and dipping Greek." The grand object of each deep into the water it capsized, and person was to get the roll of candy the little crew were delivered over to away from his or her antagonist. The the country, the evening was protracted the mercy of the billows! A shrill lawyer was seen struggling as if at the to a late hour, with undiminished life when the officer at the weather cat head shrick went wildly over the waters; wrong end of a cause, with the same a band-box, cloak, and hat were visi- unrelaxed longitude of countenance he The young man's Sunday book
The young isdies' do do common and extra binding
The young isdies' do do common and extra binding
The young isdies' do do common and extra binding
Observations on the European Viac and the art of making Wine, by S J Fisher
The Bachelor reclaimed or cellibrey vanquished

in the box which you two have stolen, denly filling with tears as she affected and, damn me, if I dont go to the Potionately held out her hand to the youth, form' from his back, a spirit of laught a low, hollow moan, that seemed like lice and take out a warrant against you might certainly have served as a model ter, ungovernable, and outrageous to a heavy groan, issuing from the very his retreat.

This effected, and the merriment resumed with unabated vigor. Restraint was thrown away, and fun and jullity reigned supreme in every breast and shone in the laughing expression her fingers were encased as within a there, forward; and Mr. it should be looked upon.

previous neatness. As soon as this ing away on the star-board tack. was done, the merry notes of the violin struck up and, with the dance, and the plays known to the inhabitants of and animation.

was attached to the steamboat; and the walls echo with her laugh—for although she immediately wheeled though she might have wept over the round and ran up to the relief of the sufgraphic pictures of intemperace he had ferers, yet several precious minutes edrawn, she was yet a laughter-loying achooner. Yankee-rigged, that was deck, as there now could be no doubt appeal before this could be effected.

Lewis Disbrow, dealer in lumber, other was making the best of his way from Barton, Tioga county, presented himself before Mr. Justice Lownds to relate the following adventure, and to ask advice on the subject, from the worthy Magistrate.

As I was walking down Grand tiful girl, pale indeed with alarm, yet street towards the East River, said he, is awa a crowd collected round some men who were knocking each other's hope and the courage of a bold heart. She was supported nobly by the young fortunately finked with the large ludy were conversing in melancholy mood business to attend to. After stopping man, her companien, who struggled in whose company we left him, and upon the events of the past night, and until the fight was over, I was just going away, when one of the crowd be- I saw all this but a moment: for the roll somewhat too massive for his hold, a noble Newfoundland dog, that had gan talking with me about the spree, and the spree and we then got into conversation. He asked me how long I had been in surge dipped their heads in the water struggle was long and doubtful. It Captain was pacing to and from with town, and where I came from. On far out of sight. Three horrible min- was certainly one of the most difficult the chief mate, but stopped near the my answering from Barton, Ti- utes elapsed, and again they rose to cases which had occurred in the doc- animal, and addressing it, said 'Haloga county, he seemed quite pleased, the surface; the young lady's arm tor's practice, and soon attracted the loo, Nep! what's the matter with you, and remarked, that he himself was from twined closely round her companion's attention of the company, who ceased old boy?' The creature wagged his Siracuse, and that on his way down to neck, while, with his left arm around operations, to follow, as well as they long bushy tail at hearing his master's New York he passed through Barton, her waist, he grasped the faithless eleand he intended on his return home to ment, convulsively, with his right, devious course the diminutive M. D. again; but in less than a minute he retake the same route. You are a stran- Boxes, planks, ropes, &c. were now was forced to navigate. Round and sumed his growling, and raised himger, said he, to the city as well as my- thrown out to aid them to the boat, round, here and there, backwards and self upon his forepaws, "He hears self, but I know more about it than but so very rough were the waves, that forwards, and sideways, he was unmer- something beyond our knowledge,"

The animal at first rose lazily,stretching his limbs and shaking his coat, but in an instant he stood immoveable in the fixed attitude of attenpeop-ladder, running from side to side, and barking most vehemently, till at last he took his station to windward, and seeined perfectly furious. 'We cannot be within six miles of the ficet? said the Captain, and yet I am confi-Whether cathead there, do you see ·Folkstle, there,' cried the captain,

'do you see any thing on the weatherbut there was a sound came down upon the wind just now---though I fear' -- he stopped short, but added in somewhat subsided, the struggle was a whisper---it was no living creature uttered such a groan as that!' . The boat --- the boat Nep!' said the captain, patting the dog; look out for the bout, sir.' The animal raised his forepaws, of every countenance. If a comb hap- laid them on the rail, and crouching that state. The incidents which he pened to fall from a lady's head, sett- his head upon them, looked intently to ing loose her luxuriant ringlets, there windward, moving his ears rapidly. --was no hand to replace it; or, if a shot In a few seconds he give a shrill how!. chanced to slip from the delicate foot and then barking, jumped down, and of its owner, she went without it, for scouted the captain; clear away a gun gauntlet. All the rights of meum and blue lights,' when carressing the dog, tuum, as regards elbow-room, were he added, there my good neptune, see forgotten, or, by common consent, to tem-lad, look to tem. Neptune apabrogated; and the room, for the space peared to comprehend what was said of an hour, presented the most ani- to him, for jumping on a coop, he snuffmated picture of hilarious enjoyment ed the wind and fixed his eyes I have ever witnessed. Old bachelors steadfastly about a point abaft the and old maids, who par parenthese, weather-beam. The lanterns were seemed to be constantly pulling against displayed, and blue lights sent forth each other: young bachelors "in the their clear blaze, when again that hol-full tide of successful experiment," on low mean was heard, and the doc with low moan was heard, and the dog, with the hearts of the young belles; and loud barking, leaped from his station, blooming widows, were all jos l d and fawned upon the captain, who exabout in the most indescribable confu- claimed, Brace the yards sharp upsion, without regard to buckram sleeves aboard main track; and, quarter-masor afflicted toes. Vain would it tr, keepher clean, full and by:-at all be for me to attempt to give a distinct, events, we'll see the end of this! The idea of such a scene; to be understood sails were nicely trimmed, and a gallant ship upon a bowline bent to the At the end of an hour of tircless breeze, and dashed the spray from her activity, the caudy was laid as de, and bows. Blue lights were still burnt a general effort made to disenthrall the occasionally, the lanterns were shown hands from its pertinacious hold, and abaft, and in half an hour the ship restore discomfited dresses to their was hove in stays, and soon was reach-In another half hour (for the cop-tain timed it with his watch) the mainsail was hauled up, and the after-yards were in the act of being squarred, Sagacity of a Newfoundland Dog. eye was instantly directed towards the