Presidency and Vice Presidency.

A period has arrived in the history of the old time-hon ored Democratic Party, when it becomes the solemn duty of those who love principle more than men, to take counsel of their judgments, rather than personal preferences and prejudices, and sta d forth calmly, firmly in defence of the sight. We feel that we are doing this in nailing to our mast-head the colors of Breckinridge and Lane with the platform of principles they have declared in their letters of acceptance, and using all honorable means to ensure their election. In the language of our candidate for Presldent, let us stand by th "Constitution, and Equality of States! These are symbols of everlasting Union. Let these be the rallying cry of the people.
